

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

EDITOR'S PREFACE.

In the preparation of this volume, the Editor has adhered to the rules adopted in the first, viz.: In copying and preparing matter for the Press, he has aimed to preserve the exact language of the original or copy before him; particularly in writing proper names. In no case has the construction or grammar of a sentence been changed or a word altered. In copying strictly original papers, not only has the orthography, but the capitals and abbreviations, been followed. The punctuation, which in most cases was entirely wanting, the Editor has supplied.

This second volume extends over a longer period than was at first contemplated. The reason is, that by this arrangement the unity of the Council Minutes and Records, from 1692 to 1722, is preserved; after which period there is a chasm in the Council Records, till 1742. Incorporated with the Records in this volume, will be found numerous Papers, Letters and Documents which relate to correspondent matters within the same period, and which serve to throw much light on the Records.

The third volume will cover a large portion of the same period with the second, and will contain "The Journal of the Council and Assembly," together with such official Papers and Documents as relate to the transactions of that body; also, the PROVINCE LAWS passed between 1696 and 1716.

The Editor gratefully acknowledges his obligations to His Excellency Governor WALTER HARRIMAN, for the courtesy, counsel and encouragement given him in the prosecution of his labors; and also, to the Secretary of State and his Deputy, and to the State Librarian, for free access to Documents and Books, in their respective departments.

CONCORD, November, 1868.

Commission of Sir Edmund Andros, as Governor of the Territory and Dominion of New-England.

[From a Copy in the office of Secretary of State.]

JAMES the Second, by the Grace of God King of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c., To our trusty and well-beloved Sir EDMUND ANDROS,* Knight, greeting:

Whereas the government of that part of our Territory and Dominion of NEW-ENGLAND hereafter mentioned, is now in our hands, and being minded to give all protection and encouragement to our good subjects therein, and to provide in the most effectual manner for their security and welfare—WEE, therefore, reposing especiall trust and confidence in the prudence, courage and loyalty

* Sir Edmund Andros was born in London, Dec. 6, 1637. His ancestors were from Northampshire, of considerable note, and always devoted to royalty. AMICE, the father of Edmund, married Elizabeth Stone, sister of Sir Robert Stone, knight, cupbearer to the Queen of Bohemia, and captain of a troop of horse in Holland, and was Master of Ceremonies to King Charles the First at the time of his son Edmund's birth, who was brought up from a boy in the royal family, and in its exile commenced his career of arms in Holland, under Henry, Prince of Nassau. After the restoration of Charles II., having been inviolably faithful to His Majesty, Edmund was made Gentleman in Ordinary to Elizabeth Stuart, Queen of Bohemia, the King's aunt. Subsequently he distinguished himself in the war waged by Charles II. against the Dutch, and which ended in 1667. He married, in 1671, Mary, daughter of Sir Thomas Craven; and, in 1672, was commander of the forces in the Barbadoes, and had obtained the reputation of being skilled in American affairs. In 1674, on the death of his father, he became Seigneur of the Fiefs, and succeeded to the office of Bailiff of Guernsey. The same year he was constituted, by the King, Governor-General of the Province of New-York. He arrived in this country, accompanied by his wife, on the 1st of November, of you, the said Sir EDMUND ANDROS, out of our especial grace, certain knowledge and mere motion, have thought fit to constitute and appoint, and by these presents do constitute and appoint you, the said Sir Edmund Andros, to be our Captain General and Governor-in-chief, in and over all that our Territory and dominion of New-England in America, comonly called or known by the name of our Colony of the Massachusetts Bay, our colony of New-Plymouth, and our provinces of New-Hampshire and Maine, the Narragansett Country, otherwise called the King's Province, with all the islands, rights and members to the said colonies and territories in any wise appertaining; and, for your better guidance and direction, WEE do hereby require and command you to do and execute all things in due manner that shall belong unto the said office, and the trust Wee have reposed in you, according to the several powers, instructions and authorities mentioned in these presents, or such further powers, instructions and authorities as you shall herewith receive, or which shall at any time hereafter be granted or appointed you under our Signet and Sign manual, or by our order, in our Privy Council, and according to such reasonable laws and statutes as are now in force, or such others as shall hereafter be made and established within that our territory and dominion aforesaid; and our will and pleasure is, that you, the said Sir Edmund Andros, having (after your arrival in New-England, and publication of these our Letters Patents), first taken the oath of allegiance, together with the oath of duly executing the office of our Captain-General and Governor-in-chief of our said

1674, and entered on the government on the 10th of that month. In 1677 he returned to England, and was knighted by Charles the Second in 1678; on the 27th of May, the same year, he sailed again for New-York, in the ship "Blossom," Richard Martin, of New-England, master; and resumed the government of New-York. In 1686, James II. appointed him Governor, Captain-General, and Vice-Admiral of Massachusetts-New-Hampshire, Maine, New-Plymouth, and afterwards of Rhode Island and Connecticut, comprehending the whole of New England,—to which, in 1688, New-York and New-Jersey were added. On the 22d of January, 1689, his wife died at Boston, and was buried by torchlight; the corpse having been carried from the Governor's residence to the South Church in a hearse drawn by six horses, attended by a suitable Guard of Honor. Sir Edmund was eminently unpopular in the administration of his government, and was deposed by a sudden uprising of the people in Boston, on the 18th April, 1689. Notwithstanding, he retained the royal favor; in 1692 was appointed by William III. Governor of Virginia, to which was adjoined that of Maryland. He founded William and Mary's College, 1692. He encouraged the cultivation of cotton, sorted and regulated the public papers and records in the Secretary's office, and was popular in his office till 1698. In 1704, under Queen Anne, he was appointed Governor of Guernsey. Sir Edmund married three times, but died without issue, in the parish of St. Anne, Westminster, in February, 1714, in his seventy-sixth year. [N. Y. Col. MSS., vol. II., pp. 740-42.]

territory and dominion, (which our Council there, or any three of them, are hereby required, authorized and impowered to give and administer unto you), you shall administer to each of the members of our Council, as well the oath of allegiance as the oath for the due execution of their places and trust. And Wee do hereby give and grant unto you full power and authority to suspend any member of our Council from sitting, voting and assisting therein, as you shall find just cause for so doing; and if it shall hereafter at any time happen, that by the death, departure out of our said territory, or suspension of any of our councillors, or that otherwise there shall be a vacancy in our said Council, (any five whereof we do hereby appoint to be a quorum), our will and pleasure is, that you signify the same unto us by the first opportunity, that Wee may, under our Signet and Sign manual, constitute and appoint others in their room. But that our affairs at that distance may not suffer for want of a due number of councillors, if ever it shall happen that there are less than seven of them residing upon the place, Wee do hereby give and grant unto you full power and authority to choose as many persons out of the principal inhabitants thereof as will make up the full number of our Council to be seven, and no more; which persons, by virtue of such choice, shall be, to all intents and purposes, our councillors within our said territory, until they be confirmed by us, or that by nomination of others by us, under our sign manual and signet, the said Council shall have seven persons in it.

And Wee do hereby give and grant unto you full power and authority, by and with the advice and consent of our said Council, or the major part of them, to make, constitute and ordain laws, statutes and ordinances for the public peace, welfare and good government of our said territory and dominion, and of the people and inhabitants thereof, and such others as shall resort thereunto, and for the benefit of us, our heirs and successors, which said laws, statutes and ordinances are to be, as near as conveniently may be, agreeable to the laws and statutes of this our kingdom of England.

Provided, That all such laws, statutes and ordinances, of what nature or duration soever, be, within three months or sooner, after the making of the same, transmitted unto us, under our seal of New-England, for our allowance or disapprobation of them, as also duplicates thereof by the next conveyance. And Wee do by these presents give and grant unto you full power and authority, by and with the advice and consent of our said Council, or the major part of them, to impose and assess and raise and levy such rates and taxes as you shall find necessary for the support of the government within our territory and dominion of New-England; to be collected and levied, and to be employed for the uses aforesaid, in such manner as to you and our said Council, or the major part of them, shall seem most equal and reasonable. And for the better supporting the charge of the government of our said territory and dominion, our will and pleasure is, and Wee do by these presents authorize and require you, the said Sir Edmund Andros, and our said Council, to continue such taxes and impositions as are now laid and imposed upon the inhabitants thereof, and to levy and distribute or cause the same to be levied and distributed to those ends in the best and most equal manner, until you shall, by and with the advice and consent of our Council, agree on and settle such other taxes as shall be sufficient for the support of our government there, which are to be applied to that use and no other.

And our further will and pleasure is, that all public money, raised, or to be raised or appointed, for the support of the government within our said territory and dominion be issued out by warrant or order from you, by and with the advice and consent of our Council as aforesaid; and our will and pleasure is, that you shall and may keep and use our seal, appointed or to be appointed by us for said territory and dominion. And Wee do further give and grant unto you, the said Sir Edmund Andros, full power and authority from time to time, and at any time hereafter, by yourself or by any other to be authorized by you in that behalf, to administer and give the oath of allegiance, now established within this our realm of England, to all and every such person as you shall think fit, or shall at any time or times pass unto our said territory, or shall be resident or abiding there. And Wee do by these presents ordain, constitute and appoint our Governor and Council of our said territory and dominion for the time being, to be a constant and settled Court of Record, for the administration of justice to all our subjects, inhabiting within our said territory and dominions, in all causes as well civil as criminal, with full power and authority to hold Pleas in all cases from time to time as well in Pleas of the Crown, and in all matters relating to the conservation of the peace and punishment of offenders, as in civil causes or actions between party and party, or between us and any of our subjects there, whether the same do concern the realty and relate to any rights of freehold and inheritance, or whether the same do concern the personalty, and relate to matter of debt, contract, damage, or other personal injury; and also in all mixed actions which may concern both realty and personalty; and therein, after due and orderly proceeding and deliberate hearing of both sides, to give judgment and to award execution as well in criminal as in civil cases as aforesaid, so always that the forms of proceedings in such cases, and the judgment thereupon to be given, be as consonant and agreeable to the laws and statutes of this our realm of England as the present state and condition of our subjects, inhabiting within our said territory and dominion, and the circumstances of the place, will admit.

And Wee do further hereby give and grant unto you full power and authority, with the advice and consent of our said Council, to erect, constitute and establish such and so many Courts of Judicature and Public Justice within our said territory and dominion, as you and they shall think fit and necessary for the determining of all causes, as well criminal as civil, according to law and equity, and for awarding of execution thereupon, with all reasonable and necessary powers, authorities, fees, and privileges belonging unto them, as also to appoint and commissionate fit persons in the several parts of our said territory to administer the oath of allegiance unto such as shall be obliged to take the same.

And Wee do hereby grant unto you full power and authority to constitute and appoint Judges, and, in cases requisite, Commissioners of oyer and terminer, Justices of the peace, Sheriffs, and all other necessary officers and ministers within our said territory, for the better administration of justice and putting the laws in execution, and to administer such oath and oaths as are usually given for the due execution and performance of offices and places, and for the clearing of truth in judicial cases; and our further will and pleasure is, and Wee do hereby declare, that all actings and proceedings at law or equity, heretofore had or done, or now depending within any of the Courts of our said territory, and all executions thereupon, be hereby confirmed and continued, so far forth as not to be avoided for want or defect of any legal power in the said Courts, but that all and every such judicial actings, proceedings and executions, shall be of the same force, effect and virtue as if such Courts had acted by a just and legal authority. And Wee do further, by these presents, will and require you to permit appeals to be made in cases of error from our Courts in our said territory and dominion of New-England, unto our Governor and Council in civil causes. Provided, the value appealed for do exceed the sum of one hundred pounds sterling; and that security be first duly given by the appellant to answer such charges as shall be awarded, in case the first sentence shall be affirmed.

And whereas, Wee judge it necessary that all our subjects may have liberty to appeal to our royal person, in cases that may require the same, our will and pleasure is, that if either party shall not rest satisfied with the judgment or sentence of our Governor and Council, they may then appeal unto us in our Privy Council: Provided, the matter in difference exceed the real value and sum of three hundred pounds sterling, and that such appeal be made within one fortnight after sentence, and that security be likewise duly given by the appellant to answer such charges as shall be awarded in case the sentence of the governor and council be confirmed; and Provided also that execution be not suspended by reason of any such appeals unto us.

And Wee do hereby give and grant unto you full power where you shall see cause, and shall judge any offender or offenders in capital and criminal matters, or for any fines or forfeitures due unto us, fit subjects of our mercy, to pardon all such offenders and to remit such fines and forfeitures, (treason and wilful murder only excepted), in which cases you shall likewise have power, upon extraordinary occasions, to grant reprieves to the offenders therein, until, and to the intent our pleasure may be further known; and Wee do hereby give and grant unto you, the said Sir Edmund Andros, by yourself, your captains and commanders, by you to be authorized, full power and authority to levy, arm, muster, command or employ all persons whatever residing within our said territory and dominion of New-England, and, as occasion shall serve, them to transfer from one place to another for the resisting and withstanding of all enemies, pirates and rebels, both at land and sea, and to transfer such forces to any of our Plantations in America as occasion shall require for the defence of the same against the invasion or attempt of any of our enemies: And them, if occasion shall require, to pursue and prosecute in or out of the limits of our said territory and plantations, or any of them; and, (if it shall so please God) them to vanquish, and, being taken, either according to the law of arms, to put to death, or keep and preserve alive, at your discretion; as also to execute martial law in time of invasion, insurrection or war, and during the continuance of the same, and upon soldiers in pay, and to do and execute all and every other thing which to a Captain-General doth or ought of right to belong, as fully and amply as any our Captain-General doth or hath usually done. And Wee do hereby give and grant unto you full power and authority to erect, raise and build within our territory and dominion aforesaid, such and so many forts, platforms, castles, cities, boroughs, towns and fortifications as you shall judge necessary, and the same or any of them to fortify and furnish with ordnance, ammunition, and all sorts of arms, fit and necessary for the security and defence of our said territory, and the same again or all of them to demolish or dismantle, as may be most convenient. And we do hereby give and grant unto you, the said Sir Edmund Andros, full power and authority to erect one or more Court or Courts Admiral within our said territory and dominion, for the hearing and determining of all marine and other causes and matters proper therein to be heard and determined, with all reasonable and necessary powers, authorities, fees and privileges; and you are to execute all powers belonging to the place and office of Vice-Admiral of and in all the seas and coasts about your government, according to such commission, authority and instructions as you shall receive from ourself, under the seal of our Admiralty, or from our High Admiral of our foreign plantations for the time being.

And forasmuch as divers mutinies and disorders do happen by persons shipped and employed at sea, and to the end that such as shall be shipped or employed at sea may be the better governed and ordered, Wee do hereby give and grant unto you, the said Sir Edmund Andros, our Captain-General and Governor-in-chief, full power and authority to constitute and appoint captains, masters of ships and other commanders, and to grant unto such captains, masters of ships, and other commanders, Commissions to execute the law martial, and use such proceedings, authorities, punishments, correction and execution upon any offender or offenders which shall be mutinous, seditious, disorderly, or any way unruly, either at sea, or during the time of their abode or residence in any of the ports, harbors or bays of our said territory and dominion, as the cause shall be found to require according to martial law.

Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to the enabling you, or any by your authority, to hold plea, or have jurisdiction of any offence, cause, matter, or thing committed or done upon the sea, or within any of the havens, rivers or creeks of our said territory and dominion under your government, by any captain, commander, lieutenant, master, or other officer, seaman, soldier, or person whatsoever, who shall be in actual service and pay, in and on board any of our ships of war, or other vessels acting by immediate commission or warrant from ourself, under the seal of our Admiralty, or from our High Admiral of England for the time being; but that such captain, commander, lieutenant, master, officer, seaman, soldier, and other persons so offending, shall be left to be proceeded against and tried as the merit of their offences shall require, either by commission under our Great Seal of England, as the statute of the twenty-eighth of Henry the Eighth directs, or by commission from our said High Admiral, according to the act of Parliament, passed in the thirteenth year of the reign of the late king, our most dear and most entirely beloved brother, of ever blessed memory, entitled, ("An act for the establishing articles and orders for the regulating and better government of his Majesty's navies, ships of war, and forces by sea"), and not otherwise; saving only that it shall and may be lawful for you, upon any such captain or commander refusing or neglecting to execute, or upon his negligence or undue execution of any of the within orders he shall receive from you for our service, and the service of said territory and dominion, to suspend him, the said captain or commander, from the exercise of his said office of commander, and commit him into safe custody, either on board his own ship, or elsewhere, at the discretion of you, in order to his being brought to answer for the same by commission, either under our Great Seal of England, or from our said High Admiral, as is before expressed. In which case our will and pleasure is that the captain or commander so by you suspended, shall, during such his suspension and commitment, be succeeded in his said office by such commission or warrant officer of our said ship, appointed by ourself or our High Admiral of England for the time being, as, by the known practice and discipline of our navy, doth and ought next to succeed him, as in case of death, sickness, or other ordinary disability happening to the commander of any of our ships, and not otherwise; you standing also accountable unto us for the truth and importance of the crimes and misdemeanors for which you shall so proceed to the suspending of such, our said captain or commander.

Provided, also, that all disorders and misdemeanors committed on shore by any captain, commander, lieutenant, master, or other officer, seaman, soldier, or person whatsoever, belonging to any of our ships of war or other vessels acting by immediate commission or warrant from ourself, under the seal of our Admiralty, or from our High Admiral of England for the time being, may be tried and punished according to the laws of the place where any such disorders, offences and misdemeanors shall be so committed on shore, notwithstanding such offender be in our actual service, and born in our pay on board any such our ships of war, or other vessels acting by immediate commission or warrant from ourself, or our High Admiral as aforesaid, so as he shall not receive any protection (for the avoiding of justice for such offences committed

Sir,—

His Excellency Sir Edmund Andros, Knight, Captain General and Governor in Chief, arrived here yesterday, at which time his Majesty's commission, bearing date the third of June last, was published, his Excellency has appointed a General Council, to be to grant lands on such terms, and subject to such quit-rents, as should be appointed by the king. Invested with such powers, these men were capable of the most extravagant actions. Thereupon Andros, like his master, began his administration with the fairest professions, yet, like him, he soon violated them, and proved himself a fit instrument for accomplishing the most execrable designs.

“To particularize the many instances of tyranny and oppression which the country suffered from these men is not within the design of this work; let it suffice to observe, that the press was restrained, liberty of conscience infringed, exorbitant fees and taxes demanded, without the voice or consent of the people, who had no privilege of representation. The charter [of Massachusetts] being vacated, it was pretended that all titles to land were annulled; and as to Indian deeds, Andros declared them no better than ‘the scratch of a bear's paw.’ Landholders were obliged to take out patents for their estates, which they had possessed forty or fifty years. For these patents extravagant fees were exacted; and those who would not submit to this imposition had writs of intrusion brought against them, and their land was patented to others. To hinder the people from consulting about the redress of their grievances, town meetings were prohibited, except one in the month of May for the choice of town officers; and, to prevent complaints being carried to England, no person was permitted to go out of the country without express leave from the Governor. But, notwithstanding all the vigilance of the Governor, his emissaries and his guards, the resolute and indefatigable INCREASE MATHER, minister of the Second Church in Boston and President of the College, got on board a ship and sailed for England, with complaints in the name of the people against the Governor, which he delivered with his own hand to the King; but, finding no hope of redress, he waited the event of the Revolution, which was then expected.”

holden here on Thursday the 30th of this instant, December, and directed me to acquaint all the members thereof, that they may be present accordingly. His Excellency presents his humble services to you, and would be glad to see you at Boston.

I am, Sir,

Your humble servant,

EDWARD RANDOLPH.

The first Meeting of the Council under Andros.

At a Council held in Boston, New England, on Thursday, December 30, 1686, present—

His Excellency, Sir EDMUND ANDROS, Knight Governor:

JOSEPH DUDLEY,
THOMAS HINCKLEY,
WAIT WINTHROP,
JNO. USHER,
BARNABY LOTHROP,
JOHN WALLEY,
JOHN COGGESHALL,
RICHARD ARNOLD,
WILLIAM STOUGHTON,

RICHARD WHARTON,
EDWARD TYNG,
JONATHAN TYNG,
WILLIAM BRADFORD,
DANIEL SMITH,
NATHANIEL CLARK,
WALTER NEWBURY,
JOHN ALBOROUGH,

Upon opening of the Council, his Excellency commanded the members to be called over by their names, and take their places, as set down in certain articles of instruction from his Majesty, to his Excellency the Governor.

The members of the Council being accordingly seated, his Majesty's commission for government of this his Territory and Dominion of New-England, was read, and also, the instructions under his Majesty's sign Manual empowering his Excellency to revise the Charter of Rhode Island and Providence Plantation, was likewise read.

His Excellency proceeded to administer the oath of allegiance, and the oath, also, for the due administration of justice, and commanded such persons of the Council, as had not already taken these oaths, to stand up and answer to their names, viz. Thomas Hinckley, Walter Clark, Barnaby Lathrop, William Bradford, Daniel Smith, Jno. Walley, Nathaniel Clark, John Coggeshall, Walter Newbury, Richard Arnold and John Alborough, who (all of them) Walter Clark and Walter Newbury excepted, did take the oath, and showed assent thereto, by holding up their right hands.

Walter Clark and Walter Newbury, gave also their express consent to the oath of allegiance, and the oath for the administration of justice in the Government, according as directed in his Majesty's late commission to the President and Council, professing themselves obliged in all good conscience before God so to do, and that, under the utmost penalties of perjury in all respects, the members of the Council, being severally asked their opinion, did allow of their protestation. His Excellency in a short discourse, encouraged the members to freedom in debates.

Walter Clark and Walter Newbury, acknowledge the surrender of the Charter made to his Majesty at Windsor, but fearing that surrender was not effectual for avoiding all mistakes, they had presented another humble address to his Majesty under the public Seal of this Colony, and had sent over agents to pray his Majesty's favor towards them, and W. Clark further added, the Charter of Rhode Island was in his custody at Newport. It was moved that a Proclamation should be made through all the Colonies and Provinces of this Government, that all officers both Civil and Military, should be continued in their places of trust, that the laws not repugnant to the laws of England in the several Colonies, should be, and observed during his Excellency's pleasure.

Ordered, that the proclamation be drawn up and presented to his Excellency in Council to-morrow by nine of the clock in the morning.

On Friday, John Fitz Winthrop and John Jenks took their seats, as members of the preceding Council.

JAMES REX.

James the Second by the Grace of God, King of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, and to all to whom these presents shall come, greeting. Whereas we have thought fit to appoint a President and Council, until we shall send over a Governor-in-Chief to take care of all our Territory and Dominion in New-England, commonly called or known by the names of the Colony of the Massachusetts Bay, the Provinces of New-Hampshire and Maine, and the Narraganset Country, otherwise called the King's Province, with all the islands, rights and members thereunto belonging, Know ye, that we reposing especial trust and confidence in the loyalty and abilities of our trusty and well-beloved Edward Randolph, Esq. have given and granted, and, by these presents, do give and grant unto him the said Edward Randolph, the several and respective places and offices of Secretary and sole Register of our Governor and Council, and of our government there, for the time being, of and in our Territories and Dominion aforesaid, and him, the said Edward Randolph, Secretary and Register of our said Territory and Dominion, we do, by these presents, make, ordain, and constitute, to have, hold, exercise and enjoy the said places and offices, or to him, the said Edward Randolph, by himself or his deputy or deputies during

Letter from Edward Randolph to the Lord Treasurer.

BOSTON, IN NEW-ENGLAND, }
August 23, 1686. }

May it please your Lordship.

By the blessing of God and your Lordship's favour, I have performed his Majesty's commands, and brought this people to a nearer dependence upon the Crown. I have likewise served 2 writs of Quo Warranto, upon the other 2 Colonies of Connecticut and Rhode Island, who are preparing to make their humble submission to his Majesty. But unless his Majesty please, in a very short time, to send us over a General Governor from England, all that is already done, will be of little advantage to his Majesty's interest. The independent faction still prevails, and persons of dangerous principles from England, Ireland and other places are here received and highly encouraged. They have put Captain Blackwell Oliver, treasurer in London, son-in-law to Lambert, excepted in the Act of Indemnity, and a violent Commonwealth's man, to be of the commission of the peace, and a man consulted with in all public affairs. The independent ministers and others, make every ill use of his Majesty's indulgence and liberty of conscience, some of them have spoken treasonable words in their pulpits, of which (to no purpose) I have complained to the President and Council, so that I am humbly of opinion, that liberty of conscience will much obstruct the settlement of this place, unless duly regulated by the authority of a prudent Governor sent hither. Your Lordship may please to remember, that this commission was but temporary, and served only to unhinge the Commonwealth, which, for many years, was usurped and managed by a faction. All the members of the present Council, Mr. Mason and myself excepted, are either church members, or strong abettors of that party, and even Mr. Dudley, our President was not long since a zealous preacher amongst us, and though, while in London, he pretended to be of the Church of England, yet, since he is made President, courts and keeps private cabals with these factious ministers and others, who, in the time of Monmouth's Rebellion, refused to pray for his Majesty. His Majesty hath been graciously pleased to make me Secretary of his Council here, but the accounts of the late Treasurer and whatever relates to the discovery of his Majesty's Revenue, is kept from my knowledge. The public records, and all the grants and settlement of lands in this country, which ought to be lodged in my office, are otherwise disposed of, not being willing to intrust them with me, who have been, and (as they say) am still the grand enemy of their country. Mr. Wharton, a member of the Council, did openly declare, that his Majesty in appointing me his Secretary and Register, intended to inthrall this people in vassalage. I have proposed the raising a revenue, yet cannot be heard in Council.

I have likewise pressed the making of strict orders to prevent the irregular trade of this place, but some of the Council are traders, and others by marriage or otherwise so nearly related, that without a General Governor interlopers will be countenanced, notwithstanding all my endeavor to the contrary: there have been five or six ships seized and condemned, which inflames the people's malice against me. And the President, who by his office and duty is obliged to assist me, has openly refused, to his Majesty's great disservice. I question not but by his Majesty's uniting the several Colonies under one Government, to raise his Majesty a considerable revenue by quit rents towards the support of the Government, which will yearly increase. Of this the President, Mr. Wharton and several others, who have engrossed great tracts of land are sensible, and are, therefore, unwilling to admit me to discover their Estates.

It was by your Lordship's favour, that his Majesty, in consideration of my past services, was pleased to grant me the office of Register and Secretary of this Government, a place in his Majesty's other plantations of considerable advantage; but they have taken so great prejudice against me, that they have disposed of the perquisites of that office to persons of their own stamp, so that for all my trouble and attending the Council here, I am not likely to make £20 a year. My earnest expectation of a General Governor, supports me under all these difficulties and disappointments, and though they treat me so rudely, yet I shall continue to assert his Majesty's interest in the station I am placed in, and ever remain, Right Honorable, and most obedient servant.

ED. RANDOLPH.

*Account of the Revolution in Boston, and the overthrow of Sir Edmund Andros's Government of New England. **

[Col. Rec. of R. I., vol. iii. pp. 254-55.]

“About nine o'clock of the morning of the 18th of April, just as George, the commander of the ‘Rose’ frigate, stepped on shore, Green and the Boston ship-carpenters gathered about him and made him a prisoner. The town took the alarm. The royalist sheriff hastened to quiet the multitude, and the multitude secured him as their prisoner. From him they hastened to the major of the regiment, and demanded colors and drums. He resisted; they threatened. The crowd increased; companies formed under Nelson, Foster, Waterhouse, their old officers; and already, at ten, they seize Bullivant, Foxcroft, and Ravenscraft. Boys ran along the streets with clubs; the drums beat; the Governor, with his creatures, resisted in council, withdrew to the Fort to desire a conference with the ministers and two or three more. The conference was declined. All the companies soon rallied at the town-house. Just then, the last Governor of the Colony, in office when the Charter was abrogated, Simon Bradstreet,—glorious with the dignity of fourscore years and seven, one of the early immigrants, a magistrate in 1630, whose experience connected the oldest generation with the new,—drew near the town-house, and was received by a great shout from the freemen. The old magistrates were re-instated, as a Council of Safety; the whole town rose in arms, ‘with the most unanimous resolution that ever inspired a people,’ and a Declaration, read from the balcony, defended the insurrection as a duty to God and the country. ‘We commit our enterprise,’ it was added, ‘to Him who hears the cry of the oppressed, and advise all our neighbors, for whom we have thus ventured ourselves, to joyn with us in prayers and all just actions for the defence of the land.’

“On Charlestown side, a thousand soldiers crowded together; and the multitude would have been larger, if needed. The Governor, vainly attempting to escape to the frigate, was, with his creatures, compelled to seek protection by submission: through the streets where he had first displayed his scarlet coat and arbitrary commission, he and his fellows were marched to the town-house, and thence to prison.

“On the next day, the country came swarming across the Charlestown and Chelsea ferries, headed by Shepherd, a school-master of Lynn. All the cry was against Andros and Randolph. The cattle were taken; the frigate was mastered; the fortifications occupied.

“How should a new government be instituted? Town-meetings, before news had arrived of the proclamation of William and Mary, were held throughout the Colony. Of fifty-four towns, forty certainly, probably more, voted to re-assume the old Charter. Representatives were chosen; and once more Massachusetts assembled in General Court.”

“ A short narrative of the present unsettled state of His Majesty's territory and dominion of New England and of the imminent danger of its being overrun by the French Forces in Cannada, if not timely prevented, humbly presented by Edward Randolph.

“ May it please your Lordships.—About the yeare One Thousand Six Hundred Seventy Eight, it was made apparent to the Right Honorable the Lords of the Committee for Trade, by the opinion of S<sup>r</sup> Will<sup>m</sup> Jones and Sir Francis Winington then Attorney and Solicitor Gen<sup>l</sup> that the severall articles of high misdemeanour objected against the Governor and Company of the Massachusetts Bay in New England for their maleadministration, were a sufficient ground (if proved) for his Ma'ty to proceed against their Charter by law; some of which are as follows viz: Coining money without His Ma'ty's permission; Tradeing contrary to the Acts of Navigation, whereby His Ma'ty's revenue was greatly * Joseph Dudley, Esq., was the predecessor of Andros in the government, and, at a subsequent period, Governor of Massachusetts and New-Hampshire.

Mass. Col. Rec., vol. vi. p. 64: “ Upon the several motions of Joseph Dudley, and in consideration of his great indisposition of Body, Its ordered that he shall be forthwith removed from the Prison and confined to His own house at Roxbury, till further order, not to go out of the said House or precincts of his yard, or backside adjoining, at any time, Except to the publique worship of God, on the Sabbath Day, and that under a sufficient guard to conduct him from his own house to the said meeting and back again, which is to be ordered and appointed by the Captain of the Fort Company in Roxbury; and he, the said Dudley to give Bond to the value of Ten Thousand Pounds with sufficient sureties to be, and remain a true prisoner, according to the Contents and true meaning of this order, until he shall be released by order of Law, or otherwise disposed of by Direction from the Government of the Massachusetts Colony.”

impaired (as was made appeare by the petition of severall eminent Merchants of London presented to His Ma<sup>ty</sup> in Council), Not allowing those or any other Acts of Parliment to be in force with them unless soe declared in their Gen. Assembly;—Denying appeales from their Courts to England;—Laying Customes upon the goods of His Ma<sup>ty</sup>s subjects (not foremen of the colony) tho' imported directly from England;—And for prosecuting by fines, imprisonment, whipping, banishment and putting to death, His Ma<sup>ty</sup>s subjects in matters in religion. All which were confessed by their Agents in their petition to His Ma<sup>ty</sup> during their attendance at Court to answer the complaints of Mr. Mason and Mr. Gorge for invadeing their Provinces of New Hampshire and Maine in New England. Whereupon Sir Robert Sawyer then Atturney Genl. was ordered by the Laws of the Committee for Trade to bring a Writt of Quo Warranto against their Charter, which for these severall offences and alsoe for refusing to submitt to such a regulation in the management of their government so as all His Ma<sup>ty</sup>s subjects might finde equall justice amongst them; and upon their refusing alsoe to plead (tho' they had all favour and time allowed them to make their defence) was vacated, and a Commission granted to severall gentlemen, members of their late Council, to exercise government in that colony; of which number was Mr. Bradstreet (present pretended Governor), who refused, and the others with great difficulty accepted thereof, as appears by the printed paper No 6.

“About the yeare one thousand six hundred eighty five the French of Canada encroached upon the lands of the subjects of the Crowne of England, building forts upon the heads of their great Rivers, and extending their bounds, disturbed the inhabitants and layd a clayme to those lands which for many yeares had belonged to the English; and under pretence of a right to the sole fishery between the degrees of forty three and forty six North latitude, they seized eight New England ketches loaden with fish off the Coast of Nova Scotia, took away all their fish, treated the masters most barbarously and afterwards carryed them and most of the ketches to Rochell, where they were a long time imprisoned. The masters came afterwards from thence to New England.

“I then assisted them in their application to the Earle of Sunderland and to the Lord Preston, then Embassador in France; but his Lordship though he pressed the matter could obtaine noe redresse. Whereupon it was advised and ordered in Council that the three small Colonyes of Connecticott, New Plymouth and Rhode Island, not able to make any defence against the French, together with the Provinces of New Hampshire and Maine, should be united and made one entire government, the better to defend themselves against invasion. And accordingly a commission was directed to Sir Edmund Andros with instructions to take them all under his care, which he accordingly accepted and they in a short time submitted thereunto.

“About August last, the time S<sup>r</sup> Edmund Andros went to take possession of the government at New York, eleven French Indians, killed five of our Indians neere the town of Springfield, and soon after five English at the towne of Northfield upon Connecticut River; they fled to Canada, and tho’ knowne by name and demanded by Sir Edmund Andros, yet Marque d’Nonville, the French Governor refused to surrender them. Soon after the Indians to the Eastward, fell upon the English townes in the Province of Maine, destroyed their corne and cattle, burnt their houses, killed some and took others of the inhabitants prisoners; having with them a French priest in their councils.

“The Governor left the forces to the Eastward on the sixteenth of March and arrived in Boston about a week after, and as soon as those soldiers had notice of the disturbance in Boston, some forsooke, others revolted, seized upon their officers, and sent them bound prisoners hither; so that all that country [Eastward] extending above fourty leagues upon the sea shore, that was secured in their fishing and saw-mills, is now deserted and left to the ravage of the barbarous heathens, who are already come down, have destroyed and burnt some forts and several dwelling houses, and kill’d some of the people, the miserable inhabitants in no way capable to preserve themselves and cattle by flight.

“The French have above four thousand good men about Canada, ready for any designe. I expect that upon the news of the Bostoners re-assuming their old government (no care being taken for the out townes and Provinces) they will joyne with the Indians, and in a short time swallow and be masters of that part of the Country (not long since grauted to the French West India Company by patent from their King), and then being possessed of our best ports and harbours, be masters of all the great marts in New England and will infest the trade of other the English forraine plantations; the prevention whereof was one cheife ground of putting all those petty governments under one generall Governour.

“My Lords — Notwithstanding all the pretensions of grievances mentioned in these papers, and cryes of oppression in the Govern<sup>rs</sup> proceedings, it’s not the person of S<sup>r</sup> Edmund Andros, but the government itself, they designe to have removed, that they may freely trade; and therefore urge a necessity of his Ma<sup>ty</sup> grant for a new or confirming their old Charter.

“The Ministers, who in their government were cheife in advising and directing matters of publique import, as well in electing Magistrates as in makeing laws and what else did relate to the government, and now cheife in contriving & setting on foot this generall revolt and subversion of the government:—were not consulted with”—[i.e. by Andros and his adherents.]

“Five Ministers of Boston, viz., Moode,* (1) Allen, (2) Young, Mather, (3) Willard, (4) and Milburn an Anabaptist Minister, were in the Councill Chamber on the eighteenth of April when the Govern<sup>r</sup> and myselfe were brought out of the Fort before them, writing orders, and were authors of some of their printed papers.

“My Lords—I am kept very inhumanely and the Governor worse, whose packett sent by expresse order from Whitehall and letters of both publick and private concerns of his and mine, are stop'd and open'd by S<sup>r</sup> William Phips, who says the Govern<sup>r</sup> is a rogue and shall not have his packetts nor letters, and pretends an order for so doing and keeps them from us. I humbly intreat the favour of your Lordships that I be not exposed here to the malice of those, who, for my faithfull service to the Crowne for fourteen years in this countrey, are become my enemyes; but rather, if yo<sup>r</sup> Lordships please, that they may be commanded to send over me and my accusers to England, to answer what they have to charge me with.

“I have many things (relating to the well being of this countrey) of great import to His Ma<sup>ty</sup> service, which, being now a close prisoner and all my papers and materiall writings kept from me, I am in no condition to transmitt to yo<sup>r</sup> Lordships, but expect, with patience by your Lordships directions, for a speedy opportunity for so doing.

“All which is humbly submitted by

“ The severall Provinces and Collonys in New England * being soe united; the revenue continued and settled in those parts, for the support of the government, amounted to about twelve thousand pounds pr ann<sup>m</sup>, and all places were well and quietly settled and in good posture.

“ The Church of England being unprovided of place for theyr publique worship, he did, by advice of the Councill, borrow the new meeting house in Boston, at such times as the same was unused, until they could provide otherwise; and accordingly on Sundays went in between eleven and twelve in the morning, and in the afternoon about fower; but understanding it gave offence, hastned the building of a Church, w<sup>ch</sup> was effected at the charge of those of the Church of England, where the Chaplaine of the souldiers p<sup>r</sup>formed divine service and preaching.

“ On the 18th of April 1689, severall of his Ma<sup>ties</sup> Council in New England having combined and conspired together with those who were Magistrates and officers in the late Charter Government annually chosen by the people, and severall other prsons, to subvert and overthrow the goverment, and instead thereof to introduce their former Commonwealth; and having, by their false reports and aspersions gott to their assistance the greatest part of the people, whereof appeared in arms at Boston und<sup>r</sup> the comand of those who were officers in the sayd former popular goverment, to the number of about two thousand horse and foote; which strange and sudden appearance being wholly a surprise to * Connecticut was annexed in 1687, and New York, East and West Jersey in 1688. — ED.

S<sup>r</sup> Edmund Andros, as knowing noe cause or occasion for the same, but understanding that severall of the Councill were at the Councill Chamber where (it being the ordinary Councill day) they were to meet, and some p<sup>r</sup>ticularly by him sent for from distant parts also there, he and those with him went thither. And tho' (as he passed) the streets were full of armed men, yett none offered him or those that were with him the least rudeness or incivility, but on the contrary usual respect; but when he came to the Councill Chamber he found severall of the sayd former popular Magistrates and other chiefe p<sup>r</sup>sons then p<sup>r</sup>sent, with those of the Councill, who had noe suitable regard to him, nor the peace and quiet of the Country, but instead of giveing any assistance to support the Government, made him a prisoner and also imprisoned some members of the Councill and other officers, who in pursuance of their respective dutyes and stations attended on him, and kept them for the space of ten months und<sup>r</sup> severe and close confinement until by his Ma<sup>ties</sup> comand they were sent for England to answer what might be objected them. Where, after summons given to the p<sup>r</sup>tended Agents of New England and their twice appearance at the Councill Board, nothing being objected by them or others, they were discharged. In the time of his confinement being denyed the liberty of discourse or conversation with any p<sup>r</sup>son,* his own servants to attend him, or any communication or correspondence with any by letters, he hath noe p<sup>r</sup>ticular knowledge of their further proceedings, but hath heard and understands:—

“That soone after the confinem<sup>t</sup> of his p<sup>r</sup>son, the Confederates [took the] fort and Castle from the officers that had the command of them, whom they also imprisoned, and dispersed the few soldiers belonging to the two standing Companyes then there, as they did the rest, when they recalled the forces imployed against the Indians Eastward (which two Companyes are upon His Mat<sup>ties</sup> establishment in England,) in w<sup>ch</sup> service half a company of the standing forces at New Yorke being also imployed, the officers were surprised and brought prison<sup>er</sup> to Boston, and the soldiers dispersed, as the remaining part of them at New York were afterwards, upon the revolution there.

“Those Members of His Mat<sup>ties</sup> Councill that were in confederacy with the before mentioned popular Majestates and other chiefe actors in the revolution, tooke upon them the goverment by the name of a Councill, who not content with the inconveniency they had brought on themselves in the Massachusetts Colony, but to the ruine of the poor neighbors, on the twentieth of Aprill gave orders for the drawing off the forces from Pemyquid and other garrisons and places in the Easterne parts, far without the lymitts of their Collony and where the seate of warr with the Indians was, and to seize severall of the officers, and for calling home the vessels appoynted to gard the sea coast and fishery; which was done accordingly, and the forces disbanded when most of the soldiers belonging to the standing Companys there, were dispersed; of which, and their actings at Boston, the Indians having notice, . . . and by the assistance of the French who have been seen amongst them and engaging of severall other Indians before unconcerned, increased their numbers, that in a very short time severall hundred of their Maj<sup>ties</sup> subjects were killed and carried away captive; the Fort at Pemyquid taken; the whole country of Cornwall, the greatest part of the Province of Maine, and part of the Province of New Hampshire destroyed and deserted; and the principall trade of that countrey w<sup>ch</sup> consisted in a considerable fishery, the getting of masts, yards, &c. for the supply of his Maj<sup>ties</sup> navy Royall, and boards and other lumber for the supply of the other West India plantations, is almost wholly ruined.

“ Since this insurrection and alteration in New England they doe tolerate an unlimited irregular trade, contrary to the severall acts of Plantations, Trade and Navigation, now as little regarded as in the time of their former Charter Government; they esteeming noe laws to be binding on them but what are made by themselves, nor admitt English Laws to be pleaded there, or appeales to his Ma<sup>ties</sup>; And many shippes and vessels have since arrived from Scotland, Holland, Newfoundland and other places prohibited, they haveing imprisoned His Ma<sup>ties</sup> collector, surveyor and searcher, and displaced other Custom house officers.

Humbly sheweth, that whereas, since the late revolution in your colony, you have exerted a power of government over their Majesties' subjects and inhabitants therein, which we are given to

Province of New-Hampshire, March, 1689-90.

To the Honorable the Governor and Council of their Majesties' Colony of the Massachusetts.

Whereas the inhabitants of said Hampshire did petition your Honors for government and protection as formerly, promising obedience thereto, and payment of their equal proportion of the charge that shall arise for defence of the country against the common enemy, as also that the persons chosen to take the conduct of the militia might be commissioned for that end, a list whereof I understand do herewith present, praying, in the behalf of the Province, that commissioners for each of them in their places may be sent, both for military and civil officers, as also such orders to the major treasurer and recorder as your Honors shall judge most suitable for doing their duty in their places.

Also, that if it may be thought convenient that deputies or deputy may be sent from the General Court or major-general to the major of our Province, for disposing of the militia in each town with the comity of militia, as may be thought most conducive to the defence of the Province, and also, as occasion may serve, to impress men:

And that your Honors would please to order what is best to be done with a negro murderer, which is in our Province in irons; praying that your Honors would consider each of these particulars, and that I may be dispatched as soon as possible, that so we may get into some order for our preservation against the common enemy, which may be on us before we are aware of. This in behalf of the Province aforesaid.

Subscribe your Honor's most humble servant,

JOHN PICKERIN.

Major PIKE.

Honoured Sir. The many revolutions and chainges that has happened abroad is very wonderfull and almost amazinge; Besides what has hapned amonge and upon ourselves is very awfull and thinges loke very darke, the consideration thereof is so oppressive that [I] cannot but seke for some ease, and I know no better way [as to man] then to communicat some things to your honour, from whose prudent direction I may receive mutch satisfaction, and shall therefore crave the boldness to ofer a few lynes to your consideration not to medell with thinges further off. I shall, as brief as I may, ofer you what has happned in this province of New Hampshire, and more pertiquerly in the towne of Hampton. Sir, it is no new thyng to tell you how that him [Gov. Andros] that was both governor in your colony and also in our province was seized and the occashon thereof, whereupon, wee had only the Justices and Inferior officers left; the superior commanders being layd aside, that great questions arose whether Justices retayned theire power or any Captain, or other officer derivinge his authority from him so seased: My opinion I shall altogether wave in that matter: But so it was that it was for the most part concluded of, that we had no governors nor authority in this province so as to answer the ends of government, and to command and doe in the defence of theire majestys subjects against the comon enemy, therefore many asayes was maid in this provance to make some government till theire Majestys should take further order, but all proved ineffectuall. At first there was in the severall Towns in the Province persons chosen to manage the affairs of government in this juncture of time, but that was for some reasons laid aside, afterward there was in the town of Hampton 3 persons chosen in the towne of Hampton to meet with the Comiss: [Commissioners] of the other towns if they see cause to apoint any to debate and conclude of what was necessary at this time to be done in relation to some orderly way of Government and to make theire returns to the severall Townes for approbation or otherwise. But the inhabitants of Portsmouth met and made choice of some persons to meet with the Commissioners of the other Towns to Debate and consider of what was to be done in order to the settlement of some Government, till their Majestys should give order in the matter.

What they did, they ingaged themselves certainly to comply with. The inhabitants of the town of Hampton began to be very jealous of their friends and neighbours that they would bring them under severall inconveniences in comanding from them their men, and mony as they pleased, and so were very hard to be brought to any thing, but after severall meetings and debates, did chose 6 persons as Comissioners, with power according to the other towns (viz) Portsmouth, Dover and Exeter, and after debats jointly and fully every man then present agreed to such a method as was then drawne up. Then the severall towns was to nominate and chose meet persons for the end aforesaid; but whereas the Inhabitation of the Towne of Hampton meet on warning for that end, the major part by far of the said towne seemed to bee ferful and suspicious of theyer neighbour townes [that] they did not intend to doe as was pretended, but to bring them under to theyer disadvantage, which I thought was very ill so to think, yet they would give som instance of som former acts don, which notwithstanding, I seposed they were too uncharitable.

And so they made a voat they would not chose any person according to the direction of the Committee meet and so all proved ineffectuall. After some time the apprehention of the necessity of some orderly way of government and therby to be in the beter method to defend themselves against the comon enemy, seemed to inforse them to another asay for the obtayning thereof, and so the inhabitation of Portsmouth, drew up and signed, so many as did, a pettition, as I am informed (for I never saw it,) to the honorable the governor and councill of the Matathusetts Collony to take this province into theire care and protection, and government as formerly; and so the other townes, Dover and Exeter complied with it how generally I know not, and so brought to Hampton on Wednesday, the 26th of February last past, when the soldiers were there warned to appeare for consernes specified in said order, but no intemation given for the end of signinge to the petition, so that severall children and servants made up the number of names, when theyer parrants and masters, its said, did know nothinge of the maters, and I doubt too true. It was quickly after by William Vaughan Esq and Capt. John Pickeringe brought into the province declareing to bee excepted [accepted] by the said governor and councill, with orders given forth to meet on such a day fo chusinge of selectmen and constables and other towne officers according to former usage and custom as appears by order given to Justice Greene, bearinge date the 4th of March, 1689-90. Coppes I sepose yourselfe have. What was done on that day I need not tell. Yourselfe knows very well. But this I shall insert—that chusinge of major treasurer, and recorder was not accordinge to former usage and custom. It was prest by some to have it voated whether they would in this towne of Hampton acquies and comply with the pettition and the retorne, or words to that efect, which yourselfe was pleased to say all would bee knoct on the head at one blow. Now how comfortable it will bee for about 50 persons to prescribe the method and way of government for about 200 I shall leave to your honour to consider.

For my owne part its well knowne I am for government, and so are severall others whose names are not to the petition and hath a great esteme of and good will to, the Matathusetts government, and to those worthy persons that doth administer the same. And with very littell alteration, I doubt not but many more would have, if they might have their hands to the pettition; but to have hands in the severall towns to the same petition to bee under the government of the Mattathusetts collony as formerly, when we are so differently sarcomstanced as som of us know wee have been, is hard; to draw such a pettition and when such a petition is drawn, subscribed as it is, and excepted [accepted] of, for the subscribers to act contrary to the same is very strange. Formerly, not to medell with the custom and usage of the gentlemen of Pascataway, wee at Hampton had the choice of our magistrats and publike officers, as yourselfe knows; and how the assistance or magistrats at Portsmouth can grant any warrants or exercise the administration of government over Hampton that never chose them, I know not; so that upon the whole, the government of the Matathusetts cannot I suppose exercise nor apoint any governors over us 'till they have authority so to doe from the crowne of England, or wee or the major part in the severall towns doe pray for it which at present is not in Hampton as it plainly appears; So that to bee subjected to a government in the province and principally at Portsmouth, which have bin so much spoken against by so many in Hampton will be very teadious to them; and the chusinge of militery officers as hath bin to give all due respects to those persons, I shall not say of excedentell quallefications so well knowne to yourselfe, but only say that ffranzey leaders may happen to have mad followers; so that to have a government so imposed, what will I feare follow but distractions, hart burnings, disobedience to the seposed comandars, publike diclerations, remonstrenses set forth that may reach as far as England, and so make way for a person to be deputed by the crowne of England, that may, under the collor of Commission, exercise his owne will, not to speak of declerations of userpations still continued in the collony. Some have thought forthwith publekly to declare themselves to the governors in said collony that all may be healed as quietly and as sillently as it may bee, and I doubt not your wisdom will be exersised in this matter, and that wee may have peace and unety with you, and that at length we may have a happy peaseable settlement:

And that the God of peace would by all means geve us peace and truth, is the desier and prayer of your very humble servant

Hampton, this 15th of March. 1689-90.

1687-1690, including the Massacre at Dover,
June, 1689.*

[Farm. Belk., p. 124.]

Origin of the War with the French and Indians, called King William's War, 1688.

"The lands from Penobscot to Nova Scotia had been ceded to the French, by the treaty of Breda, in exchange for the Island of St. Christopher. On these lands, the Baron de St. Castine had for many years resided, and carried on a large trade with the Indians, with whom he was intimately connected. The lands which had been granted by the Crown of England to the Duke of York (now King James the Second) interfered with Castine's plantation, as the Duke claimed to the river St. Croix. A fort had been built by his order at Pemaquid, and a garrison stationed there to prevent any intrusion on his property. . . . In the spring of 1688, Andros went in the 'Rose' frigate, and plundered Castine's house and fort; leaving only the ornaments of his chapel to console him for the loss of his arms and goods. This base action provoked Castine to excite the Indians to a new war." . . .

Extract of a Memorial from Mr. Nelson, dated 2d July, 1697.

"You may please to take notice that after the surrender of Acadie unto the French, in the year 1670, by Sr. Thomas Temple, the successive Governors of New York did (by virtue of orders from England, as I suppose) make claime unto part of said countrys, that is to say, from Pentagoet to the River St. Croix, as having of it inserted in the Duke of York's Patent. But the French still kept possession until Sir Edmond Andross made an attempt upon it, by summoning in one Mr. St. Costeine to acknowledge his dependence on the Crown of England;—upon whose refusal, he went with a Frigate to Pentagoet, pillaged his house of what he found in it, but himself escaped; on which arose (by the said Costein's instigation) the Indian war with which we have ever since been infested."

[N. Y. Col. MSS., vol. iv. p. 476.]

"Sr Edmund Andros when Governor of New York invaded them (the country called Pentagoet westward to the River St. Croise Eastward) by force and took the habitation of one Mons. St. Costene a Frenchman who thereupon instigated the Eastern Indians to make War against us, with which war the frontier Countries of New England on that side have been much infested."

Letter from Major Henchman to the Governor of Massachusetts.

Hon'd Sir—This day two Indians came from Pennacook, viz. Job Maramasquand and Peter Muckamug, who report that damage will undoubtedly be done within a few days at Piscataqua, and that Major Waldron, in particular is threatened; and that Julimatt fears that mischief will quickly be done at Dunstable. The Indians can give a more particular account to your honor. They say if damage be done, the blame shall not be on them, having given a faithful account of what they hear; and are upon that report moved to leave their habitation and corn at Pennacook. Sir I was very loth to trouble you and to expose myself to the censure and derision of some of the confident people, that would pretend to make sport with what I send down by Capt. Tom (alias Thomas Ukqucakusennum.)

I am constrained from a sense of my duty, and from love to my countrymen, to give the information as above. So with my humble service to your honor, and prayers for the safety of an endangered people,

I am, Sir your humble Servant

THO: HINCHMAN.

June 23, [1689].

Mr. Danforth communicated the information to Gov. Bradstreet, who, with the Council, ordered a messenger to Cochecho with the following :—

BOSTON 27 June: 1689.

Honored Sir. The Governor and Council having this day received a letter from Major Hinchman of Chelmsford, that some Indians are come in to them; who report that there is a gathering of Indians in or about Penecooke with designe of mischief to English, amongst the said Indians one Hawkins (Kankamagus) is said to be a principle designer, and that they have a particular designe against yourself and Mr. Peter Coffin which the Council thought it necessary presently to dispatch Advice Thereof to give you notice that you take care of your own safeguard; they intending to endeavor to betray you on a pretention of Trade. Please forthwith to Signify the import hereof to Mr. Coffin and others as you shall thinke necessary and Advise of what Information you may receive at any time of the Indians motions.

By order in Council,

ISA: ADDINGTON, Secry.

For Major Rich'd Waldron, and Mr Peter Coffin or either of them

At Cochecho.

These with all possible [speed].

The messenger hastened towards Cochecho ; he would have been in season, but he was unavoidably detained at Newbury Ferry, and he reached the place only on the morning of the 28th.

“ On the evening of the 27th June, 1689, two squaws, according to the previously arranged plan, applied at each garrison house for liberty to sleep in them: this was often done in time of peace, and they were readily admitted into Waldron's, Heard's, the elder Coffin's, and Otis's. At their own request, they were shown how to open the doors and gates, in case they wished to leave the house in the night. They told the Major that a number of Indians were coming to trade with him the next day, and Mesandowit, who was at supper, said, ‘ Brother Waldron, what would you do if the strange Indians should come?’ ‘ I could assemble a hundred men by lifting up my finger,’ carelessly answered the Major. No watch was kept, and the family retired to rest.

“ In the hours of deepest quiet, the gates were opened. The Indians, who were waiting without, immediately entered, placed a guard at the gate, and rushed into the Major's apartment. Awakened by the noise, he sprang from his bed, seized a sword, and, though over eighty years old, drove them through two or three rooms; but, returning for other arms, they came behind him, stunned him with a hatchet, and overpowered him. Drawing him into the hall, they then placed him in an elbow-chair on a long table with a derisive cry, ‘ Who shall judge Indians now?’ They then obliged the members of the family to get them some supper; when they had finished eating, they cut the Major across the breast with knives, each one with a stroke saying, “ I cross out my account.” Cutting off his nose and ears, they thrust them into his mouth; and when he was falling down, spent with the loss of blood, one of them held his own sword beneath him: he fell upon it, and his sufferings were ended.” — Hist. Mem. No. 111, A. H. Q.

“ After the death of Major Waldron and the removal of the family by the Indians, his house was burnt. Otis's garrison was captured in a similar manner to Waldron's. The owner, Richard Otis, was killed, either in rising up in bed or on looking out the window. His son Stephen and daughter Hannah were killed; the latter, a child of two years, having her head dashed against the stairs. The wife and infant child of Richard Otis, and two children of Stephen Otis (Stephen and Nathaniel), were carried captives to Canada. Three other daughters of Richard were carried away, but were recaptured in Conway. Heard's garrison was saved. The door had been opened and the Indians were entering, when William Wentworth, who had been awakened by the barking of a dog, pushed them out, shut the door, and, falling on his back, held it until the people came to his assistance. Two bullets passed through the door, but both missed him. The elder Coffin's house was similarly captured, but, as the Indians had no particular enmity to him, they contented themselves with pillaging his house. Finding a bag of money, they forced him to scatter it by handfuls, while they amused themselves by scrambling for it. His son had refused to receive the squaws on the previous evening, but the Indians, coming to his house, threatened to kill his father before his eyes unless he surrendered: to save his father's life he did so. These captives were placed in an empty dwelling, but in the confusion they escaped. Of Paine's garrison, in its connection with this attack, we know nothing: Gerrish's escaped.

"Five or six houses were burnt, as were the mills upon the lower falls. Twenty-three persons were killed, and twenty-nine carried away captive. Their names were preserved only in part. Of the killed were Major Waldron, Abraham Lee (his son-in-law), Robert Evans, Richard Otis, Stephen Otis, Hannah Otis, Joseph Dug, Joseph Duncan, Daniel Lunt, Joseph Saunders, Joseph Buss, William Buss, William Arin, William Horn, and the widow of Thomas Hanson; of the other eight we know nothing.

"Of the captured were Joseph Chase, Mrs. Lee (daughter of Major Waldron), the wife of Tobias Hanson, the wife of Richard Otis, Sarah Gerrish, Christine and three other daughters of Richard Otis, Nathaniel Otis, Stephen Otis, and John Church. We cannot find the names of the remaining seventeen." — Hist. Mem. No. 116, A. H. Q.

Letter from Richard Waldron, Jun., Esq.

PORTSMOUTH, 28th June, 1689; about 8 o'clock, morning.

Just now came ashore here from Cocheca John Ham and his wife, who went hence last night homeward [with Mrs. Heard] (they living within a mile of Major Waldron) and about break of day going up the river in a canoe, they heard guns fired but notwithstanding proceeded to land at Major Waldron's landing place, by which time it began to be light, and they saw about twenty Indians near Mr Coffin's garrison, shouting and shouting, as many more about Richard Otis's and Thomas Pain's, but saw their way to Major Waldron's, where they intended immediately to secure themselves; but coming to the gate and calling and knocking could receive no answer, yet saw a light in one of the chambers and one of them say (looking through a crack of the gate) that he saw sundry Indians within the garrison which supposed had murdered Major Waldron and his family, and thereupon they betook themselves to make an escape, which they did, and met one of Otis's sons who also escaped from his father's garrison informing that his father and the rest of the family were killed. Quickly after they set sundry houses on fire. This is all the account we have at present, which being given in a surprise, may admit of some alterations; but doubtless the most of those at or about Cocheca are destroyed.

The above account was related to me.

RICHARD WALDRON, Jr.

Accompanying the preceding was the following:—

PORTSMOUTH, 28th June, 1689.

Major ROBERT PIKE.

Honoured Sir,—Herewith send you an account of the Indians surprising Cocheca this morning, which we pray you immediately to post away to the honourable the governor and Council in Boston, and forward our present assistance, wherein the whole country is immediately concerned.

We are, sir, your most humble servants

RICHARD MARTYN.

W<sup>m</sup> VAUGHAN.

RICHARD WALDRON, jr.

THO. GRAFTON.

SAMUEL WENTWORTH.

BEN HULL.

To the Honourable Major Robert Pike at Salisbury. Haste, post haste.

It was received by Major Pike, who forwarded the papers immediately to the Governor at Boston, with the following addition:—

SALISBURY, June 28, 1689, about noon.

Much Honoured.

After due respect these are only to give your honours the sad accounts of the last nights providence at Cocheca, as by the enclosed, the particulars whereof are awful.

The only wise God, who is the keeper that neither slumbereth nor sleepeth, is pleased to permit what is done. Possibly it may be either better or worse than this account renders it.

As soon as I get more intelligence, shall, God willing, speed it to your honors, praying your speedy order or advice in so solemn a case. I have despatched the intelligence to other towns, with advice to look to yourselves. Shall not be wanting to serve in what I may. Should have waited on your honours now, had I been well. Shall not now come except by you commanded till this bustle be abated. That the only wise God may direct all your weighty affairs is the prayer of your honours' most humble servant.

ROBERT PIKE.

To the much honoured Syman Bradstreet, Esq. Govenour, and the Honoured Council now sitting at Boston, these present with all speed. Haste, post haste.

The following answer was returned to Portsmouth : —

BOSTON, 29th June, 1689.

Gentlemen,—The sad account given by yourselves of the awful hand of God, in permitting the heathen to make such desolations upon Cocheca, and destruction of the inhabitants thereof, being forwarded by the hand of Major Robert Pike, arrived the last night about twelve o'clock: notice thereof was immediately despatched to our out towns, that so they may provide for their security and defence: and the narrative you give of the matter was laid before the whole Convention, this morning, who are concerned for you as friends and neighbors and look at the whole to be involved in this unhappy conjuncture and trouble given by the heathen, and are very ready to yield you all assistance as they may be capable, and do think it necessary that (if it be not done already) you would fall into some form or constitution for the exercise of government, so far as may be necessary for your safety, and convenience of your peace, and to intend such further acts as the present emergencies require—this Convention not thinking it meet, under their present circumstances, to exert any authority within your Province. Praying God to direct in all the arduous affairs the poor people of this country have at present to engage in, and to rebuke all our enemies, desiring you would give us advice from time to time of the occurrences with you.

Gentlemen, your humble servant,
ISAAC ADDINGTON, Secr'y.

Per order of the Convention.

Dated as above said.

Voted by the Representatives in the affirmative.

Attest EBENEZER PROUT, Clerk.

Consented to by the Governor and Council 29th June, 1689.

ISAAC ADDINGTON, Secr'y.

For Messrs Richard Martyn,
Wm. Vaughan, Richard Waldron &c. at Portsmouth, these with all speed.

This paper is endorsed,—

“Despatched upon Saturday the 29th of June '89, at 12 o'clock at noon.”

Accompanying the above is the draft of a letter which we suppose was written by the Governor:—

Gentlemen,—We have read yours informing Gods sever humbling hand suffering the enemy with so much violence and rage to destroy and lay waste before them on so sudden a surprisal. We must all say the Lord is righteous: we have sinned. It is not as you well know, in our power to direct in your matters authoritatively, but as friends, and under our [one] prince, are ready, to our utmost to yield our assistance in helping you with ammunition or anything in our power, men or moneys. It remains with yourselves to meet and consider your own circumstances and put yourselves in such a way (if not so at present) as may accomodate the present emergency in the best manner ye may, and then let us know what you desire and we shall serve you to our power.

Our present circumstances do not advantage us to impress men, or levy money, but must do as we can. God help us all to humble ourselves under Gods mighty hands.

Aid was immediately dispatched to Cochecho, though no further attack was then made.

You are to give all due encouragement and invitations to merchants and others who shall bring trade unto Our said Province, or any ways contribute to their advantage, and in particular to the Royal African Company. And you are to take care that there be no trading from New Hampshire to any place in Africa within the charter of the Royal African Company. And you are not to suffer any ships to be sent thither without our leave and authority.

You are carefully to observe all the Articles contained in the Treaty for the composing of differences and the establishing of Peace in America, concluded at Madrid the 8th day of July, 1670, with the Crown of Spain; and in case any private Injury or damage shall be offered or done to any of our subjects in those parts, by any of the subjects of the King of Spain, or of any other Prince or State in Amity with Us, you shall take care to give Us an account with all convenient speed by one of Our Principal Secretaries of State, and to our Committee for Trade and Plantations, and not to permit or encourage reparations to be sought in any other way than what is directed and agreed in the said Articles of Madrid, and other treaties; and you are particularly not to grant commissions of War, or reprisals against any Prince or State, or their subjects in Amity with Us, to any person whatsoever without Our especial Command.

You are not to admit or allow of any Appeals what soever to be made from the Governor and Council unto the Assembly, but whereas We judge it absolutely necessary that all Our subjects may have liberty to appeal unto Us in cases that may deserve the same, Our will and pleasure is, that if either parties shall not rest satisfied with the Judgment and sentence of Our Governor or Commander-in-Chief and Council, they may then appeal unto Us in Our Privy Council; Provided, the matter in difference exceed the real value or sum of one hundred pounds sterling, and that such appeal be made within one fortnight after sentence, and security first given by the Appellant to answer such charges as shall be awarded in case the sentence of our Governor or Commander-in-Chief and Council be confirmed; provided, also, that execution be not suspended by reason of any such appeal unto Us. And inasmuch as it may not be fit the appeals be so frequently and for so small a value brought unto Our Governor and Council, you shall therefore, with the advice of the Council, propose a law to be passed wherein the method and limitation of Appeals unto Our Governor and Council may be settled and restrained in such manner as shall be found convenient and easy to our Subjects in our said Province. You shall endeavor to get a Law passed for the restraining of inhuman severities which by ill masters or overseers may be used towards their Christian Servants or Slaves, and that provision be made therein that the willful killing of Indians and Negroes be punished with death, and that a penalty be imposed for the maiming of them. You are also, with the assistance of your Council and Assembly, to find out the best means to facilitate and encourage the conversion of Negroes and Indians to the Christian Religion. You are to recommend to Our Council and Assembly the raising a stock and building of Public work-houses in convenient places for the employing of poor and indigent people.

And forasmuch as great inconveniences may arise by reason of the liberty of Printing within Our Province of New Hampshire, you are to provide by all necessary orders, that no person use any Press for Printing upon any occasion what soever without your special Licences first Obtained. Lastly: — If any thing shall happen that may be of advantage or to Our said Province which is not herein or by our Commission for, We do hereby authorize and direct you with the advice and consent of Our Council to take order for the present therein given by one of Our principal Secretaries of State, and the Lords of Our Privy Council, appointed a Committee for Trade and foreign Plantations speedy advice thereof, and of all your proceedings and the condition of affairs within your Government for our information and direction, provided always you do not by color of any Power or Authority hereby given you, commence or declare War without Our Knowledge or Command therein, except it be against Indians upon emergencies, wherein the Consent of Our Council shall be had, and speedy notice thereof given unto Us.

Given at Our Court at Kensington, the seventh day of March 1694, in the fourth year of Our Reign.

By His Majesties Command.

MINUTES OF COUNCIL,
UNDER THE ADMINISTRATION OF LIEUT.-GOV. JOHN USHER,
1692-1696.

Note by the Editor.

[The following "MINUTES OF COUNCIL," with other papers were copied, chiefly, from a MS. volume in the office of Secretary of State, labelled "PROVINCE RECORDS, BOOK II., COUNCIL 1692-1700." A portion also, as will be seen, was copied from MS. volume, "BOOK I." No other record of the COUNCIL's proceedings, from August 13, 1692, to November 3, 1696, can be found. These "Minutes" appear to be original or first notes taken by the clerk of Council, and are generally without signature. They embrace nearly the whole period of Lieut.-Governor JOHN USHER's administration. The letters and speeches of Mr. Usher, herein contained, are usually in his own handwriting, and are singularly characteristic of the man.* ]

* "JOHN USHER was a native of Boston, and by profession a stationer. He was possessed of a handsome fortune, and had been employed, when in England, by Massachusetts, to negotiate the purchase of the Province of Maine from the heirs of Sir Ferdinando Gorges. He thus acquired a taste for land speculations; became one of the partners of the million purchase [see Farm. Belk., p. 116], and had sanguine expectations of gain from that quarter. On the consolidation of the New-England Provinces in 1685 [see vol. i. pp. 590-593], he accepted office under Dudley, and next under Andros, whose downfall he subsequently shared. He thereupon proceeded to England with his complaints; and SAMUEL ALLEN, a London merchant, having purchased, soon after, the title of the Masons to New-Hampshire, and obtained a commission for the government of that Province, appointed his son-in-law, Usher, his deputy. The latter assumed the government on the 13th of August, 1692. He continued, however, to reside and carry on his business at Boston, occasionally visiting his Province. His administration was by no means either pleasant to himself or agreeable to the people. He died at Boston, 5th of September, 1726, aged seventy-eight years." — [See N. Y. Col. Dec., vol. iii. p. 365.]

Belknap says of him (Usher): "Though not ill-natured, but rather of an open and generous disposition, yet he wanted those accomplishments which he might have acquired by a learned and polite education. He had but little of the statesman, and less of the courtier. Instead of an engaging affability, he affected a severity in his deportment, was loud in conversation and stern in command. He gave orders, and found fault, like one who felt himself independent, and was determined to be obeyed. He had an high idea of his authority, and the dignity of his commission; and when opposed and insulted, as he sometimes was, he treated the offenders with a severity which he would not relax till he had brought them to submission. His public speeches were always incorrect, and sometimes coarse and reproachful." It may be added, that the majority of his Council were men of such sterling sense and stern integrity, that he could not make them bend or bow to his arbitrary dictation. The record of his administration is full of interest. — ED.

 now sitting at Great Island.

In obedience to your Honors summons Requiring us to appear this day to shew cause why y<sup>e</sup> petition of the Inhabitantse of Great Island and Sagamores Creek should not be granted; and how wee come to be a Township, as also to give an acco<sup>t</sup> why and for what we made y<sup>e</sup> last Assessment for the towne of Portsmouth; wee here attend and make answer to each particular in brief, as followeth:

1st. The Petition ought not to be granted because not desired by the inhabitanse of Sagamore Creek, who tho' said to signe y<sup>e</sup> Petition, affirm y<sup>t</sup> no freeholders of Sagamor Creek ever signed y<sup>e</sup> same, but desired the contrary;—as sundry of them and others have now signified under their hands: And why the Inhabitants of Sagam<sup>r</sup> Creek, &c. should ag<sup>t</sup> their desire, be so much incommoded, to gratify the desires of the Inhabitants of Great Island, wee humbly leave y<sup>r</sup> Honors to judge.

2<sup>d</sup>. As to our being a Township, It is not unknown to some of your Honors, how long we have been under such a construction:
 But, if any question the legality of y<sup>e</sup> authority that first constituted us soe, we presume his Maj<sup>'ty</sup>'s owning us as such in two

tration of y<sup>e</sup> affairs of Government, having been all along toward us as such, should silence all gainsayers. However if it be in y<sup>r</sup> Honors power to add anything toward the confirma[tion] of townships which may yet be wanting; wee are humbly of opinion it will much more conduce to their Maj'tie's interest and the peace and unity of his subjects soe to doe, than to admit of any division thereof at this time.

3rd. In answer to that, why & for what wee made the last Assessment for y<sup>e</sup> town of Portsm<sup>o</sup>, wee crave leave to say; Wee did it, Because the law (entitled an Act concerning the prudential affairs of the town,) impowers us soe to doe; and that to defray y<sup>e</sup> necessary charge arising within the towne; and shall follow the direction of that Law, within the yeare to give an Account of all y<sup>e</sup> money so raised by us to one of the Justices of the Peace, with three men chosen by the freeholders as a committee for that end; that there may be no damage to any man; & while we thus make the law our rule, we promise o<sup>r</sup>selves to be indemnified thereby. However, that your Honors may be satisfied there are charges arising in the town, for w<sup>ch</sup> such an assessment was necessary, we mention sundry, viz.

For a stock of powder, shott &c., about	30:00:00
For defraying y <sup>e</sup> charge of y <sup>e</sup> assembly-men, about	15:00:00
For weights & measures, beam, &c. for the town	05:00:00
To the poor, viz. old Lewis, dyet and clothes—about	15:00:00
To ditto, old Will:[?] and his wife—about	20:00:00
For a Bell sent for to England—about	20:00:00
To so much to rcpair the meeting house, Minister's house, fencing in a garden, building a stable, board-nails, &c. about	30:00:00
For a Pound	10:00:00
For 9 wolves killed this winter	09:00:00
For Splan Lovewell for keeping the glass of the meeting house and minister's house in repair, per annum	02:00:00
To maintaining y <sup>e</sup> bridge over the mill-dam	01:00:00
For sweeping y <sup>e</sup> meeting house, per annum	01:10:00
To making a new causeway over the great swamp, about	15:00:00
To the town clark, per annum	02:00:00
	<hr/>
	175:10:00

Besides other incident charges that may occur within the year.

So we take leave to subscribe,

The Selectmen of the town of Portsmouth (by virtue of an order of Councill) attended this Board, to show cause why the petition of the Inhabitants of Great Island (praying that they might be constituted a Township with those immunities, privileges and liberties that their Majesties' are wont to grant to such a Township) should not be granted.

The Selectmen gave in their answer in writing, and say, the Towne has been for many years reputed to have been a Towne; and believe there may be such a Grant but know not where it is; say, their Bounds were layd out by the Massachusetts, and they, having injoyed it many years, pray it may still be so continued; confess it is inconvenient for the inhabitants of Great Island to goe to meeting at the Bank, but ought to have a minister on the Island; and the rather, for that their Maj'ties' fort and stores ought not to be at any time deserted.

The Selectmen being withdrawn, the Councill considered and debated what was sayd and offered; and are of opinion that Great Island should be made a Township and divided from the Bank, provided, it is able to support itself.

The question being put whether Sandy Beach and Little Harbor should be added thereto:

By and with the advice of their Maj<sup>ties</sup>' Council for the Province of New Hampshire, I here lay before your Excellency the great hardships & difficulties the inhabitants of this Province labor under: Sir Wm Phipps, Governor of the Massachusetts Bay in New England. having all this winter aided and assisted this Province with about ——— soldiers, whom this Province has been at the charge of maintaining, has now (though in the greatest time of danger) drawne off the same, and left this Province wholly to defend itself, which it is not able to do, unless aided and assisted by some other of the neighboring Provinces; for that the Indian and French enemies are frequently making incursions and desolations, cutting off our frontier places and the Inhabitants thereof.

We therefore request your Excellency (it being for their Maj<sup>ties</sup>' service and the preservation of their subjects here) to afford such assistance to the Province of New Hampshire, by sending some soldiers & provisions, as your Excellency shall think necessary for their aid and relief. And on the like occasion we shall be ready to assist you as occasion shall offer to the utmost of our ability. Expecting your speedy answer I subscribe, gentlemn your humble servant.

We, the Representatives of this their Maj’ties’ Province, being by special order convened in Assembly to receive in charge what might offer for their Maj’ties’ service & for the benefit of their subjects in this Province:—We, have taken into our most serious consideration what hath been recommended to us from your Board: and, being sensible of the necessity of taking suitable measures according to our capacity, for defraying the necessary charge arising for preservation and defense of this their Maj’ties’ Province; have past one Act for continuing impost, excise and custom for one year: Also, have past one Act for raising forthwith seven hundred pounds; which, with what is in the treasury and arising from custom, impost, &c. together with one hundred pounds more or less in the State Treasurer’s hands; We humbly conceive will pay the Province just debts, according to what appeared before us, and likewise maintain sixty men for six months with provision and ammunition, and one third part of their pay, if demanded, according to the proposals of the Govern<sup>r</sup> & Councill of Massachusetts, to send us the said sixty men for our assistance & defense against our French and Indian enemy, of whose invasion upon us there is great cause to fear.

As for other matters layd before us, as matters are circumstanced, the Province is not capable to raise supplies for those ends, the rate now made being the greatest ever was rayased in this Province, notwithstanding of our being greatly wasted & impoverished by the present war; therefore do humbly pray, that yo<sup>r</sup> Honors will please, by Address, spread before their Maj’ties our most deplorable condition; and do pray that such methods may be taken for the preservation and defence of this their Province, as they in their wisdom, with the advice of their most honorable Privy Council shall think meet.

After our hearty commendations: It having been humbly represented to her Majesty by the Memoriall of John Taylor, merchant, that being under contract with the commissioners of the Navy for a yearly supply of New England masts, bowsprits, &c. he has further for the introducing the building of ships in those parts, fitted a place, and has caused a ship fit for a fourth rate to be built there; and has transported thither carpenters and smiths for the continuing the said work. But that he has been obstructed in his said undertaking by the Deputy Governor of their Maj'ties' Province of New Hampshire: We have, thereupon, received his Maj'ty's commands to signify his royal pleasure unto you, that you take care that the said John Taylor or his agents within your government, be not any ways molested or interrupted in the legal prosecution of their trade for naval stores for their Majesties service and for the building of ships in these parts: and, that for the better performance of their Maj'ties' service herein, you give them all due countenance and assistance in their said undertakings. And so, not doubting of your ready compliance herein, we bid you heartily farewell.

A petition from Capt. Woodman concerning the destruction of Oyster River, was read in Council.(1)

(1) The following is Dr. Belknap's account of this terrible destruction: “Oyster River is a stream which runs into the western branch of the Piscataqua; the settlements were on both sides of it, and the houses chiefly near the water. There were twelve garrisoned houses, sufficient for the defence of the inhabitants; but, apprehending no danger, some families remained at their own unfortified houses, and those who were in the garrisons were but indifferently provided for defence, some being even destitute of powder. The enemy approached the place undiscovered, and halted near the falls on Tuesday evening, the 17th of July. Here they formed into two divisions, one of which was to go on each side of the river and plant themselves in ambush, in small parties, near every house, so as to be ready for the attack at the rising of the sun; the first gun to be the signal. John Dean, whose house stood by the saw-mill at the falls, intending to go from home very early, arose before the dawn of day, and was shot as he came out of the door. Their firing, in part, disconcerted their plan; several parties, who had some distance to go, had not then arrived at their stations; the people in general were immediately alarmed, some of them had time to make their escape, and others to prepare for their defence. The signal being given, the attack began in all parts where the enemy was ready.

“Of the twelve garrisoned houses, five were destroyed; viz., Adams's, Drew's, Edgerly's, Melar's, and Beard's. They entered Adams's without resistance, where they killed fourteen persons: one of them, being a woman with child, they ripped open. The grave is still to be seen where they were all buried. Drew surrendered his garrison, on the promise of security, but was murdered when he fell into their hands; one of his children, a boy nine years old, was made to run through a lane of Indians as a

The Lieut. Governor's warrant to Capt. Woodman for posting twentie soldiers, and to take the command of them at the garrisons at Oyster River.

The Lieut. Govern<sup>r</sup> letters to Sir Wm. Phips, bearing date the 21st and 23<sup>d</sup> inst. was read in Councill.

Wm. Stoughton, Esq. his letter to the Lieut. Govern<sup>r</sup>, dated Boston, July 22<sup>d</sup> read in Council, that he had ordered forthwith, 100 men for our relief.

mark for them to throw their hatchets at, till they had despatched him. Edgerly's was evacuated; the people took to their boat, and one of them was mortally wounded before they got out of reach of the enemy's shot. Beard's and Medar's were also evacuated, and the people escaped.

"The defenders' houses were nearly all set on fire, the inhabitants being either killed or taken in them, or else, in endeavoring to fly to the garrisons, some escaped by hiding in the bushes, and other secret places. Thomas Edgerly, by concealing himself in his cellar, preserved his house, though twice set on fire. The house of John Buss, the minister, was destroyed with a valuable library. He was absent; his wife and family fled to the woods and escaped. The wife of John Dean, at whom the first gun was fired, was taken, with her daughter, and carried about two miles up the river, where they were left under the care of an old Indian, while the others returned to their bloody work. The Indian complained of a pain in his head, and asked the woman what would be a proper remedy; she answered, occabee, which is the Indian word for rum, of which she knew he had taken a bottle from her house. The remedy being agreeable, he took a large dose and fell asleep; and she took that opportunity to escape, with her child, into the woods, and kept concealed till they were gone.

"The other seven garrisons, viz., Burnham's, Bickford's, Smith's, Bunker's, Davis's, Jones's, and Woodman's, were resolutely and successfully defended. At Burnham's, the gate was left open; the Indians, ten in number, who were appointed to surprise it, were asleep under the bank of the river at the time that the alarm was given. A man within, who had been kept awake by the tooth-ache, hearing the first gun, roused the people and secured the gate, just as the Indians, who were awakened by the same noise, were entering. Finding themselves disappointed, they ran to Pitman's defenceless house and forced the door at the moment that he had burst a way through that end of the house which was next to the garrison, to which he with his family, taking advantage of the shade of some trees, it being moonlight, happily escaped. Still defeated, they attacked the house of John Davis, which after some resistance he surrendered on terms; but the terms were violated, and the whole family either killed or made captives. Thomas Bickford preserved his house in a singular manner. It was situated near the river, and surrounded with a palisade. Being alarmed before the enemy had reached the house, he sent off his family in a boat, and then shutting his gate, betook himself alone to the defence of his fortress. Despising alike the promises and threats by which the Indians would have persuaded him to surrender, he kept up a constant fire at them, changing his dress as often as he could, showing himself with a different cap, hat, or coat, and sometimes without either, and giving directions aloud, as if he had a number of men with him. Finding their attempt vain, the enemy withdrew, and left him sole master of the house which he had defended with such admirable address. Smith's, Burnham's, and Davis's garrisons, being reasonably apprised of the danger, were resolutely defended; one Indian was supposed to be killed, and another wounded by a shot from Davis. . . . The Indians finally withdrew, having killed and captivated between ninety and an hundred persons, and burned about twenty houses, of which five were garrisons." Farm. Belk. pp. 138-141. Lt. Col. Pierce his letter from Newberre, was read in Council concerning raising of men; intimating that no men did voluntarily appear to come for relief.

Duncan Cambell's letter from Boston was read—as on file—intimating the Mohauks had made peace with the French and were false?

The Lt. Govern<sup>r</sup> acquainted the Board, that it is expected, if the soldiers come, we must raise provision for them; and that if they should come, if it were not necessary, to raise some men here, to march wth them to discover the enemy by ranging of the woods; and desired the Board to consider of these affairs

Ordered, That if Bread can be got for the soldiers, coming from Boston, then it is to be provided, otherwise they are only to be posted at the garrisons, for security of the garrisons.

Ordered, That if the soldiers come from Boston between this & Friday morning, that 100 men shall be raised to march and range the woods wth them, under the command of Capt. Thwing.

The Lieut. Govern<sup>r</sup> proposed to secure the cannoes along shoare, that the Indians may not transport themselves over the river.

Not consented to.

Ordered, That warrants be issued out for detaching 100 men, viz. out of Hampton, 50; out of Exeter, 20; out of Portsm<sup>o</sup>, 30;

Ordered, That they rendezvous at Exeter with four days provision, to range the woods and hed? the towns and rivers from thence to Newichawannock river.

The Lieut. Govern<sup>r</sup> proposed if the men did not come from Boston, whether they should march with 16 men to range the woods.

Judged it not safe.

The Lieut. Govern<sup>r</sup> acquainted the Board of sundry persons that was imprest for their Maj'ties' service, that had deserted the Province, and desired their advice what was to be done therein.

Answerd: That if any persons after they are imprest desert the service, and fly into the other Provinces, advice thereof should be sent to the other government, so that they may be apprehended, and sent back again.

Adjourned until 8 of the clock, July 25.

Gentlemen — I give you an acc<sup>t</sup> of all my proceedings since I came here last: and read the same.

Having issued warrants to Maj. Vaughan to visitt the garrisons in Hampton, Exeter, Oyster River, Dover, &c.; w<sup>ch</sup> accordingly he did and made return.

As to Portsm<sup>o</sup> and New Castle, I have visited there: see some garrisons not yet repaired: which I desire some care may be taken therein.

My occasions calling me to Boston, they suffering much by my absence, and finding the country will not give me bread to eat, do therefore acquaint you, I design for Boston; and in case you desire me to endeavor a supply of men from that Government for this Province, shall use my endeavors, if you desire it; and in my absence Capt. Fryar, being Comm<sup>r</sup>-in-Chief he, with yourselves, is to take care of the governm<sup>t</sup> in my absence.

The Board desired the Lt. Govern<sup>r</sup> to endeavor a supply of men from Boston for security of this Province.

The Lieut. Govern<sup>r</sup> acquainted the Board that — Torlington, constable of New Castle, had offered a great contempt to himself, in impressing his saddle, when he had notice it was the Lt. Governor's, and had no warrant to impress it: and that he looked upon it as an affront to him, being invested with the King's commission.

The Constable owned he took the saddle, and Mr. Cobitt acquainted him, it was the Governor's saddle, and not to meddle with it.

The Board advised, Captain Fryar should take the examination of Rich<sup>d</sup> Torlington and bind him over to the Quarter Session; and in the mean time to be of good behaviour.

Ordered, That Dan<sup>l</sup> Duggin be paid for 36 days work at fourt Wm. & Mary.

Ordered, That Jonathan Whidden be paid for 3 days' work at their Maj'tie's fourt, Wm. & Mary.

Ordered, That John Marden be paid for 3 days work at their Maj'tie's fourt, Wm. & Mary, as a laborer.

Ordered, That Capt. Walton be paid 50s for his attendance as purser of the workmen at their Maj'ties' fort.

The Lt. Govern<sup>r</sup> declared, that whereas Capt. Jno. West and Jno. Long, arriving in two mast ships from England on the 8th or 9th instant, and to this day have not made their entry according to acts of Parliament, 15 Caro. 2: I having given notice to Mr. Phesant Estwick, Dept. Dist. Collector of the same, and ordered him to make seizure of the ships & goods, which is not done; therefore acquaint this Board that due care be taken on his Maj'ty's behalf therein.

Their Maj'ties' letter being read in Council

Ordered, That John Taylor or his agents be not any ways molested or interrupted in the legal prosecution of their trade for Naval stores for their Maj'ties' service, & for the building of ships in these parts; but that they have given them all assistance in their due undertaking.

Being informed by our Lt. Govern<sup>r</sup> of your readiness to give us assistance against the common enemy, upon our signification of what number of men we desire, and what we will contribute to the charge thereof;—we say:

That having late advices of y<sup>e</sup> enemy's design against us, and hearing from the Eastward that y<sup>e</sup> Indians encamped are already out, whom we may hourly expect to make an attack upon us; wee think it necessarily incumbent on us to consider and do what may be most proper for defence of their Maj'ties' subjects; & for-as-much as this Province, being a frontier to the enemy both at sea & land, is at extraordinary charge for soldiers to strengthen the upper towns, and keep their Maj'ties' post at New Castle in a posture of defence against a sea invasion; besides the constant watching, warding and scouting of our inhabitants, which takes up much of their time: considering also that the preservation of this Province will be very much for their Maj'ties' interest, as well as the loss will be detrimental to your own Government, by giving the enemy the greater encouragement & advantage against you,—wee therefore now make our application to you, and desire that for their Maj'ties' service, you would please forthwith to send us 60 soldiers for the better defence of this Province; and, notwithstanding the great charges aforesaid daily growing upon us, we shall take care for supply of said soldiers with provision and amunition during their continuance within this government. An answer hereto we pray by this messenger.

Yours of the 3<sup>d</sup> currant was this day laid by his Exc<sup>y</sup> before the Board, wherein you propose to be assisted with sixty soldiers from this Province; and that you will subsist them and supply ammunition; representing the extraordinary charge you are at, and the difficulties attending their Maj'ties' subjects within your parts by frequent passing upon duty: In all which you cannot but be sensible that we have much more to say on behalf of this Province; besides that our outposts, which we are at very great expense to support, are no little security to your Province; however, are willing to give what assistance we are able, to our neighbors and fellow subjects; and have advised his Exc<sup>y</sup> that he give orders for levying the numbers of men you desire — expecting that over and above what you propose for subsistence and ammunition, you do further advance one third part at least of their pay; which you cannot think to be out of proportion, but will be readily consented to by you. His Exc<sup>y</sup> is about to prepare orders for raising of the men, who will be got ready with what speed may be, and desire your answer to these:

By order of his Exc<sup>y</sup>, the Governor and Council,

ISA. ADDINGTON, Sec<sup>y</sup>.

[Speech in the handwriting of Lieut. Governor Usher, but without signature.]

New Castle, 6th November, '94

Gentl<sup>le</sup>, — Having to the last Assembly presented the then state of the Province and laid before them the absolute necessity of raiseing money for suport of y<sup>e</sup> Governm<sup>t</sup>, repairing of their Maj'ties fourt & payme<sup>ts</sup> of Debts due from the Province, (and though there was then a long cession) yet could not prevail for raiseing any money; & having my speech to the then Assembly now recommended to your consideration; — have the less to say.

I judge you are nott unacquainted with the enemy's destroying many of their Maj'ties' subjects at Oyster River since the setting of the last Assembly: shall say, had money ben raised that my hands might have ben strengthened, the enemy should never have gone off without a repulse, as they did. One third of y<sup>e</sup> Province was ordered for reliefe, and to pursue and kill the enemy; but by reason of the not having of provisions, the soldiers returned without doing any execution. I called y<sup>e</sup> captains to consult what may be proper to be done in case of another attack by y<sup>e</sup> enemy: with much difficulty concluded a number should be in readiness to march; but as to provision, could not find any encouragement y<sup>e</sup> same should be provided.

I have issued out warrants to the several Towns for a number of men to be impressed, to be ready at an hour's warning, for march; and, if the enemy makes an attack while I am in the Province, God willing, I design in person to be att y<sup>e</sup> head of y<sup>e</sup> forces appointed to be raised.

Judge one thousand or fifteen hundred pounds will be necessary to be raised; butt as yet not having acc<sup>t</sup> what the Province is indebted, nor what rationally may be expected; the which when I am informed of, shall lay perticulars before you.

As to what hath been in my power, hath hitherto endeavored to discharge my duty with a good conscience to God, and my King, for y<sup>e</sup> good & preservation of this Province: as formerly, soe again, if you strengthen not my hands for support and defence of the place, if ruin comes, the blaimable cause will not lay att my door.

Att all times have manifested my rediness to serve you to uttermost of my power; having ben ready and willing as to y<sup>e</sup> powers of the king's prerogative, which is invested in myself, to execute the same for the well-being of y<sup>e</sup> place.

I shall only add, we have acc<sup>t</sup> two bodies of the enemy is out; the which with other circumstances doe require your expedition as to matters laid before you.

And as I assure you, nothing shall be wanting on my part, as to what may be proper for me to do for well being of y<sup>e</sup> place; (having due regard to the king's honor and prerogative), soe hope nothing will be on yours.

A petition from Capts. Geo. Long & Jno. Long, Jno. West, was read in Council, praying that the ships under seizure may proceed on their voyage — as on file &c. [See petition above.]

In answer thereto, ordered that the sd Geo. Long, Jno. Long & Jno. Ordered, That an Express be forthwith sent to the Lt. Governor, with the letter, (viz.)

“ New Castle, 16th Nov. 1694.

May it please your Honor—

Since your departure hence, we are advised of the seizure of two mast ships by your Honor's warrant, which you may please to remember was contrary to our opinion given you in Council: and now Capt. Whereas signification is given to the Lt. Governor from this Board, of an application made about the seizure of the mast ships, and the Council's answer thereto:

Ordered, That in case the said Lt. Governor do not prosecute the said seizure according to his warrants for the same, that Capt. Fryar take care the ships be no longer detained, but have liberty of sayling.

However, as your letter in October last in my absence invested the Government [in] yourselves, in case according to petition, entry had been made, according to said Act (of which I am ignorant) the ships ought not to be detained; of which you having the government in your hands may determine: for I am no ways willing to have any persons obstructed in their legal undertakings; much less those who are employed for their Maj'ties' service: and I being out of the government, cannot give, as by your judgments, any commands or directions, have only to offer: If y<sup>e</sup> acts be preserved, the ships ought not to be detained; the which I leave wholly to yourselves, to judge and act; having in writing laid before you all that I have to say — which is all at present from,

Your humble Petitioner
WILLIAM GRAVES.

[The following paper, unfortunately, is without date; but it was found among other papers which render it probable it was drawn up about the time of the Indian Massacre at Oyster River, in 1694 —ED.]

The condition of Luberland* is such: We had a good Garrison last summer, but was cut down and Burnt, and for want of a Garrison the Inhabitants are forced to leave the place and flie for Re-

* "Lubberland."

In answer to inquiries made by the Editor, of Rev. Alvan Tobey, D.D., of Durham, respecting the locality, &c., of Lubberland, the following answer was received:

"Lubberland is a well known locality in this town. It is the south-east part of the fugg. If itt ware possible to save the place, wee, who know the vallue, vallues itt at about four hundred pounds of provisions and movables; provided the cattle Breaks in to y<sup>e</sup> Corn, itt will be much damage. It is y<sup>e</sup> generall vote <sup>r</sup>t Capt. Matthews should com<sup>d</sup> the Garreson. Our request is for 15 or 20 souldiers to assist this place.

Belonging to the place, Betwixt Capt Mathews and Lamp [rell] River, the contents as follows:

Capt. Mathews,	Wm. Durgin and three sons.
Fran: Mathews,	Tho. Morris,
Jo <sup>a</sup> . Doe,	Hen. Marsh,
Samson Doe,	David Davis,
Elias Critchett,	Abra. Benicke,
	Jo <sup>a</sup> . Crumwell,

town, lying along the shore of the Great Bay. It has no well defined boundaries, but extends two miles or more in length. Formerly it was a more important section or district than now. There is still standing in it one of the garrison houses of Indian war times. It is not in good condition. The logs are considerably decayed; but a family is living in a part of it, or was not long since. It was, I think, the Smith or Ffrost garrison, from the names of the families to whom it belonged.

The widow of Dea. Ebenezer Smith married, for a second husband, Capt. George Ffrost; both lived in the garrison-house; and there are descendants—grand-children—now living, some of them in this town, but not that part of it, — of both the Smith and the Ffrost marriages. Capt. Ffrost, I am told, was Justice of the Peace, and I think was called Judge. He was a prominent man about the time of the American Revolution.

Lubberland is said to have been called formerly Lovingland; and the scenery, as you pass around the road from near New Market village (a small part of which is in this town) through Lubberland to Durham Point, is not unworthy of the old name. With a good horse or horses and good company, it is made one of the most pleasant rides I know anywhere, by the well cultivated lands on the right hand, extending down to the water; by the broad Bay constantly changing its appearance as you proceed; and by the good farms seen beyond the Bay, in New Market, Stratham, and more extensively in Greenland. On the left hand the land is less cultivated, and rises into broken, hilly and wild pasture grounds. There is no difficulty in identifying Lubberland."

Henry Dow and Christopher Palmar in the behalf of the town of Hampton — our reasons why we are not willing the petition of New Castle should be granted.

1st, We are humbly of the opinion that if that petition be granted, the greatest part of that part of the towne on the north side of the great Causway will be utterly undone; for what they desire will come so near us as to take away our principal feeding land, and if we cannot keep cattle, we cannot keep our land to bring us corn, and then no living for us, our living being chiefly upon plowing, sowing, & husbandry.

2<sup>dly</sup>, We are humbly of opinion that it is our undoubted antient Right which they desire, and that which we have had in our quiet and peaceable possession for about fortie years and upwards of our own knowledge, and some houses builded upon some part of itt, which we shall endeavor to make appeare.

3<sup>dly</sup>, Their cattel feed much upon us now, but if they obtaine it to themselves they will build upon every good peice of land, and then our cattel will not only be hunted home by them, as they are now by some of our own town greatly to our damage; but then their cattel will feed home to our lotts' ends, to our own ruin and undoing.

4<sup>thly</sup>, We are informed that the towne of New Castle, their bounds are granted to Hampton line, and we are sensible that they were sometime part of Portsmouth, and that they should be ignorant where their bounds is seems to be very strange to us, considering it was determined for forty years since by four men, two of Portsmouth and two of Hampton, impowered for that end, as may appear by their determination under their hands, and other evidences and Records about the same, and our peaceable and quiet possession of the same, according to the said determination. Which we leave to your Honors' serious consideration.

You may please to remember that upon a motion and desire from yourselves for some assistance, there was a detachment of betwixt fifty & sixty men under the command of Capt. John Everet, posted in your Province, your General Assembly having engaged for to subsist and pay them one third part of their wages. The time proposed for their stay there is sometime since elapsed;

I have received nothing from your Government of any desire for their continuance, altho' I wrote unto Lt. Govern<sup>r</sup> Usher concerning the same; nor do I understand that they have received yo<sup>r</sup> proportion towards their wages already grown due, or any provision made for the future; and there being occasion for a company of soldiers to wait upon our Commissioners, intended to be sent to Pemaquid on the negotiation there relating to the Indians, I have seen cause upon advisement to send orders to Capt. Everet to attend that service with his company; of which I thought fit to acquaint yourselves, that you may provide for the inforcement and security of your out Posts upon their remove; and expect that for the time past you do advance your proportion towards their Wages before their drawing off.

We have yo<sup>r</sup> of the 6th current, relating to the Massachusetts soldiers here under command of Capt. Govern<sup>r</sup> been pleased to communicate to us anything your Honor has wrote him thereabout, as to our paym<sup>t</sup>  $\frac{1}{2}$  part of the soldiers' wages; that matter was recommended to our Assembly at their Sessions in May last, and we are informed by their Speaker that they had passed a Vote in their House for raising of money to pay the same for the time past, and also for some time future, if it might consist with your Honor's pleasure to admit of their continuance among us; but that a Prorogation happened just as they were sending up a bill thereabout. Capt. Everitt has now drawn off his men from our frontiers to Portsmouth & New Castle, and waits only the arrival of the Vessel to attend your Honor's commands for Pemaquid; and if upon the dispatch of that affair you will please to order his return to us, we are well assured our Assembly at their Sessions in September next will take effectual care for payment of our proportion of wages both for time past and future. Your favor herein will be a favor to his Majesty and a great obligation upon the poor inhabitants of this Province.

Understanding that this is the time of your Session, I thought it necessary to refresh the remembrance of your Engagement respecting the Support of Capt. Everet and his Company posted in your Province upon application made by your Lieut. Govern<sup>r</sup> at your instance. The accompt of their Wages from the time of their detachment, until they were drawn off by order amounts in the whole unto Five hundred and eight pounds. eight shillings and four pence, as by the acco<sup>t</sup> thereof, adjusted by the Commission<sup>rs</sup> for War appears. One hundred sixty-nine pounds, nine shillings and five pence being one third of the whole is your due to pay according to agreement, which I hope you will make effectual provision to see speedily discharged as also a like provision for what is become due since their Return again, and that shall arise during their Continuance within your Province; that all occasion of Complaint may be removed, and no burden laid upon his Maj'tys Subjects within this Province by reason of your Omission, our public Taxes being almost insupportable. done upon such considerations as were and still are, of great weight with me, so that I cannot Countermand anything at present, especially being absent from the Council, and your letter importing no new thing happening to move me thereto; & for that also I have not removed our forces so far from you, as not to be near enough to do you service. I desire to know if you have any thing to offer farther, for security of this his Majesty's Province, and being not willing any time should be lost, did order your meeting here.

Answered it was very necessary.

The Lieut. desired to know of the Board, he having [represented] to them.

Answered, that they think it necessary, and desire that application may be made to Lieut. Governor Stoughton for 25 men to Guard the Frontiers of this Province — this Province pay them as formerly.

The Lieut. Governor acquainted this Board these men sent for must be paid, and an engagement, whether it was necessary for calling of an Assembly, &c.

Answered that it was necessary, and ordered that the old Assembly should be dissolved and Writs be issued out for calling another Assembly to sit on Wednesday next.

Whereas a petition from several the Inhabitants of Hampton read at this Board, relating to the running of the Line between the Province of the Massachusetts Bay, and this Province —

Ordered that Notice be given from this Board to the Government of Boston, that they have appointed to run the Line between the Government of the Massachusetts and this Province of New Hampshire, sometime between this and the fourth day of December next, at what time they shall please to appoint, to meet the persons appointed here for that service as they shall give notice, and in case that Government shall not send persons to join with those appointed here, then those appointed in this Province to run the Line themselves on the fourth day of December next.

The Lieut. Governor proposed to the Board that when the Chief Officer should go visit the Garrisons, that the expenses be paid out of the public Treasury.

Answered, no.

Ordered that Nath. Wear, Joseph Smith, Hen. Dow, Sam<sup>l</sup> D, [?] James Philbrooke, Moses Swett, Be appointed a Committee to join with such Persons as shall be chosen by the Massachusetts Government for running of the Line between the two Provinces, at or before the fourth day of December next on such day and time as they of Boston shall appoint, and in case the Government

Yours of the 30th past with the inclosed Minute of Council relating to a supply of Twenty five Soldiers for the defence of your Province upon the terms formerly agreed on, came to the hand of the Hon<sup>ble</sup> the Lieut. Governor about noon, being the time of the sitting of the Superior Court, so that he had not opportunity to advise thereabout. But that the post sent might not be occasioned to stay, I am commanded to acquaint your Honor that consideration will be had of the proposal made, and a more particular answer given thereto in some short time; And to assure you that his Honor is very ready to give such assistance as shall be needful for the support of his Maj'tys Interests within your Province, expecting that all encouragement thereto be given by the Government there, by making effectual provision for the discharge of the arrears due to the Soldiers lately posted within the same, and in making those reasonable proposals for the support of any that shall be hereafter imployed for their more particular defence, as to render the charge to be more equal, that this Province so greatly burdened be not quite exhausted. Capt. Everitt is directed to wait upon your Honor with the account of what is due to himself and Company.

Declared to the President, that there being nothing offered by the Board for his Majestys Service, he did judge that the Council should not be called in his absence but when there was absolute necessity for his Majesty's service & Security of the Province, by reason that it was a great charge to those that lived Remote; and did expect at all times to have an acco<sup>t</sup> for what they called the Council; an acct. of their proceedings from time to time, that he may give an acco<sup>t</sup> to his Majesty.

I have yo<sup>r</sup> of the 7th currant for the assistance of forty men from this Province; the same day, by advisement with the Council an Answer was forwarded hence from the Secretary unto your former upon the same subject; which is as much as I can say thereto at present; our Treasury is so exceeding low that we are not able to comply with the demands in our own Province: If any supply of men be from hence it must be wholly at your charge, which is the concurrent opinion of the Council.

Hon<sup>ble</sup> Srs.

Yours, with the Minute of Council there inclosed of the 30th of October past, for the ordering and appointing a Committee of some persons belonging to y<sup>r</sup> Province to join with such as should be chosen by this Government, for running of the Line betwixt the two Provinces, came not to hand until yesterday; when the time assigned by yourselves, being the fourth of the next month, is drawn very near. You must certainly imagine it to be a matter of little Import, that seven or eight days notice should be thought sufficient to appoint suitable persons and duly to provide for such perambulation. It seems necessary previous thereto that Commissioners instructed by the respective Governments should meet together and concert the place where to begin, that so Artists may be set upon the Line to carry the same through. Besides, we cannot but observe to you, that we think the persons nominated by yourselves may not be so indifferent, being all, (if we are not misinformed) dwellers at Hampton, your next Town bordering on the Line of this Province; and whither it might not be advisable, that the small inconveniences hinted in yours, (which may be equal to this Province) be suffered for a short time further, and the trouble and Charge necessarily arising by a Perambulation be spared, until it be known whither there will be occasion for the same or not; which probably will be by the next Ships that shall arrive from London.

a service; & when the cruise is out should then be discharged; being sencible the same is of great momentt & y<sup>a</sup> itt will be much for his Maj<sup>ties</sup> service, for the safety & quiett of his Maj<sup>ties</sup> subjects in these his Territorys & most immedeatly those in the Province of New Hampshire:

By the powers granted, I doe recommend advise & consentt for reasons aforesaid, such prudent care may be taken, that assistance may be granted as afores<sup>d</sup>, & accordingly there may be orders issued out from y<sup>r</sup>selves for effecting the same with all speed, & the Men soe apointed to be ready for s<sup>d</sup> service as directed, & orders shall be given from s<sup>d</sup> Wm. I shall not doubtt of yo<sup>r</sup> redyness in concuring in soe good a work, considering the very Indian enemy, which for this many years hath occationed your<sup>t</sup> disquietness & unsafety, yearly have rec<sup>d</sup> their suplys by the afores<sup>d</sup> means: Likewise considering for many years how the governm<sup>t</sup> of province Massathussetts Bay hath suplyed wth men for yo<sup>r</sup> safety, the charge of which amounts to many thousand pounds, and the aplication now made being because of the difficulty in attaining the end without assistance; & as for any thing which may be requisite & proper further for me to doe, for effecting the thing, upon notification thereof, nothing shall be omitted to the outermoste of the power of

Likewise to take care of this his Maj<sup>ties</sup> Province: by the acc<sup>t</sup> from White Hall, you are acquainted with the great deliverance his Maj<sup>ty</sup>s sacred person hath had, & their Lordships declaring they doubt not of yo<sup>r</sup> hearty joyning wth them in expressions of thanks to Almighty God, for soe great deliverance in preservation of his Maj<sup>ties</sup> sacred person & Governm<sup>t</sup> of w<sup>ch</sup> shall not doubt yo<sup>r</sup> hearty concurrence wth me therein.

In the last Assembly laid before them the absolute necessity of raising mony, sufficient for defence of this his Maj<sup>ty</sup>s province, which they have not done.

Have acco<sup>t</sup> the state of the souldiers in the severall garrisons was laid before y<sup>r</sup>selves, and in case care was not taken for a speedy suply of provisions for the souldiers they must be drawn of, & the danger the province in in case they were: notwithstanding all which neither you nor the Treasurer would advance Money for suply of provisions for them.

It may be the opinion of some, the province should be left rather than not annexed to Boston.

Butt as the governm<sup>t</sup> is the King's, in honor thereof, quiett & safety of the place, I will advance in provisions to the vallew of £ 57:9, (though have not had to this day one meall's meat att the charge of the province) not doubting you will pass an order in Councill for repaying of the same.

You have my speech to y<sup>e</sup> Council above; w<sup>ch</sup> enter. Send me forthwith copy for Thanksgiving.

Having received the above Proclamation recommended to us from the Lords of his Majes<sup>ty</sup> Council, not doubting but that we and all his Majes<sup>ty</sup> subjects within this Province will heartilie joyne with them in expressions of Thanksgiving to Almighty

* "The Assassination Plot," as it was called, was entered into by about forty conspirators, instigated, it was believed, by King James, but led by Sir George Barclay. The plan was to take the life of King William, on his return from a hunting excursion, on Saturday, the 15th of February, 1696, "between the two gates as he passed from Hyde Park to St. James's Park." On the evening of the 14th of February, an earnest message was sent to the king, "to persuade him to stay at home on the morrow, for if he go abroad to hunt, he will be assassinated." Reluctantly he consented to stay. The conspirators watched for another opportunity the following week; but a timely disclosure defeated their purpose. See Hist. of Eng. by Ch. Knight, 1696; Macauley's Hist. do. vol 4, pp. 518-533, Boston Ed.

God for soe great a blessing in the preservation of his Majes<sup>ty</sup> most sacred person and government; We, therefore hereby order and appoint Thursday, the 18th of this inst. June, to be kept as a day of Public Thanksgiving throughout this Province; recommending and commanding the Ministers & others his Maj<sup>ty</sup> subjects quietly to observe the same day, & make our supplications to the Throne of grace, y<sup>t</sup> God would graciously please to preserve his Majesty's Royall person, and Governm<sup>t</sup>. from all the malicious designs and attempts, and grant success in all his enterprises.

Forbidding all servile labor thereon upon pain of severe punishment.

Their most fatal attack was made at the plains [in Portsmouth] on the 26th day of June. The party came from York to Sandy Beach in canoes, which they secreted among the bushes the night preceding. They were at their stations before daylight, and early in the morning made an assault on five houses at the same time. The people ran out as soon as the alarm was given, and the Indians killed fourteen persons; one, whom they supposed was dead, and had scalped, afterwards recovered. They took four prisoners, and, having plundered the houses, they set them on fire and retreated through great swamp about four or five miles, where they stopped on the declivity of a hill to prepare some breakfast, which has ever since retained the name of Breakfast Hill."—*Ad. Letter of Lt. Gov. John Usher.

Boston, 11 January 1696-7.

Sir—This comes by Mr. Secretary, * who has a Commission for Judge Admiralty and Judge Probate Wills. As to that of Admiralty, is very proper: As to that of Wills, am of opinion the King hath invested the Government with powers to appoint, by virtue of Commission under the Great Seal; if the Commission be rejected, would advise the gentleman forthwith to return to England, who may go hence in three weeks and return in the spring.

As to Partridge's Commission, if with the broad seal well; if not, he is not to be admitted. I understand he has left his instructions at England: if so, he may fetch them. Capt. Fryer is not to part with any of the Commissions or instructions, I having in England given receipts and become obliged to answer for them. All my present trouble is, I have them not here. Be pleased to desire Capt. Fryer according to his promise in a letter, not to part with them—they being that which must bare me and him out for what acted; thereby the bearer hereof will not be baffled by Pickerin or any of them. Fail not of giving him the Pickerin's recognizance, who will prosecute the same. I have advised him who to confide in—judge Partridge and he at a distance.

Mr. Allen is providing to be here in the spring; believe before 2 months at an end the place will be at their wits' end; for they had best be cautious in the Government so as to get nothing contrary to Commission and Instructions, for as I am informed matters are lame and the Commission.

Long to hear of all proceedings. Some already hath been amiss;—as in guarding to church, &c. as Governor when Commission not published understand he has nothing of admiralty [meaning dubious]. Shall not add; but am,

Mr. Charles Story, coming lately from England and being the last Council day admitted Secretary of the Province and Clerk of the Council, to whom the books and papers belonging to the Council and Assembly were then delivered, he, not appearing, the Council ordered a boat forthwith to New Castle for him where he was seen this day; but he not coming seasonably, the Council adjourned to to-morrow morning at ten of the clock.

At a Council held at Portsmouth
February 2, 1696-7.

Present ut supra.

Mr. Story being sent for, appeared before the Council. The President told him he did not well to neglect the King's service in that station to which he was lately admitted, and that the Council sat yesterday and waited his attendance which he knew of; yet he never appeared, but instead thereof went out of this Province into the next. Said Story answered wth a lofty and indecent carriage towards the Council, that he was cautioned against acting in those places where he was lately admitted, and therefore should not act. The Council askt whether he had his caution from the Late Lt. Governor Usher. He refused to answer. Then the Council demanded of him the books and papers belonging to the Council and assembly which was delivered him by this Board, but these he also peremptorily refused to deliver; whereupon the Councill ordered a Constable to take s<sup>d</sup> Story into Custody and forthwith gave a warrant to the Sheriff and Capt. Pickering to make diligent search for said Books and papers ; and because Mr. Redford late Dept. Sect. and clerk of the Council had sundry other public papers and books of record belonging to this province in his custody, which he was ordered by the Council to bring in and deliver within a limited time, which he promised to do, but wholly neglected the same ; therefore it was ordered in the aforesaid Warrant to search for and bring in all public papers and books of record that could be found belonging to the Province to this Board. In a little time the Sheriff found and brought in the Council and Assembly books and papers lately delivered Mr. Story ; whereupon the said Story was called in before the Council and told, though he endeavored the contrary, yet the Council had now got their books and papers again ; and since he had so peremptorily refused to serve the king in this Province in the offices of Secretary and clerk of the Council to which he had so lately been admitted, and thereby dismissed himself, the President and Council did also dismiss him ; but further told him that as to his office of Judge of the Admiralty within this province, the Council would do what was proper for them in countenancing and assisting him in the execution of that office according to his commission. Soe Story was dismissed.

Capt. Pickering also by Warrant aforesaid made search, found, and brought in to this Board sundry Books of Records and papers belonging to the Province.

Upon information of Mr. Greene a member of this Board, that Lt. Peter Wear of Hampton had disputed the power of the President and Council and spoken reflectingly on the members of the Council, Ordered that a Warrant be given to the Sheriff to fetch the said Peter Waer before this Board forthwith to answer what shall be objected to him in his Majest<sup>y</sup>s behalf.

Council adjourned tomorrow at ten o'clock.

Whereas Mr. Chas. Letter from Board of Trade.

In his Majesty's special service.

To the Hon<sup>ble</sup> John Usher, Esq. her Majesty's Lt. Governor and Commander-in-chief of her Maj<sup>y</sup> Province of New Hampshire, in New England, or to the Commander-in-chief of that Province for the time being.

New Hampshire:

Sir—

Since his Majesty's having been pleased to constitute us with others his Commissioners for promoting the trade of this Kingdom, and for inspecting and improving his Plantations in America and elsewhere, we have received several letters from you directed to the Lords of the late Committee for trade and plantations; and in the last place, by Mr. Story, dated the 16th and 8th of February last.

What you have therein represented to us about the present disorders in the Government of New Hampshire, hath seemed to us so considerable, that we have laid the same before their Excellencies, the Lords Justices, according to the account of your proceedings and the protest in your aforementioned letter of the 16th of February; and having thereupon offered to their Excellencies our opinion, that in the interval till either Mr. Partridge do qualify himself for the exercise of his Commission, or till the Earl of Bellomont do arrive in that country, or till their Excellencies think fit otherwise to determine; their Excellencies would be pleased to give directions that his Majestys authority may not be trampled in your person, but that all persons in that Province be strictly required to pay you due obedience according to the tenor of your Commission.

These are therefore to acquaint you, that their Excellencies have thereupon been pleased by their order in Council to declare their approbation of what we so represented unto them, and to require us to signify their pleasure therein to you, that you may in pursuance thereof (till provision be otherwise made in some of the methods before mentioned) require all persons in that Province (at their peril) to pay you due obedience, according to the tenor of your Commission, from his Majesty.

So we bid you heartily, farewell,

Your loving Friends,

Portsmouth 9th Feb. 1696.

Honorable Sir.

We find a letter from your Honor of the 24th December, which has for some time lain dormant, and not brought before the Council; wherein you are pleased to signifie your interdicting all intercourse of trade unto Port Royal, and which we are very well satisfied with and shall take effectual care the same be done by this Government, notwithstanding some late overtures (on very specious pretences) have been made us to the contrary. We have further to let your Honor know that his Majesty hath now been pleased by commission under the great Seal, to nominate and appoint Wm. Partridge Esq. to be our Lt. Governor, and therein to null and make void the power and authority of John Usher, Esq. late Lt. Governor. Our Governor Allen also wrote and ordered Mr. Usher to deliver Mr. Hinks said Allens' Commission and Instructions, and desired said Hinks with the Council to take upon them y<sup>e</sup> Government accordingly, till Mr. Partridge should receive and publish his Commission, Mr. Usher not being now on the place.

The Commission and instructions then in the hand of Mr. Fryer were delivered to Mr. Hinks as President afore-said, but notwithstanding all this, Mr. Usher is pleased to exert his weak endeavors to give us some disturbance; to y<sup>u</sup> end appeared at Hampton on the last Sabbath day, and we hear, in the forenoon before Sermon, made a large comment on the copy of this Commission. He also gave out orders to sundry officers civil and military, to meet him at Hampton the next morning, and the two First Companys of the towne to be then in arms; but miserably failing of his expectations, he withdrew and left the Province on Monday afternoon; assuring some of his creatures that Lt. Governor Stoughton had promised him if he met with any opposition here to give him assistance; and this account of Mr. Ushers motion we offer not your Honor as matter of moment, but rather of discussion,* being well assured your Honor will never give assistance to any further than may have a tendency to his Majestys service, and the good of his subjects; and therein according to our poore measures we shall always endeavor a joint compliance with you. Being, much honored,—Your Honor most humble serv'ts.

Letter from Lt. Gov. Wm. Stoughton, dated

Boston, February 24, 1696-7.

Hon<sup>ble</sup> Sirs,

I received yours of February curr<sup>t</sup> in answer to mine formerly sent to your Government, relating to a restraint of all trade and commerce with the French of Port Royal & other the parts of Nova Scotia, which seems to be agreeable unto yourselves, and I doubt not of your care in that matter.

I understand Mr. Partridge has not seen cause yet to publish his Commission; the reason of the delay I am not certainly informed of. Various reports concerning your affairs are passing here. I hope all things are right and well; I should be sorry for any mistake, that may prove inconvenient to yourselves or prejudicial to the King's service. Its necessary that the orders of Government be duly acknowledged and submitted unto, under the present juncture of affairs when the enemy stands at the door. It may be reasonably expected that they will invade these parts by sea this spring or the summer coming on; they have given forth great threatenings, and its said from other parts that they particularly designe for Piscataqua River. I hope you will take effectual care that all things be in a good posture, fit to oppose and repel them, and any attacks which may be made upon you by land. I shall be ready on all occasions to assist you so far as I may be able, desireing to maintaine a good correspondence & neighborhood with yourselves and all his Maj<sup>ty</sup>s Governments. Portsmouth 26<sup>h</sup> March, 1697.

Hon Sir,—

Since y<sup>e</sup> receipt of yours 24th February, our Council hath not met till this day, soe could give you no answer thereto till now. As to Mr. Partridge not presently entering upon the Government, and Mr Ushers endeavoring to give us some disturbance thereupon, presume you have had a larger account than is now expected from us—so shall only let your Honor know at present that the people of this Province are in very quiet and orderly posture, readily and willingly submitting to the power, and obeying the commands of the President and Council, till Mr. Partridge see cause to enter upon the Government, and that his Majesties interest and service here is like to suffer no prejudice, save only from the common enemy, there being no room left for malcontents to create a division amongst us. We are very glad to find y<sup>r</sup> Honor under so deep a sense of the approaching danger from the enemy both by sea and by land, & particularly their designing for this river, and cannot but gratefully acknowledge your ready offer on all occasions to assist us as you may be able ; and therefore considering the great danger to which we were more particularly exposed, and our weakness and incapacity to defend ourselves ; and above all the damage y<sup>e</sup> may accrue to his maj<sup>'s</sup> interest and service by the loss of this river, so much depended on for the yearly supply of his Maj<sup>'s</sup> Navy with masts:—We most humbly pray your Honor to afford us a supply of sixty able men for the strengthening of our Fort at Great Island, Frontiers, &c. for which will engage to pay the one half of the charge for subsistence & wages; & that the said men shall be ready together with so many of our Province as can be spared on all occasions to give reliefe to any place that may be attacked by the enemy in the County of York. We are now to work upon y<sup>e</sup> Fort to put that into the best posture of defence we can. The inhabitants of Strawberry Bank are also erecting a fortification landward to inclose the bulk of houses which with other charges accruing thereupon will cost them near four hundred pounds, beside the payment of their equal proportion to the equal charge of the Province. Oyster River and Cochecha have also their relief of men from Portsmouth and Hampton, and though it hath been some time objected that Hampton is a populous place and able to supply a good number of men for help of its neighbors;—In answer thereto, their remote scattered living renders them capable of doing little that way, and should they be reduced to narrow limits they would not be able to subsist. The Great Island also, where his Majesties Fort stands, contains not above thirty families, to which belong about 30 or 40 men appointed for service in the Fort upon occasion; but their manner of living much on the sea & fishing, they are some times reduced to a very small number, very unequal to what the Fort requires in case of an attack by sea; and indeed the whole Province are so much frontiers to y<sup>e</sup> enemy by sea or land, that one place is not able to give relief to another.

We have only further humbly to offer our opinion, that since the enemy by sea may, with considerably strength be probably expected, it may be advisable that a considerable number of men be 'listed through the body of the country, to be all ready with orders to march at an hours warning towards the place where the enemy may bend their course, of which by scout, shallops &c. we may doubtless have advice before we see them. Thus all things considered, and more especially how much it imparts his Majesties interest and service to preserve this River, we confidently promise ourselves your Honors favor in giving the relief desired, and such farther as future occasions may call for: To which we pray answer by first, and remain,

Your Honors most humble servants.

By order of the President and Council.

Letter of Lt. Gov. Stoughton.

I have yours of the 26th of March past, in which you propose to be supplied with sixty able men from this Province for the strengthening of the Fort at Great Island, Frontiers, &c. within your Government, promising to pay one-half of the charge for their subsistence and wages. I have advised with his Maj<sup>ty</sup> Council thereupon (it not being in my power to send men out of the Province without their advice and consent) who are of opinion that it is impracticable to afford any constant assistance upon the terms proposed—this Province being greatly diminished both in men and estate, by reason of the distresses of the war and other public calamities;—but are willing, in case of the enemies approach to yield you what help and succour our circumstances admit of. Capt. Hancock, commander of his Maj<sup>ty</sup> ship Falkland, now here, intends speedily with the said ship for your River, which I hope will be a good guard for you during his stay, and better enforce you than the number of men desired. Our gentlemen are as well sensible of the difficulty of raising men, as the supporting of them and making reasonable satisfaction to them for their service; and the line of our Frontiers is so large and so many men employed for the securing of the same—besides what are posted at the Castle and other forts and garrisons within the Province, over and above those employed by sea for guarding of the coast; that I know not from whence to draw more without the danger of exposing the towns and places from which they shall be taken, or depriving them of the season to attend their occasions of husbandry and providing for the subsistence of themselves and families for the whole year,—being already reduced to great scarcity and pinching wants.

Whereas it hath been the good pleasure of God to signalize his goodness to us by remembering mercy in y<sup>e</sup> midst of Judgment, particularly in the preserving the life of our King from the villainous practices of those that have more than once attempted the assassinating of his royal person; and ourselves from the invasions of the enemy, this tedious winter last past, and more especially (so much beyond our expectations) in giving us a plenteous supply of bread with a fair prospect of a seasonable seed time:— For these and all other Gods mercies towards us, notwithstanding our undeservings of the same, The President and Council have thought meet to appoint Thursday the 29th of this inst. April, to be kept as a day of public Thanksgiving unto God. Inhibiting all servile labor thereon, and directing all people to a hearty and serious observation of the same; and to follow it with a right conversation, that God may show us more of his salvation this ensuing summer. And this all ministers and people within the several towns of this province are to take notice of & conform themselves thereto accordingly. Upon complaint of some of his Majesties Council that the highway between Hampton and Portsmouth, particularly the great Swamp is hardly passable and yet not without great danger,

Ordered, that the Secretary do forthwith give notice from this Board to y<sup>e</sup> Surveyors of the Highways of the town of Portsmouth, that they forthwith take effectual care that the said Highways be sufficiently mended, as they will prevent the penalty that will fall by law upon their neglect of the same.

Upon reading a letter from Lt. Governor Stoughton imparting their present want of powder for his Majesties service, and desires of a supply out of his Majesties store in this Province, promising to repay it in kind or money,

Ordered, that Jno. Hinks Esq. and President, & commander of his Majesties Fort at New Castle, doe order the delivery of ten barrells of powder out of his Majesties Stores, to whom Lt. Governor Stoughton shall appoint, taking receipt for the same, the value to be paid in pork, corn, and pease, to Major Wm. Vaughan Treasurer of this province, or his order, as he shall direct, for subsistence of soldiers in his Maj'ties service within this Province; and that answer be given to Lt. Governor Stoughton accordingly, which was as follows.

Honorable Sir,

We have y<sup>r</sup> 26th of March which came not to the Presidents hands until the middle of the week after, nor has the Council met until now; the remoteness of our living and danger of travelling preventing our meeting save only when necessity calls for it which is the only occasion of your having been so long without an answer, although your Honor hath been pleased longer to defer an answer to ours of the 26 ultimo, which in our opinion does very much import his Maj'ties service in this province, and which we hope your Honor at leisure will think of.

As for your desire of a supply of powder out of his Majesties Stores here, we shall always be ready to do what in us lyes for his Maj'ties service and your accommodation; and have accordingly examined our stores, where we find not thirty Rounds of powder left. However, that we may not be found wanting in any neighborly kindness, we will spare ten barrells which shall be delivered on demand, to whom your Honor sends for it, for value thereof in provisions for subsistence of soldiers in his Majesties service here this summer, or money to procure the same to be forthwith delivered and paid to Maj. Wm. Vaughan Treasurer or his order at Boston, as he shall direct.

We have no further to offer at present, but pray y<sup>e</sup> knowledge of your pleasure herein as well as answer to what we formerly wrote, as soon as may be, remaining

Upon reading two letters from Lt. Governor Stoughton of the 15th and 21st instant answered as follows, but respited the sending it forward for some time.

New Castle 27 April, 1697.

Honorable Sir,—

We have yours severally of the 15th and 21st current, in answer to our two last, and find our hopes frustrated of what we confidently promised ourselves on your former advice of readiness to assist us. We wonder your Council should think it impracticable to afford us any constant assistance when it may be easily remembered we had it from Sir Wm. Phips, & since from your Honor, on easier terms than we now proposed, that our necessities are now increased and our danger much greater—as too yielding of help upon advice of the enemys approach, it hath generally happened that the late coming such help has proved fatal to those that have needed it.

However we must submit to Providence, praying only further, that seeing we ma'nt expect your bearing any part of the charge you would please to supply us with forty able men with arms &c. upon our own charge. The Faukland[?] being here, will neither add a man to our fort or frontiers; if we should desire it, we may rationally expect the Capt. to tell us he has brought his men to defend the Kings ship. We are glad you are like to be other ways supplied with powder; nor should we have lessened the Kings Stores here on any terms but to have served you in exchange for provisions which we are at present wanting of for subsistence of soldiers here in his Maj'ties service. So praying your answer, hereto remain.

Boston, May 3<sup>d</sup> 1697.

Honble. Sirs—

Myself and Council have thought it necessary for his Maj<sup>y</sup> service to lay an Embargo upon Merchant ships and other vessels trading beyond sea,—the better to restrain men in the country in case of a foreign invasion;—the season of the year advancing apace, wherein the enemy may reasonably be expected in case they design for these parts: And, forasmuch as the seamen may have recourse unto your Province and get opportunity of voyages from thence to go out of the country, unless your Government please to order the like restraint upon ships and other vessels intended for foreign parts;—I have thought it advisable for his Majesty's service to recommend the same unto you,—hoping you will be ready to encourage and promote so good and needful an order, I am

Your very loving Friend,

*Letter from Lt. Gov. Wm. Stoughton.*Boston, May 5th 1697.

Hon'ble Sirs

I have yours of the 27th of April past and know no reason you have to think your hopes frustrated of any assistance I encouraged you to expect from hence, nor is it to be wondered at if his Maj<sup>ty</sup>'s council here should thinke it impracticable for this Government to bear the charge of a standing Garrison within your Province, considering how greatly we are impoverished, and the extream difficulties we are put upon to carry on and support the charge of what must necessarily be provided for and maintained in the Frontiers of this Province, and for guarding of the Sea Coast. As for your proposal for a supply of Forty men at the charge of your Province, I shall advise with the Council thereupon at their sitting to-morrow, and give you a particular answer thereto, which will not be until after the posts setting forth. I have ordered a Levy of men to rendezvous the middle of this month, which I intend to improve for his Ma<sup>ty</sup>'s service in the Eastern parts, by which your Province will have benefit, and know not but the number proposed may be posted there. Letter from Lt. Gov. Stoughton.

Boston, July 22<sup>d</sup>, 1697.

Gent<sup>m</sup>

I have thought it necessary to communicate unto you the present intelligence and reports stirring here.

This week arrived at Salem, a fishing Katch that had been taken about Cape Sables by a French ship of war, of fifty four guns or upwards: The commander whereof gave the said Katch to some English prisoners he had then on board, to transport them hither, and the prisoners say that the commander of said ship declared his intentions to come further upon this coast. There is also a Barque from Canada with about sixty or seventy men that has taken several of our fishing vessels; the company belonging to some of them are come home, who say that the French on board said Barque, and one Dantrimony a liver on shore about Cape Sables, reported that there was a squadron of French ships of war designed for these parts, and that Casteen was gathering together a body of French and Indians to attack us by land: Also, That a Parquet boat from France arrived at St. John's the beginning of April last. It may be so far necessary to credit this report, as to excite all care and vigilance in looking out and doing what may be further necessary in preparations to repel them in case they come.

I apprehend it very advisable that you order two well sailing shallops or sloops well fitted for rowing to lie abroad for espyal, and to give speedy notice of the approach of any ships; which, I hope you will accordingly put in practice.

Ordered, that notice be given by the Secretary from this Board to Capt. Rob. Hancock, y<sup>t</sup> the Council are very solicitous to do whatsoever lies in their power for the promoting his Maj'tys interest and service; but considering the present circumstances of this Province, being by sea & land wholly frontier to the enemy, and all our men 'listed in his Maj'tys Fort & Garrisons, being many too few for our own defence: We having been necessitated to pray the assistance of forty men from the Lt. Governor of the Massachusetts Province, which are now drawn off again, and left us very weak; the small concern of shipping belonging to this Province being now most abroad; We being also beholden to our neighbor government for men to man those few vessels are sent abroad from this Province,—all which considered, we are in no present capacity of affording the supply desired. The above order notified to Capt Hancock accordingly.

Letter of Instructions.

Portsmouth, 17th 10ber, 1697.

Mr. Ichabod Plaisted.

Herewith we deliver you a letter for his Excellency the Earl of Bellomont, our Governor, now at New York, to whom you are to make all possible dispatch, unless at Boston you have such advice as that if you proceed you might probably miss of him.

When you arrive at New York take good advice according to letters herewith given you, how to demean yourself: If you find my lord high and reserved, not easy of access, you must manage your business by some of the gentlemen about him; If you find him to give you a favorable reception and free to discourse, you then may let him know how universally the news of his being our Governor did affect us with joy and satisfaction; you must also let him know that we daily expect Mr. Allen, whose commission for Governor here will be accounted valid until his Excellency's commission be here published; and query how we shall demean ourselves in such a case: in short, the principal end in sending you on this message is to pay our respects and duty to his lordship, and to prevent Mr. Usher or any other mal-content prepossessing him with any ill thing against us; so that if Mr. Usher or any such be there, you must observe their carriage and endeavor to learn how they are received and treated by my lord; and forthwith, by the first post after your arrival, to give us an account of your affairs.

We cannot limit you as to the time of your stay at New York; you must do therein as shall be advised you, and if my lord be almost ready to come away, you will do well to wait his motion and be one of his attendance at Boston; but if his Excellency move not quickly, then you may ask his Excellency's leave and dispatch home with all possible speed; but be sure in the mean time by all opportunities, let us hear from you how it fares with you.

For enabling you to bear the expenses of this journey, we herewith give you 20£, and have desired Mr. Geo. Jaffrey to procure you credit for 20£ payable at New York, if you should happen there to have occasion. As to your expenses we advise to good husbandry; if you see occasion there you need not be over spare.

When you come to Boston, you are forthwith to look out Mr. Geo. Jaffrey, and to deliver him your letter to my lord, whom we have desired to take advice thereupon: Alter the same if there be occasion. So we wish you a good journey and remain your loving friends.

May it please your Lordships:

It is now about twelve months since my arrival from England into this Province with the King's commission for Lieut. Governor—thereof annulling and making void the power of Jno. Usher, Esq. late Governor of the same, which was forthwith signified to the inhabitants by Public Proclamation; but finding myself wanting of an oath, which all governors, &c. were obliged, by late Act of Parliament to take before entrance upon their Government; and, understanding a person was quickly coming over with Commission from his Majesty to administer said oath to the Governors of America, I deferred entering upon the Government for some time, and left in the hands of the President and Council as the Commission directs, in case of the absence of Governor and Lieut. Governor; but Mr. Usher, endeavoring to disturb us, and as I understand, having made complaints to your lordships against us;—to prevent the like for the future, I found it necessary to enter upon the Government; which I have now taken upon me according to the King's Commission, and hope no advantage will be taken against me for my so doing, having no design therein, but his Majesty's service and the peace and quiet of his subjects: Being also advised that the time for taking said oath is further extended to the 25th March next, and that Mr. Randolph is coming over with power from his Majesty to administer the same; and this remain at present, until his Majesty's pleasure shall be further known, by the arrival of my lord, the Earl of Bellmount, whom we understand his Majesty has been graciously pleased to appoint Governor of this Province, to the universal satisfaction of us all: for which further, I humbly refer your lordships to the Council and Representatives of this Province convened in General Assembly;—who by this conveyance, have given your lordships an account of the present state of affairs here:—and remain

[Pr. Rec. p. 236, B. I.]

May it please your Lordships:

We, the Council and Representatives of his Majesty's Province of New Hampshire, in New England, convened in General Assembly, do account it a duty incumbent on us to give your Lordships an account of the present state of affairs in this Province.

1st, We cannot omit a grateful acknowledgment of his Majesty's favor in appointing Mr. Partridge, one of our own inhabitants, our Lieut. Governor, in place of Mr. Usher; and though upon Mr. Partridge's arrival with the King's Commission, public proclamation was made throughout the Province to signify to the inhabitants that Mr. Usher's power for the future was made null and void; yet Mr. Partridge for some reasons deferring the present taking upon him the Government, but leaving it in the hands of the President and Council, Mr. Usher began to give us some disturbance; and as we understand, has complained to your lordships of our being without a government and in a lamentable condition, &c.; whereas the Province never was in a more quiet, peaceable condition; nor has there been any disturbance in it since Mr. Partridge's arrival; but only what Mr. Usher has endeavored to give us. As to those three gentlemen of the Council, viz. Messrs Hincks, Vaughan and Waldron, whom we understand Mr. Usher has represented as ill men, we must assure your Lordships, they have approved themselves true and faithful to his Majesty's interest, well affected to his government, and are abundantly qualified beyond most of the inhabitants of this Province, for his Majesty's service: It only remains, that we let your Lordships know that Mr. Partridge has now as Lt. Governor, by your advices taken the Government upon him, according to the King's Commission, to prevent any future pretence or disturbance, and to the general satisfaction of his Majesty's good subjects here, who are now awaiting his Majesty's further pleasure, by my lord, the Earl of Bellamont, whom we understand his Majesty has been graciously pleased to make our Governor:—Nothing than which could have been more agreeable to our own desires, and under whose influence we resolve to distinguish ourselves by a fervent zeal for his Majesty's service and interest, and a ready expose of our lives and fortunes to promote and defend the same: Being his Majestys dutiful and loyal subjects: &

§ Joseph Smith, Esq., was of Hampton.

Ordered, that the Secretary do acquaint John Usher, Esq. that this Board desires if he hath any letters or papers for his Maj'tys service that he would deliver them to him to communicate to the Council. The Secretary delivered the message accordingly, and brought answer that if it were desired he would come unto them.

Ordered, that the Secretary do go again to John Usher, Esq. and acquaint him that the Council desired if he pleased that he would send his papers;—if not that he could come himself and bring them.

The Secretary acquainted John Usher therewith. John Usher presently appeared at this Board and produced a letter from the Lords of the Plantation, dated the 3rd of August 1697, which said letter was read—being read Mr. [LI.] Usher said he was by his Maj'tys instructions one of his Majestys Council for this Province and accordingly claimed his privilege to sit at this Board, also asserted that he was Lt. Governor until the arrival of my Lord Bellomont or until such times as William Partridge, Esq. did qualify himself; and further declared that there were several persons by him suspended, the reason of whose suspension he had sent to Whitehall, and therefore unless his Majesty restored them, they could not sit in Council.

Rob. Elliott Esq. affirmed that Mr. Waldron and Maj. Vaughan did sign Association; therefore no cause for their suspension; and that William Partridge Esq. was Lieut. Governor and had qualified himself; and that if Mr Usher was Lieut. Governor, and these persons sat in Council, and that Maj. Vaughan and Mr. Waldron were not admitted they would not sit.

John Usher, Esq. replied—"Is there then an agreement made among you?" Rob. Elliott Esq. replied—yes, one and all; we are all of that mind.

The Hon. Samuel Allen Esq. Governor (it having first been debated) declared that John Usher Esq. was one of the Council and that he could not refuse him his privilege.

Whereupon Robert Elliott Esq. withdrew.

That as to congratulating his Lordships [LIX] arrival and inviting his Excellency to this Government, We are of opinion it is quite out of season for that it was formerly done by the Lieut. Governor & Council, and a kind answer thereto received from his Lordship, which was communicated to the Assembly to their very good satisfaction.

And for other matters since we are well assured his Excellency the Earl of Bellomont will in a little time be with us, We think it best to leave them till that time for that the collecting and paying of the last Province Rate made by act of General Assembly hath been forbidden and interrupted, whereby some soldiers that hath served his Maj'ty in Garrison for defence of the Province, others that have subsisted said soldiers, and many that have disbursed for the Public, are still out of their pay to their great damage; as also in displacing sundry fit and worthy persons from office and putting others not so qualified in their places; and specially in admitting John Usher Esq. to be one of the Council, notwithstanding all powers relating to said Usher hath been made null and void by the Kings commission to Lieut. Governor Partridge, under the great Seal, and the same more than once published within this Province.

These, with some other considerations hath given occasion to sundry members of the late Assembly to join with some members of this Council in addressing his Lordship, the Earl of Bellomont for relief, which address this House is of opinion was very seasonably and proper, and unless your Honor see cause in some measure to redress these grievances and carry on with a more moderate conduct, will give occasion to this House to make a second application to his Lordship. Passed by the Assembly.

The House of Representatives send up a bill that the income of the Impost, Excise and powder money be continued until the fifth day of November next; and kept for the reception of the Earl of Bellomont, the powder money for the use of the Kings Fort.

Ordered, that Major Joseph Smith and the Secretary do join with gentlemen chosen by the House of Representatives to draw up the said Act into form.

Province of New Hampshire.

January 17th 1698-9.

Major Smith & Secretary, & gentlemen chosen by Representatives drew up said Act and presented it and passed, as a title — An Act for continuing unto his Majesty the several duties of Custom, Excise, [LXI.] Impost, powder money or Tonnage of Shipping.

Whereas the late Act of General Assembly of this Province dated the fifth day of October, Anno Domi. 1697, Entitled an Act for continuing of the Act for Impost and Excise, expired the fifth day of November last past, We therefore, his Majestys loyal and dutiful Subjects the Representatives of this his Maj'tys Province of New Hampshire, taking into consideration the necessity of granting a supply of money, do hereby grant unto his most Excellent Maj'ty to the intents and ends hereafter mentioned, the several duties and impositions upon all wines, liquors, goods, wares, merchandise that shall be imported into this Province, Excise and Tonnage of shipping heretofore granted, and from thence continued by several Acts until the fifth of November last past, and pray that it may be enacted.

And be it accordingly enacted by the Honorable Samuel Allen, Esq. Governor, Council and Representatives in General Court Assembly, and it is enacted and ordered by the Authority of the same that from and after the seventh day of January 1698, until the fifth day of November next ensuing, the several Rates and Duties set upon all Wines, Liquors, and merchandise that shall be imported into this Province, and all duties of Tonnage in and by the said former acts of Impost, Excise, Customs and Tonnage money be and hereby are continued to be paid in ; and by the said Act as it is directed : That is to say, the duties of Impost, Custom and Excise to be employed for the reception of the Earl of Bellomont, and the Tonnage money for the supply of his Majestys Fort William and Mary at Newcastle.

The petition of Nathaniel Pitman in behalf of his wife Deliverance, complaining that one Joseph Smith & one Jeremiah Burnam has violently and contrary to law seized upon the Petitioners Cows and other estates, was read.

Resolved, that he must have his remedy and redress by law.

The Petition of Richard Maundy for remitting of fifteen pounds he paid for powder money of a Ship loaden with Naval Stores—read.

Resolved that the consideration of said Petition be referred to next Council day.

The Honorable Samuel Allen Esq. Governor made the following speech to the House of Representatives, viz.

As for your opinion that to congratulate his Lordships' arrival & inviting his Excellency into this Government is quite out of season ;—I did Judge that you Representatives of his Government would not have thought any time too late to have paid your respects and do your duty in congratulating, inviting and making due provision for his Excellency's reception.

As for my putting a stop unto the gathering of the last Rates, it was upon complaint from several Towns, of monies raised & misapplied, orders were issued to forbear gathering until the accounts might be examined and farther order; finding the late Treasurer hath absented himself and is gone out of the Province I shall order the monies to be gathered and paid into the Treasury. [LXIII.] As for your grief at my displacing sundry persons and putting in others, I have put in none but what are true and loyal persons, and laid aside none but the contrary:—Those who are put in are such as by virtue of the King's Commission were legally invested with power before my arrival.

As to Mr Ushers being admitted one of the Council, he claims it as his privilege by virtue of the Kings Commission and instructions together with orders from Whitehall, dated the third day of August 1697, which have been read unto you.

As to Mr. Partridge Commission being read, that doth not qualify him, but when Mr. Partridge is qualified his Commission ought to take place, & until then or until my Lord Bellomont arrives, I judge I am to obey the orders from Whitehall, which to you have been communicated, and in his Maj'tys name you are at your peril required to yield obedience thereunto.

As to the address you mention from the Council and Assembly to my Lord, when no Council and Assembly hath sat since I came into the Province, for by non-appearance on the second of October it became null, I admire that any in the name of such dare presume to address my Lord as presenting grievances. I know of none but maintaining the Kings prerogative. And for violence, I have not raised the militia to take up arms. As for your future proceedings I do advise you to act safely.

And finding, Gentlemen, your aim and drift is to strike at the Kings honor and prerogative, and countenancing of such who are violent against the same,* I shall render an account unto his Majesty of my whole proceedings; and in the meanwhile you are dissolved; and in his Majestys name I do dissolve you. The Court is dissolved.

Copy of a Letter from Lieut. Governor Stoughton, of Massachusetts, to Gov. Samuel Allen.

“Hon’ble Sir:

Upon the late submission made by the Eastern Indians, which it’s hoped will settle all things in a present quiet, I have thought fit, with the advice and consent of his Maj’tys Council here, to emit a Proclamation (copy whereof is enclosed) to promote the regular settlement of the Eastern parts of this Province, and for regulating of Trade with the Indians, the better to secure and preserve his Maj’tys Interests and the future peace and tranquillity of his subjects, that no just provocation may be given to the Indians, or any abuse or injustice done them therein—the terms whereof the Governm<sup>t</sup> here expect an exact compliance with, and conformity unto. And judge it necessary for Maj'tys service that your honor be acquainted therewith to the end his Maj'tys subjects within your Government may be notified thereof in such way as you shall think most adviseable, that neither the good intent of the s<sup>d</sup> Proclamation be defeated, nor they suffer any loss or damage by acting anything contrary thereunto within the parts of this his Maj'tys Government. Assuring myselfe nothing will be wanting on your honors part to prevent the mischiefes that may ensue upon neglect of the due observance thereof,—I am with much respect,

Sir, your very humble servant

WM. STOUGHTON."

"Boston, February, 16th 1698-9."

The said letter was read, considered and debated. It is thereupon ordered that the said Proclamation be read on the morrow, being the 26th instant by the several ministers of this Province after Sermon unto their several congregations, and that after the reading thereof, it be delivered unto one of the constables of the said several towns, who are hereby ordered and required to affix the same on the most convenient door of each respective Meeting House in this Province, that so all his Maj'tys subjects within this Province may have notice thereof; and that it be also notified that in the articles of Peace it is contained that at all time and times forever and after the date of submission, the said Indians engage to cease & forbear all acts of hostility towards the subjects of the Crown of England, that they will abandon & forsake the French interest, and that all captives in the hands of any of the s<sup>d</sup> Indians be forthwith restored without any Ransom or payment.

SUBMISSION OF 1698.

In testimony whereof, we, the said Sagamores, Captains and principal men, have hereunto set our several marks and seals, at Casco Bay, near Mares point, the seventh day of January, in the tenth year of the reign of his said Majesty, King William, the Third, Annoq. Domini, 1698-9.

* The Earl of Bellomont was born in the County of Sligo, Ireland, in the year 1636. His grandfather, Sir Charles Coote, was a "soldier of fortune, trained in the wars of Elizabeth," and distinguished himself by his ferocity in Ireland, in the reign of Charles I. Richard Coote, the Earl's father, was the third son of Sir Charles, and brother of the Earl of Mountrath; and, having co-operated in bringing about the Restoration, was, in 1660, created Baron of Coloony, (Irel'd.) He died on the 16th of July, 1683, and was succeeded in his title and estates, by his son Richard, who went over

Chief in & over his Maj'tys Province of New Hampshire, was read and published.

His Maj'tys Commission unto his Excellency Richard, Earle of Bellomont, to be Vice Admirall was produced in Council.

His Maj'tys commission for administering the oath appointed by an Act of Parliament made in the seventh and eighth year of his present Maj'tys reign, that all Governors shall observe all the Clauses, matters and things contained in the several acts of Parliament in that Act recited and in that present Act was also read.

The oaths appointed by Act of Parliament instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and supremacy, were by the Council administered unto his Excellency Richard Earl of Bellomont, also his Excellency repeated and subscribed the Declaration and Association and took the Oath enjoined by an Act of Parliament made in the seventh and eighth year of his present Maj'tys reign, to observe all matters and things contained in y<sup>e</sup> severall Acts of Parliament in that Act re-to the Continent after the accession of James II, and was one of the first to espouse the interest of the Prince of Orange. In 1688, he became a member of Parliament for Droitcorick in Worcestershire. In March, 1689, he received the appointment of Treasurer and Receiver-General to Queen Mary, consort of William III., whereupon, the Parliament held at Dublin, by James II, pronounced an attainder against him. The displeasure of the fallen Monarch, however, only served to secure the favor of William and Mary; and, on the 2d November, 1689, he was advanced to the dignity of Earl of Bellomont. He married, in 1690, Catharine, daughter and heiress of John Nanfan, Esq., of Birch Monton, in the County of Worcester, and had issue two sons, Nanfan and Richard, who successively inherited their father's title.

On his arrival, in this country 1699, as Governor of New-York, Massachusetts and New Hampshire, he was received with the greatest respect; and he took every method to ingratiate himself with the people. He was condescending, affable and courteous, and rendered himself very popular in his Government. Short as was his administration, he obtained a larger sum, as a salary and gratuity, than any of his predecessors. His last meeting with the Council and General Assembly of New Hampshire, was the 17th of August, 1699. In May, 1700, he took leave of Massachusetts, and went to New York—of his administration in that Colony a full account may be found in the Col. Hist. of N. Y. Vol. III, IV, V, &c. The Earl of Bellomont died in New York, March 5, 1701. He was interred with becoming honors in the chapel of the fort at the Battery; but, afterwards, when the fort was taken down and the Battery leveled, in 1790, the leaden coffin was removed and finally deposited in St. Paul's Church Yard, N. Y. The Countess of Bellomont soon after his decease returned to Ireland, and died at the family seat in the County of Sligo, 12th March, 1728, in the 90th year of her age.—Col. Doc. N. Y., Vol. IV. p. 851, note, and Holmes' Am. An. Vol. I. p. 481.—ED.

Governor during the absence or upon the death of the Earle of Bellomont, also took the oath of Privy Councillor.

Capt. John Hill commander of Sacoa Fort waited upon his Excellency this day in Councill and gave the following account concerning the Eastern Indians viz.

That on yesterday the fourth day of this instant August, two of the chief Indians named Bombazeene and Eskumnitt came unto him, said Hill, at Socoa, and that they enquired of him concerning the great Govern<sup>r</sup> and being told by him that his Excellency was at Piscataqua, they seemed to be very glad, and said if the great Governor would appoint a time and place where they should meet with him, they would go and call a Council of their Indians and then they would consider what to do; that Bombazeen told him all those lands belonged unto his uncle Moxis, the Chief Sachamore of that place, and saith that those Eastern Indians carry themselves very surly and insolently and doe say that the English shall not repossess and enjoy the Lands in the [P. 5.] Province of Maine, otherwise than by agreement with them. Said Hill further advertizeth, that the Indians have three Forts, one at the head of Kennibek River called Narregawock, another Fort at Ammis Coggin called Secunti, being a branch of Kennibeeck River to the Westward, the third Fort as he understands lies by a great Pond between those two Forts and that in each of these Forts are French Priests, Missionaries, who do instruct the Indians in the Romish Religion.

Ordered, that Capt. Hill doe acquaint the said Eastern Indians that this place of Portsm<sup>o</sup> is the place where his Excellency appoints to see them, and that the said Capt. Hill do take care for their safe and convenient coming and that Monday next seven-night being the fourteenth instant be the day his Excellency appoints for treating with them, and that if they say they cannot be here at that time, the said Capt. Hill may propose their coming to his Excellency at Boston.

His Excellency acquainting the Board with his Maj'tys orders to him strictly to forbid all his Maj'tys subjects or others inhabiting within the districts of his government holding any correspondence with, or giving any assistance to any person or persons who have been fitted out of Scotland and are said to have settled in a certain place in the West Indies, by them called Calladonia, or to enter into any traffic or commerce with them or any of them.

It is thereupon ordered that Proclamation be made that no provision, ammunition or other necessaries whatsoever be transported or carried to them from this Province or any part thereof, either in their own vessel or any other Shipp or vessel for that use, and that the High Sheriff doe make publication thereof in the several respective towns within this Province in the usual manner. Butcher, who were lately committed by the Justices for a Riot, and now in prison till their fines to the King be paid, have by their several petitions, as on file, represented their present incapacities and pray to be put into some service to enable them to satisfie the same, complaining also of the great hardships they are like to suffer by their continuance [P. 9.] in prison this cold season.

Some of the Squaws who seemed to be well affected to the English discovered a great deal of sorrow, saying they should never see them again, and by their whole carriage gave occasion of suspicion that the Indians designed mischief agst us, and therefore desired the Councils' advice;—who thought meet that the Lt. The Lieut. Govern<sup>r</sup> was pleased to move to the Council that a day of Thanksgiving be set apart for returning thanks and praise to Almighty God for many blessings and favors bestowed upon this Province: First in preserving his Maj'ty King William in life and health, as also the people here from the suspicious danger they lay under last Spring of the year by that cruel and barbarous enemy the Indians. For a plentiful harvest bestowed upon us this summer past; in preserving us with health; and for the great Mercy of God in granting us to live in peace and quietness under this present Government;—

And, namely, [mainly] for the enjoyment of the Gospel and Gospel Ordinances. And for all other His daily mercies and blessings bestowed upon us from time to time.

Ordered, that Thursday the 12th day of December next, be set apart for a Thanksgiving Day as aforesaid; and Mr. Waldron, Mr. Hinkes and Mr. Secretary draw up Proclamation accordingly; and that the same be sent to each minister of every town in said Province in order to publish the same.

Province of New Hampshire.

By the Hon. Wm. Partridge, Esq. Lt. Governour of said Province.

For a General Thanksgiving Day.

Forasmuch as a grateful acknowledgment is due unto Almighty God, for the singular favors and blessings we daily receive from his Divine bounty; And, moreover, considering the manifold mercies which otherwise we are made the subjects of; as first, in the preservation of our gracious sovereign King William in life and health; his kingdoms and dominions in peace and tranquillity; and, especially in favouring this, his Majesty's Province, with many and singular instances of Divine goodness the year past—particularly, in general health, preventing of contagious mortal sicknesses, which have prevailed to some degree, in other the English Plantations; in bringing to maturity a harvest so much beyond our expectation, considering the long drought which threatened a great scarcity;—and, in granting us to live in peace and quietness under this present government; And, that notwithstanding the appearance of a new Indian war the last spring, by the blessing of God, (in the extraordinary conduct of his Excellency the Earl of Bellomont our Governor) the storm is blown over; and by his wise and prudent negotiation with the Maques [Mohawks] and other of the five Nations of Indians at Albany, we have a fair prospect of a continuing peace with those our barbarous neighbors; and, what is of greater worth, namely, the enjoyment of the Gospel and Gospel ordinances;—All which bespeaks a deep sense of our obligations to the great and divine Majesty of Heaven.

In the returning of thanks and praise to Him for the same, I do, therefore, by and with the consent of his Majestys Council, order and appoint Thursday, the 12th day of December next [to] be observed and set apart throughout this Province, for the offering up of publick Praise and Thanksgiving to the God of Heaven who is the Giver and Bestower of All his mercies,—hereby exhorting both ministers and people in their respective congregations and Assemblies, to a religious performance of the duties required on such a day; and commanding that all persons abstain from their servile business and employments thereupon.

Confirmation of the Treaty with Algier, and the additional Articles 17th Aug. 1700.

First—

We, the most Excellent and most Illustrious Lords, Mustapha Dey, Ali Bashaw, and Mustapha Aga, Govern<sup>rs</sup> of the most famous and warlike City and Kingdom of Algier, do by these presents renew and confirm the Peace we so happily enjoy with the King of Great Brittain, France and Ireland, Defender of the Christian Faith, and his subjects, made in the year 1682, in every part and Article, more particularly that of the 8th wherein it is expressed that no Ship or Vessel belonging to our Government of Algier, shall cruise near or in sight of any the Roads, Havens, or Ports, Towns or places belonging to the said King of Great Brittain or any ways disturb the Peace or Commerce of the same. And in compliance with the 8th Article of that Treaty, We do sincerely promise and declare, that such Orders shall for the future be given to all Our Commanders, that under a severe penalty and Our utmost displeasure they shall not enter into the Channel of England, nor come nor cruise in sight of any part of his Maj<sup>tys</sup> of Great Brittain's Dominions, any more for the time to come.

Secondly—

That whereas we had declared [P. 21] that all Ships and Vessels belonging to the said King of Great Brittain should have passes, by the last of September, 1700, We do by these declare, at the desire of Capt. John Munden, Commander-in-chief of his Maj<sup>tys</sup> Ships in the Mediterranean, and Robert Cole, Esq. his Maj<sup>tys</sup> Consul now residing at our City of Algier, on behalf of their great M<sup>r</sup>, that no passes shall be required or expected from any of the English Ships or Vessels in any part of the world, but that they shall proceed on their voyage without producing or shewing a pass to any of our Cruizers till the last of September 1701; and after that time is expired, and any ship of England be seized not having a pass, we do hereby declare that the Goods in that ship shall be prize; but the Ma<sup>r</sup>, men and ship shall be restored and the freight immediately paid to the said Master to the utmost value as he should have had, if he had gone safe to the Port where he was bound.

Thirdly—

That whereas Capt. John Munden has given us good assurances that he had a great affront some years passed from some of our rude sailors at our Mould, We do hereby promise that at all times whenever any of the King of Great Brittaines' ships of War come to this place, order shall be given to an Officer of the Government immediately, who shall attend at the Mould all the day-time during their stay here to prevent any such disorder for the future; that no misunderstanding may happen between us, and if any such disorder should happen, the officer of the Mould shall secure the person or persons and they shall be punished with the utmost severity.

Fourthly—

By the help of God, and if he pleases, these Articles now made between us shall be maintained; to the truth of which We have hereunto set our hands and Seals, in Algier, in the year of the Haggira 1112, and is the account of the Christians August 17th 1700.

Extract of a letter from the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations to the Earl of Bellomont, dated the 30th October 1700.

The Ship with Timber from New Hampshire for which Mr. Partridge entered into Bond that she should come for England, being accordingly arrived in Torbay, the merchants concerned therein made application and great complaint to us about that matter; and we, finding thereby that this happens to be the same Ship concerning which his Maj'ty by order in Council of the 9th of May last (whereof we sent you a copy in ours of the 21st June) had directed that she should be permitted to proceed on her voyage to Portugal;—We accordingly represented to their Excellencies our opinion thereupon and send your Lordship also a copy thereof here inclosed. However, as to this trade of Timber from the Plantations to foreign parts, we shall take action further to consider of it.

The Representations that we were preparing upon the Acts of the Gen<sup>l</sup> Assembly of New Hampshire having been laid before their Excellencies, we send you copies thereof here inclosed, to which we refer ourselves for the reasons for what we have therein offered, and when we receive Orders thereupon, they shall be transmitted to you that they may be observed.

We desire your Lordship to be mindful of his Maj'tys Instruction for sending home yearly accounts of the Arms, Ammunition and Stores remaining in his [P. 28.] Maj'tys Magazines and Garrisons in the several Provinces under your Government, and to take care that those acc<sup>ts</sup> be regularly transmitted as his Maj'ty has ordered.

We also desire your Lord<sup>sh</sup> (as we shall do the Goven<sup>rs</sup> of all his Maj'tys other Plantations respectively) that a memorandum be entered upon the Council Books of all your Governments to caution them, that whenever any those Governments by the death, absence or removal of a Govern<sup>r</sup> or Lt. We send you here inclosed a copy of an Agreement lately made by Capt. And we desire you thereupon to take care that due notice be given thereof in y<sup>r</sup> Governments that all persons concerned may thereby have opportunity to provide themselves with Admiralty Passes for their security in that occasion, according to the Instructions that have not long since been sent to you by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty with Passes to be distributed accord-

Extract from the Lords of the Council of Trade's letter of the 21st June, 1700, to the E. of Bellomont.

His Majesty having been informed by the consul at Algier, that the Dey of that Government had declared to him their resolution to direct their cruisers to require Admiralty passes, pursuant to the Treaty with them in 1682, from all the ships of his Majestys subjects that they should meet with in and after the month of September next;—and, it being apprehended that they may cruise in the way of our Plantations' trade more than they have formerly done, so that all ships not only to, but from, England thither, but also from one plantation to another will need to be provided therewith; Care has been taken here for preparing of passes and regulating the distribution thereof in the Plantations with all possible diligence; in which we have done our part: We doubt not but you will accordingly receive both passes and rules relating thereunto for the security of the trade of his Majesty's subjects in the Provinces under your Government from the Lords of the Admiralty: And that your Lordship may be more fully informed of what the Algerines expect, we send you here indorsed the copies of the Dey of Algiers letter to his Majesty, of the 14th April, 1699, and of the Consul's letter of the 13th April, 1700.

Letter to Gov. Bellomont relating to Passes.

Admiralty Office, 21st June, 1700.

My Lord,

Your Lordship will herewith receive 2 boxes containing 1000 passes to be disposed of as the inclosed instructions from my

Lords of the Admiralty direct, for securing ships and vessels of his Majesty's subjects from the Algerines; and for your better guidance how to fill up the blanks in the said passes, I send you one of them filled up for a sample.

Your Lordship will also receive in the box with the passes, 1000 oaths and 1000 bonds, some of which oaths are for English built ships, and the rest for foreign built ships made free, and part of the bonds are for ships trading coast-wise in the plantations; the others for such as trade from the plantations to Europe. Samples of which oaths and bonds with the blanks filled up, I send you for your guidance in the doing thereof, before you fill up or deliver the pass.

And whereas your Lordship will find by the said instructions that a registry must be sent to this office of all passes delivered out by you, I send you likewise a scheme showing in what manner the said registry is to be kept.

And your Lordship being directed by the other order of my Lords of the Admiralty that come indorsed, to secure a fitting number of those passes and bonds for your own Government, and then to distribute the rest to the respective places mentioned in the margin,* I desire you will please at the same time to send the packets also that come herewith to the said places respectively, and that you will own the receipt hereof, and let me know how you dispose of the passes.

I am, my Lord, your Lordships most humble servant

Letter to Gov. Bellomont relating to Timber.

[P. 30.] Right trusty and right well beloved Cousin—we greet you well.

Whereas we have been informed that great spoils are daily committed in the woods of New Hampshire and Province of Maine, and other parts within our Govern<sup>t</sup> of the Massachusetts Bay, by cutting down and converting to private uses such Trees as are or may be proper for the service of our Royall Navy, and it being necessary that all practices which tend so evidently to deprive us of those supplies be effectually restrained:

Our Will and Pleasure is that upon consideration of the occasions of such abuses, the methods by which they are carried on, and the inconveniences that attend them, you use your endeavors, with Our respective Councils and the General Assemblies of the Massachusetts Bay and of New Hampshire, to dispose them to pass Acts for preventing the further spoils of those woods, and for preserving a Nursery of such trees as may be useful for our service; and in case you cannot prevail with them to pass Acts proper and sufficient for those purposes, that you send over hither the heads of such a Bill as may be effectual for those ends, and fit to be enacted here. Soe We bid you heartily farewell.

Copy of his Majestys Letter to the Earl of Bellomont, relating to Accessories in case of Piracies beyond the Seas, February 2d 1700-1.

Right trusty and right well-beloved Cousin—We greet you well:

Whereas by Our letters bearing date the 10th Feb'ry, 1699-1700 we thought fit to give you several directions relating to the trial of Pirates in Our Province of New York, and whereas an Act of Parliament is since passed for the more effectual suppression of Piracy, pursuant to which a Commission under the Great Seal of England has been also sent you, empowering you and others to proceede accordingly in reference to Our said Province, and to Our Province of East and West New Jersey and Our Colony of Connecticut,

Our Will and Pleasure is that notwithstanding anything contained in Our aforesaid letters of the 10th of Feb'ry 1699-1700 you henceforward take care to Govern yourself in matters relating to Pirates according to the intent of the Act of Parliament and Commission aforementioned.

But whereas Accessories in cases of Piracies beyond the Seas are by the said Acts left to be tried in England according to the Statutes of the 28th of King Henry, the 8th, We do hereby further direct & require you to send all such Accessories in cases of Piracy in Our aforesaid Provinces of New York, the East and West New Jerseys and our Colony of Connecticutt with the proper Evidences, that you may have against y<sup>m</sup> into England in order to their being tried here.

And you are to give notice of Our Pleasure herein to our Provinces of East and West New Jersey and to the Governor and Company of the Colony of Connecticut, that they may conform themselves thereunto. So we bid you heartily farewell.

Extract of a letter from the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations to the Earl of Bellomont dated the 11th of February, 1700-1.

On the 10th of the last month we laid before his Maj'sty a Representation relating to the state of the Forts and Fortifications on the continent of America, and we send you here inclosed a copy thereof, as likewise of our Letter to Mr. Secretary Vernon on the same subject. You will by them perceive what wee offered in relation to all y<sup>or</sup> Governments, and more particularly in order to the further defense and security of New York; and his Maj'sty having thereupon been pleased to approve and sign the Letters that we had prepared for yourself with respect to your several Governments, and for the respective Governors and Governments of Rhode Island, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, Marriland and Virginia, we send you here enclosed all his Maj'tys said Letters; and because they are sealed, we send you likewise copies of those which are not for y<sup>r</sup>self, that in sending them forwards you may better know what to write along with each of them.

With these we also send you another letter from his Maj'ty relating to the preservation of Timber in the Province of New Hampshire, which his Majs'ty was pleased to direct us to draw in pursuance of our Representations on that subject; whereof we sent you a copy in our letter of the 30th of October last.

We writ you formerly about sending the Acts of General Assembly which [P. 33.] concern private persons, under distinct Seals, without fastening them to those that are of a public import. And we now add, that we think there would be a conveniency in sending all public Acts also in the same manner, each of them under a seperate Seal. Provided still, that they be either writ or printed in such a forme that they may conveniently be bound up in Volume as there shall be occasion, which method we desire therefore may be observed in all yo<sup>r</sup> Governments.

The Commissions for trying of Pirates in his Maj'tys Plantations pursuant to the late Act of Parliament for the more effectual suppression of Piracy, having been brought to us the 24th of the last month; we did on the 27th commit those which concern your Lordship as Govern<sup>r</sup> of New York and New England, to the care of Mr. Champante.

And in further reference to both these Commissions, we now here send you inclosed his Maj'tys letters relating to Accessories in cases of Piracy beyond the Seas, who are not to be tried by the said Commissioners.

Copy of an Order of Council of the 24th April 1701, upon a Report of the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations relating to Mr. Allen's Appeals.

At the Court at Kensington, the 24th day of April, 1701.

The Kings Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Upon reading this day at the Board a Representation from the Lords Commiss<sup>rs</sup> of Trade and Plantations on the petition of Samuel Allen, Esq., Proprietor of the Colony of New Hampshire humbly praying to be admitted to appeal to his Maj'sty in Council from a Verdict and Judgment given against him in the Superior Court of Judicature, of New Hampshire, the 18th day of August 1700, in favor of Richard Waldron, touching the Petitioners Right as Proprietor to certain Quit Rents of land in the said Colony, his Majesty in council is pleased to approve of the said Representation and accordingly to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the Petitioner, Samuel Allen be admitted to Appeal from the said Verdict and Judgment given against him in the Superior Court of Judicature of New Hampshire, the 18th day of August 1700, in favor of the said Richard Waldron; the petitioner first giving security to prosecute the said Appeal in order to be heard before this Board, the first Council [p. 35.] day in December next, and to abide by his Maj'tys determination in Council therein.

And his Maj'ty is further pleased to order that authentic copies of all proceedings in the said Superior Court of Judicature, in the petitioners case, be transmitted to this Board under the Seal of New Hampshire for his Maj'tys better information herein.

And the Governor, Lt. Governor, or Commander-in-Chiefe of New Hampshire, and all others whom it may concern are to take notice hereof, and to govern themselves accordingly.

EDWARD SOUTHWELL.

[P. 36.]

Extract of a letter from the Lords Comm'rs for Trade and Plantations, dated the 29th of April 1701, to the Earl of Bellomont.

As for Masts, Timber &c. to be had in New Hampshire, in order whereunto yo<sup>r</sup> Lordship conceives the Trade from thence to Spain and Portugal ought to be prohibited, having had occasion to lay some matters before the House of Commons, we have offered that amongst other things to their consideration.

The appeal that your Lordship had heard was refused in New Hampshire, has occasioned a petition to His Maj'ty which is now under Our consideration. We hear nothing yet of that appeal you mention to have been refused in the Massachusetts Bay.

But this declining to admit Appeals to his Maj'ty in Council, is a matter that you ought very carefully to watch against in all your Governments. It is a humour that prevails so much in Proprieties and Charter Colonies, and the Independency they thirst after is now so notorious, that it has been thought fit those considerations, together with other objections ag<sup>t</sup> these Colonies should be laid before the Parliament; and a bill has thereupon been brought into the House of Lords for Reuniting the right of Government in their Colonies to the Crown.

As to Mr. Allens Claim to y<sup>e</sup> Province of New Hampshire (mentioned also in the same Letters) that is a point of Law which has been formerly made the consideration of two Chief Justices of England; and a Report having [P. 37.] been made thereon we cannot meddle in it, but the forementioned Appeal which is desired by him from a late sentence of the Superior Court of New Hampshire, will probably bring that matter again under consideration and occasion some positive settlement in it.

We hope that Com<sup>r</sup> for trying of Pirates lately sent to all the Plantations will tend effectually to their extirpation; and the Proclamation of the 6th of March last which we send you here inclosed will also have a good effect; however a constant watchfulness ag<sup>t</sup> Piracyes, and all manner of illegal trade will be always necessary.

As to Piracyes, we send you likewise here inclosed the copy of his Maj'tys letter to you of the 14th inst. sent by Mr. Larkin, one versed in the forms of Admiralty Courts, and appointed by his Maj'ty to carry duplicates of those Commissions to all places where they are to be executed: who goes first to New Found Land, and will from thence take his passage to New England and so forwards through all the Plantations, in order to the settling of those forms according to the Instructions that have been given him for that purpose.

Diverse complaints have been laid before us of irregularities in the Courts of Chancery in his Maj'tys Plantations; and amongst the rest, that in some places the Governors and the members of the respective Councils who compose those Courts, do sit and act therein without taking any Oath to do equal and impartial Justice between parties concerned in the Causes that shall come before them.

Wee have thought fit hereby to direct [P. 38.] you (as we do other Governors) that in case there have been any neglect of this kind in any of your Governments, you forthwith take care to remedy the same as your Commission impowers you, by your taking, in the first place a proper Oath for that purpose. and afterward administering the like Oath to the members of the Court of Chancery in that Province, where you shall be presiding at the receipt of this letter; and by your further directing the Lt. Governors of his Maj'tys other Provinces, under yo<sup>r</sup> Government, immediately to take the like care in each place respectively.

Earl of Bellomont to the Lords of Trade. To the Right Hon<sup>ble</sup> the Lords Commissioners of Councill of Trade and Plantations.

My Lords.

“I am glad your Lordships are pleased to renew your orders for the carrying on the good design of furnishing naval stores from New Hampshire for the use of His Majesty's Navy, which I shall obey with a great deal of pleasure, though that design have hitherto been obstructed by some cross accidents. I do not for all that despair of its succeeding well and answering His Majesties glorious ends, for the advantage of England, and your Lordships great care for its encouragement. A foolish and unhappy parcimony in the surveyors, Mr. Bridger, Mr. Furzer and Mr. Jackson, the two first appointed by the Admiralty and Navy Wards, and the latter by Sir Henry Ashurst, to make survey of the woods, and other conveniencies, in these His Maj<sup>ties</sup> territories for Naval Stores, has been the occasion of great disappointment and losse of time in that affair. They were ship'd on board the Deptford, by an order of the Admiralty, of their procuring, and so were forced to Barbados where Mr. Furzer and Bridger fell sick of the Feaver three or four days before I left Barbados, contracted by a debauch they made; Mr. Furzer dyed, who I believe was the best of the two, but Mr. Bridger recovered, followed me hither, and I have sent him to Boston with a letter earnestly recommending him and the design he is imployed in, to their effectual kindness and furtherance, a copy whereof I now send your Lordships. Mr. Jackson is still here upon some businesse, but is to follow Mr. Bridger in a day or two; my letter is directed to the Lieut. Gov<sup>r</sup> Councill and Assembly, and will go to them in a fit juncture of time, because the Assembly of that province are now sitting. One thing I am apprehensive may somewhat obstruct the progress of this design for the present though the Govern<sup>t</sup> of Massachusetts Bay were well affected to it, and that is the Eastern Indians being still in warr with the English of that province (as by a copy of Mr. Usher's letter to me your Lord<sup>ships</sup> will see) it will be very expensive for the Province of Massachusetts to maintain a sufficient Guard for the Surveyors, but if they require it of me, I'll furnish them with forty or fifty soldiers from this and the other garrisons in this province. I am told this Country is much fitter for producing of Hemp and Flax, than that about Boston, and some persons have been talking to me of encouraging by an act of Assembly, the propagation thereof; but day labour is so excessively dear in this Country, that I am jealous it will never do so well here as in Ireland; however I will give such a design all the Countenance I can, that His Majesty may be certain of being supplied with those species here, if he should miss of them else in his own Dominions.

I shall God willing go to Albany about a month hence, when the Assembly have ended their session, where the Five Nations of Indians are appointed to meet me, and I will try to engage them to fall upon the Eastern Indians that infest the inhabitants of New Hampshire and Massachusetts Bay, if I be not informed in the meantime that those Indians have ceased their hostilities."

I am with respect

My Lords,

Your Lordships most faithful humble servant,

"There goes also another Address (No. 4) from the Council and Assembly of New Hampshire, which will show your Lordships what mischief Colonel Allen is doing in that Province. He is, it seems, turning people out of their properties without processe at law and so distracts the people there, that I fear the provision of Navall Stores for the King will suffer an interruption, which otherwise Mr. Partridge who is now here with me, gives all possible assurance of its succeeding to all our desires, so far as relates to timber of all sorts, masts, pitch and tar. As for hemp he has no hopes of that there; and I formerly wrot my thoughts of hemp and flax as fitter productions for the soil of Ireland and to be manufactured there where labour is cheaper three-fourths than 'tis here, or in New Hampshire. I do not take the account I now write of Colonel Allen upon trust from Mr. Partridge, tho' Partridge have a fair character, for I have the same account from two or three indifferent hands besides."

Portsmouth the 20th Febr<sup>y</sup> 99.

May it please your Excellency.

There has nothing of late occured worthy Your Excell<sup>cy</sup>s notice till yesterday Capt<sup>n</sup> John Tuttle of Dover with some other the Inhabitants thereof came to me with an information that the Indians late conversant at Cochecha were suddainly withdrawn according to the information here inclosed.

These Indians of late have been observed to visit most of the inhabitants that live in Dover and narrowly view their houses, and by their whole carriage given occasion of suspicion that they design mischief against us.

The Indians that have appeared at Cochecha and not known to the inhabitants there, do generally call themselves Albany Indians, but 'tis believed they are both Albany and Eastern Indians.

I thought it my duty to give your Excell<sup>y</sup> this an account by an express, and pray Your Excell<sup>y</sup> direction herein; in the mean time I have ordered watches and wards to be kept in the out towns to prevent a surprise but so that if any Indians still come in they may be treated as before without discovering any thing of our suspicion of them. I give Your Excell<sup>y</sup> no further trouble at present, but crave leave to subscribe

May it please Your Excellency Your most humble and obedient servant—

Earl of Bellomont to the Lords of Trade. To the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners for Trade & Plantations.

My Lords—

“ Mr. Partridge notwithstanding my admonitions to him not to suffer any ship timber to be cut, and carryed from Pescattaway till the Kings pleasure were first knowen in that matter, has not only consented to a ship's loading ship timber and masts in that harbour, but is now actually loading a great ship of his own of about 350 ton with principall ship timber for Portugal. The noise too of the profitable voyage he formerly made thither with ship timber, has so encouraged others to do the like, that I am newly informed of one Major Davison who is said to be loading a ship at Newberry in this Province with that sort of timber for Portugal. I believe your Lordships will not approve of this trade for many reasons, but 'tis very unlucky that I am so long without your orders therein. I doubt not to make it appear, that it is to the full as great prejudice to England to imbezle the Timber growing in New Hampshire, as it would be to imbezle that which grows in New Forest in England, which I shall have occasion in my next letter to prove.

“ Rear Admiral Benbow will give your Lordships an Account (if call'd on) what a vast prejudice the destruction of the woods in New Hampshire does the King and Kingdoms, he saw a quantity of noble timber for ships brought to Pescattaway by Mr. Partridge to be sent to Portugal in his great ship.

[N. Y. Col. MSS., Vol. IV., pp. 668-679.]

Earl of Bellomont to the Lords of Trade. To the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations.

[Extract.]

My Lords.

“ I have further to acquaint you, that I am more confirmed than I was, of the certainty of making Tar to serve the King and all his Dominions; being assured by several hands that 'tis a thing of great yield or produce, where there are a number of hands to assist one another. If Mr. Bridger may be credited, who has made some Tar in New Hampshire, and sent it to England with the other specimens a number of men will with ease make a barrel of Tar a day all the year round for each man's share which is 37 ton and 6 barrels of tar, the yearly produce of each man's labour; at which rate 600 soldiers will make 22650 ton of tar in a year, which is so vast a quantity, that one would think it would more than suffice for all the King's Dominions yearly ; yet the making pitch will cause great diminution of the tar.

I am told that at present all Naval Stores [P. 670.] which we have from Sweden and Denmark, are paid for with ready mony, carried in specie from England, which some merchants have assured me is above a 100,000£ per annum, whereas I would undertake to pay for all the Naval Stores from New Yorke and New Hampshire with the manufactures of England.

I have been very particular in the foregoing account, about making tar, because I would gladly explain every part of it to your Lordships ; and I hope what I have now to writ, will satisfy you of its being practicable beyond dispute or contradiction. I will now sum up the advantages which will accrue to England from this performance.

1st. It will take off the charge of the forces, the King would otherwise be obliged to keep in his pay, to defend the Provinces of New York and New Hampshire, against the French and their Indians, which in time of war cannot be less than a 1000 men, to defend them as they ought to be defended : and let it be considered too, that the securing of them, is in a great measure securing all the Plantations on this Continent.

2<sup>ly</sup> It will save the King and his Dominions near half the mony that's laid out at present for tar, pitch, turpentine and rozen.

3<sup>ly</sup> If it be true that above a 100,000£ in specie is exported every year out of England, by the Eastland Merchants, that some of mony which is a very great one, (and is entirely sunk and lost to the Nation by never returning) will not only by this design be kept within the nation for the time to come, but it will also be the undoubted means of a very considerable additional export and consumption of our English manufactures, so that the advantage will be double, by saving so great a sume of mony which was carried out of the Nation before, and by turning that loss into profit to England, in the increase of the Exports of our Manufactures as I just now said.

5<sup>thly</sup> But the greatest advantage of all is yet to come, which is, that the King and all his Dominions will be furnish'd with Naval Stores from his own territory, by which means that most important trade, (without which England could not subsist) will no longer be precarious.

The advantages that will redound to England by a right use of these Plantations, are infinite and inestimable, not only tar and pitch, turpentine, oyle of turpentine and rozen, will be furnished, but also the deal boards, masts, yards & bowsprits, and all the larger sorts of ship timber for the King and all his Dominions: and taking one thing with another, I can demonstrate that all these commodities I have now named will be afforded cheaper to England, than they now are from forreign Countries. Deal Boards are what will turn to least account of any of the Commodities I have enumerated, yet a vessell wholly laden with them would make a saving voyage from these Plantations to England. The Deals brought from Norway are sold by tale, that is by the hundred, and the price is from 3£ 10s, to 5£ the hundred, their length from 10 to 12 foot, their breadth from 10 to 12 inches. In New Hampshire they sell their boards by the 1000 foot, 22 shillings per 1000 is the present price for such deale, the boards are rarely under 25 foot in length, and from 15 to 18 inches in breadth, and more free from knots than the Norway boards are, as they tell me here; when the deals are 2 inches thick they call 'em plank, and their rule is, to double their price, as the thickness of the board or plank doubles; for 2 inch deale they have £2. 4s per 1000 foot, and for 3 inch deale £3. 6s, and the advantages to the merchant or fraghter will be chiefly in the 2 and 3 inch deal plank for the decks of ships, and such plank as they saw in New Hampshire of 36 foot long and two foot broad, and upon occasion they can furnish plank that's longer and broader than even that.

I desired Mr. Bridger to give me the prices of the principall ship timber, (as sold in the King's Yard at Portsmouth, where he serv'd his time) which are contained in the paper (marked F) but he told me he had put very moderate prices on the several sorts. And for instance he told me he had known 5 shillings per foot paid for great standards for a first and second rate man of war, which would be £15 per load, yet he has set down by £7 10s, per load in his said paper, which is but half a crown a foot. At the end of his memorial (marked D.) which answers my queres, he undertakes to save the King 2980£ 19s, in every ship load of masts, of what is paid to Mr. Taylor, and a ship making two voyages in a year from Pescattaway to England, the King will gain 5861£ 18s sterling, & two such ships of his own will gain him 11723£ 16s every year if the Navy will require so many masts.

That the masts, yards and bowsprits for the King's ships will be best and cheapest carryed home in ships of the King's own, is very clear and manifest. And I believe I shall as easily make it appear that the great and principal ship timber for building his ships of war, viz<sup>t</sup> beams, planks and compass timber (taking one sort with another) will be sent home in the King's own ships, for very near half the prices those sorts of timber cost the King at this time in his yards. Mr. Bridger has estimated the building a hagboat in his said memorial (mark'd D.) and therein in his answer to my second quere, at 5625£ New England mony, the said hagboat to be of 500 ton, which said sume is over 4000 sterling, by Mr. Bridger's computation 600£ New England mony (which is no more than 420£ sterling) will purchase a load of ship timber, that in the King's yards in England will be worth 2000 sterling. And by Mr. Partridge's computation, the said cargo or load of ship timber will be worth 2500£ sterling in the King's yards. Mr. Bridger ought to be the better builder, but Mr. Partridge has had more experience in shipping and selling that sort of timber, but taking it at either of their estimates, 'tis plain 'twill be worth while for the King to carry home his principal ship timber, from New Hampshire in ships of his own; and a ship will make two returns in a year, between Pescattaway and England. The paper (marked G. G.) is an estimate by Capt. Belcher (an experienc'd man in those matters of this town) of the charge of wages, victualls, and wear and tear of a ship of 500 Ton.

I verily believe all the Eastland Trade (except for flax and hemp) may be turn'd to these Plantations; and more than that, All the masts and scarcer sorts of ship timber for the use of all England, and the rest of the Dominions of the Crown, will be furnished from these Plantations cheaper than they now sell in England, taking one with another. And with a good regulation here will be a lasting store of all these things to the end of the world. This Province and New York abound with excellent ship timber of all sorts, and so does Conecticut Colony as well as New Hampshire.

And now my Lords I appeal to your Lordships whether the use and advantage I have propos'd by these Plantations to England, be not preferable to the selling almost all the lands in the Province of New York to Coll. Fletcher, and all New Hampshire, and a great part of this Province to Coll. Allen. I call it selling the lands of New York to Fletcher, because that whoever contrived that clause in his Instructions, which gave him an unlimited power in the disposition of those lands (and that directly contrary to precedent in other Governors Instructions) may be truly said to sell those lands, and therein to betray the King and Kingdom in a very high degree. I also call it selling New Hampshire and a great part of this Province to Coll. Allen, for that Mason under whom Coll. Allen claims had no opinion of his own title, is very plain having offered to sell it for a 100£, as Coll. Pinchon's Deposition does so far make out, as to satisfy any indifferent man of the truth of it; tho' it would not be allow'd a direct proof in law, because the offer was not made by Mr. Mason himself, but by a third hand, viz Doctor Owen a Presbyterian Minister. Then for Coll. Allen's title I send your Lordship's Coll. Hutchinson's Deposition, tied up with Coll. Pinchon's, they are both members of His Majesty's Council of this Province, and both of good reputation and substance. I have reason above other men to believe Coll. Allen's title is insufficient & defective, having been much urg'd to be brib'd, to favour his claim and pretention. There was an offer made me of 10,000£ in mony, and that Coll. Allen should divide the Province of New Hampshire with me; but I thanke God I had not the least tempting thought to accept of the offer, and I hope nothing in this World will ever be able to tempt me, to betray England in the least degree. This offer was made me three or four several times; and I am able to swear to time and place, and besides I have some letters from a certain man that mention enough of the matter to corroborate my own Testimony. I presume your Lordships will not have the better opinion of Coll. Allen's title, for the easy terms on which I might have come in for an equall share, or dividend with him, of that whole Country. I will make it appear that the lands and woods claim'd by Col. Allen are much more valuable than ten of the biggest estates in England, and I will sale those ten estates at 300,000£ apiece one with another which is 3 millions. By his own confession to me at Pescattaway last summer, he valu'd the Quit Rents of his lands (as he calls 'em) at 22,000£ per annum, at 3d per acre, or 6d in the pound of all the improv'd Rents; then I leave your Lordships to judge what an immense estate the impro'd rents must be, which (if his title be allow'd) he has as good a right to, as to the foremention'd Quit Rents. And all this besides the Woods, which I believe he might very well value at half the worth of the lands. There never was I believe since the world began so great a bargain as Allen has had of Mason, if it be allow'd to stand good, that all this vast estate I have been naming should be purchased for a poor 250£, and that a desperate debt too, as Coll. Allen thought, as per Coll. Hutchinson's Deposition aforesaid appears. This I thought my duty to acquaint your Lordships of, that you take such timely order therein, as to your Lordships wisdom shall seem proper. The consequence of Coll. Allen's claim, may prove highly prejudicial to England, he pretends to a great part of this Province; as far Westward as Cape St. Ann, which is said to take in 17 of the best towns in this Province next to Boston, the best improv'd land, and (I think Coll. Allen told me) 8 or 900,000 acres of their land. If Coll. Allen shall at any time goe about to make a forcible Entry on these lands he pretends to, (for to be sure the people will never turn tenants to him willingly) the present occupants will resist him and any force he shall bring, and the Province will be put into a combustion, and what may be the consequence of it I dread to think. Besides that, I fear in such a combustion all these Plantations would hold together, and take fire like a train from one end to t'other, I believe it would provoke the patientest of us all that after 50 or 60 years peaceable possession of an Estate in this Province, improv'd by our Fathers and our own industry, such a proprietor as Coll. Allen should drop out of the Clouds to oust us, as they Lawyers call it.

[P. 674.] "Tis most amazing to me how dust has been thrown so many years together formerly in the eyes of the King and the Nation, that the value of these Plantations to England has not been seen into. I will make it appear undenyably, that by a right management of these Plantations England shall imploy a 1000 stout ships of burthen and 20,000 seamen more than she now imployes, and besides other advantages these Plantations shall be forever secured in a dependence on the Crown, but more of this in another letter which I will shortly trouble your Lordships with, and which shall impart some observations of mine, on the Trade of these Provinces under my Government.

"A person in this town tells me he had advice from England that the Eastland Merchants began to be allarm'd at the talk that has been of late in London, of furnishing Naval Stores from these Plantations; and that it was believ'd they would oppose that design as much as in them lay. And also the specimens of tar and ship timber sent to England by Mr. Bridger from New Hampshire were not without Enemies that decry'd and rune them down; but your Lordship's wisdom and integrity will easily stem all sinister defamations.

"'Tis highly necessary and reasonable your Lordships should prevent the intended cozenage of the Crown, in the countenance given to Gov. Allen's claim. I think I have sufficiently demonstrated the value that the lands and woods would be to a private man, but he would be a bold man that would estimate the value they would be to the Crown, for I take them to be above value or inestimable. And in plain English 'tis abominable that the Crown should be defrauded of the lands and woods in the Provinces of

New York and New Hampshire; and an Act of Parliament ought to pass, for the vacating all extravagant of lands by Fletcher, in the Province of New York and of all other Governors, and to put all those lands under a good regulation: The same Act also should vacate Coll. Allen's pretended title, and vest all the lands in New Hampshire in the Crown, with a saving for all the inhabitants for their lands which they have improv'd, paying a reasonable yearly Quit Rent to the Crown.

[P. 675.] "The wast of the woods in New Hampshire has been, and still is so very great, that Mr. Bridger assures me they are forc'd to go 20 miles up into the Country to get a good mast for the use of the Navy. I am told the inhabitants of New Hampshire, have taken in what tracts of land and woods they pleas'd, to which they have no better title than Coll. Allen has. I hope there will be a strickt inquisition into that, and that none of 'em shall be allowed any property in the woods, otherwise than as a common tenant right, viz<sup>t</sup>. fire-boot,<sup>1</sup> hedge-boot,<sup>2</sup> and house and plough-boot.<sup>3</sup> For there must be, in my opinion, such a course taken, as that all the King's subjects shall be allow'd to cut and carry away, such timber as they shall have occasion for, and that gratis, they to pay for the labor of cutting and carrying away only, but not for the timber, because that would discourage, and frustrate this good design, they should only pay for the planting of 4 or 5 young trees in the room of that cut down. And there ought to be a restraint on all persons on pain of paying a good fine, not to cut any tree that is mark'd for the use of the Navy.

"Mr. Bridger tells me he has strip'd about 8000 pitch pines to make tar of, and some malicious people have gone and set fire to the woods, where those trees stood, and have burnt 'em down, his Memorial is (mark'd S.) Having signified by letter to Mr. Partidge, that I would not suffer him by any means to carry a ship load of timber to Portugall, and that I would send the King's ship to wait his loading his ship, who should have orders from me to seize and send her away when laden, to the King; he made a journey hither t'other day, and I have accepted of his bond in £3000, that his ship shall saile directly to England, where she shall give your Lordships notice of her arrival, and the King pre-emption of her load of ship timber at the market rates. This I thought absolutely the best way to secure the timber, since your

(1) Fire boot or botele—An allowance of fuel to which a tenant is entitled. (2) Wood for repairing hedges. (3) Wood sufficient for fuel and repairs of house; and for instruments of husbandry.—Web. Dic.

Lordships have not sent me any orders upon my former letter on that subject, and about the wast committed in the woods of New Hampshire. The copy of Mr. Partridges bond is (mark'd T.) The original bond I will send your Lordships by the frigot when she goes home, being unwilling to venture it by this ship. I am told there never was nobler ship timber seen, than this which Mr. Partridge has provided for Portugall, and I hope your Lordships will take such a course as that the King may not miss of it.

“ Mr. Partridge's folly in discovering what a proffitable voyage his ship formerly made to Lisbon, of which he crack'd to every body, (viz.) that for less than £300 this mony, he clear'd £1600 in the market he met with in Lisbon, for his ship timber, has set all the country agogg, so that some of the Merchants of Salem are now loading a ship with 12,000 foot of the noblest ship timber that ever were seen in America; 6000 foot of 'em are 4 inch plank and 6000 3 inch, and 45 foot long, and scarce a knot in any of 'em, they were designed also for Portugall, but I have taken such a course, as that the King shall have 'em of the Merchants carrying, or of my sending. I have spoke to one of the owners, and told him I would not suffer any ship timber to be carried to a foreign country; and that he his partners and must resolve either to send their ship and timber to England upon the same terms Mr. Partridge has oblig'd himself to do, or sell the timber to me for the King at the price it stands them in, and the Merchant has promised it shall be so. He own'd to me it was the best plank that ever was seen in America and of such large dimensions that tho' their ship be of 250 ton, she would not carry at most above 2000 foot more of such plank.

“ Your Lordships may see by this that vigilance is necessary to a Governor of these Plantations, and what an eternal trouble I am at in contending for the interest of England with the people in my these Governments.

[P. 679.]

“ And for a conclusion, I humbly and earnestly recommend the vacating Coll. Allen's pretension to New Hampshire, and all other claim deriv'd from Mason, which with Coll. Fletcher's grants of the lands of New York, are an abomination and mystery of iniquity. Yet I would have the charity done Coll. Allen to reimburse him the £250 mortgage money which Mason had of him. I am with great respect,

My Lords,
Your Lordships,

Most humble & obedient serv<sup>t</sup>.

Earl of Bellomont to the Lords of the Treasury.

[P. 776.]

“I have laid before the Lords of Council of Trade as exactly as I have been able, a state of the Provinces under my Government. Above all other things I have observed to their Lordships the treachery and corruption of the last Governour of this Province, Collonel Fletcher, in selling almost all the lands and woods in this Province, to nine or ten mean persons, to the unexpressible prejudice of the Crown.

“Likewise will expose the fraud that’s endeavored to be put on the Crown in the countenance that’s given to Collonel Allen in his claim of all the soil and woods of the whole Province of New Hampshire, and a great part of the Province of Massachusetts Bay. These Plantations are of an unspeakable value to the Crown and should not be suffered to be sold away and betray’d to a few private hands. ’Tis your Lordships’ province to see that the lands and woods belonging to the Crown be not purloined and imbezzled, therefore I thought it my duty to give your Lordships this account.”

“Last April I examined the Registers of all the vessels in the three Provinces of my Government and found there then belonged to the town of Boston 25 ships from a 100 ton to 300; ships about a 100 ton and under, 38. Brigantines 50, Ketches 13, and Sloops 67; in all a 194 vessels; to other towns in that Province there belonged then about 70 vessels of all sorts whereof 11 were ships of good burthen. To New Yorke there then belonged 6 ships above and 8 under a 100 tons; 2 Ketches, 27 brigantines and 81 Sloops. To New Hampshire at that time 11 ships of good burthen, 5 Brigantines, 4 Ketches and 4 Sloops. I believe one may venture to say there are more good vessels belonging to the town of Boston than to all Scotland and Ireland, unless one should reckon the small craft such as herring boats.”

“Piscataway in New Hampshire would in some years excell Boston in the fish trade if they were denyed the liberty of carrying ship timber to foreign parts; they are much better seated for the fishing than Boston is.

“Some Merchants at Boston with whom I discours’d sometimes about the trade of that Province and what proportion it carryed with the trade of New York and that of New Hampshire, computed that Boston had four times the trade of New York, and New York four times the trade of New Hampshire; but I afterwards examined the entries and clearing of all the three Custom Houses and found that the trade of New York were almost half as much as that of Boston, and the trade of New Hampshire (except for lumber and about 1300 quintals of fish) not the tenth part of New York, from the 25th of December, 98, to the 25 of December, 99."

[P. 794.]

"I send the copy of M<sup>r</sup> Armstrong's letter to me (N<sup>o</sup> 27.) which letter I have newly received. M<sup>r</sup> Armstrong is Naval Officer of New Hampshire. You will there find how M<sup>r</sup> Partridge the L<sup>t</sup> Governor proceeds in the trade of ship timber to Portugal, notwithstanding I sent him a copy of that paragraph in your Lordships letter of the 19th of last April, wherein your Lordships express your dissatisfaction at his being concerned in such trade, and direct me to put all the discouragement upon it that I can, without violation to law. He writ me word he was sorry he had given any offence to your Lordships; which, by what I now perceive he meant as a jeer, since he proceeds to carry on the same trade. I desire your Lordships will consider whether it will not be proper to recommend the passing an Act of Parliament this session to prohibit that trade in all the Plantations, the ill consequence whereof I have already offered your Lordships my thoughts of, and by all means I am humbly of opinion M<sup>r</sup> Partridge ought to be remov'd from that station, which is too honorable for him and he no way qualified for it. I could easily send the Frigat that's here, to Piscataway and stop his two ships, but then I shall be lyable to be sued by Partridge and the merchants in London that are his correspondents, since there's no statute to justify me.

"I desire your Lordships will please to direct me how I am to behave myself with Mr. Partridge; and it were worth while to dispatch away a small frigate or advice boat with your orders, that they may overtake Partridge's two ships before they sail. We shall never be able to turn a trade to England for ship timber so long as that trade of Mr. Partridge (and of others by his example) is suffer'd to Portugal, where to be sure ship timber must bear a much greater price than in England, because Portugal is not a wooded country. I remember I rebuk'd Sir Henry Ashurst in the Privy Garden at Whitehall for procuring Mr. Partridge to be made Lieut Governor of New Hampshire, who is a carpenter by trade and a sad weak man. I told him his genius had a strong byass to Carpenter-Governors, for he it was (with M<sup>r</sup> Mathew) that got Sir W<sup>m</sup> Phipps made Governour of New England."

The Earl of Bellomont to the Lords of Trade.

"They have got about 40 saw mills up in this Province, which I hear rids more work or destroys more timber than all the saw mills in New Hampshire. Four saws are the most in New Hampshire that work in one mill, and here is a Dutchman lately come over who is an extraordinary artist at those mills. M<sup>r</sup> Livingston told me this last summer he had made him a mill that went with 12 saws. A few such mills will quickly destroy all the woods in the Province at a reasonable distance from them.

"The trade of ship timber from New Hampshire and the Massachusetts, to Spain and Portugal, will go on more and more, till there be an Act of Parliament to forbid and make it penal. For, to use a person's expression that has lately writ to me from Boston about the mischeif of that trade, those people laugh at your Lordship's order against it, and so they would at an order from the King. They know very well that nothing but an English Act of Parliament can hinder them, and such an Act would easily be obtained to pass, I should think."

Govern<sup>r</sup> was pleased to move to the Council that a day of Thanksgiving be set apart for returning thanks and praise to Almighty God for many blessings and favors bestowed upon this Province ;—First, in preserving the sacred person of her Majesty Queen Anne, in maintaining so good a harmony between her and her Allies, and in granting so great success unto their forces both by sea and land : And also for soe good a settlement in this Government lately made by his Excellency JOSEPH DUDLEY Esq. our Governor, under the happy influence whereof we have a faire prospect of enjoying peace and quietness amongst us. And notwithstanding the war with France, to continue peace with the Indians. And in a peculiar manner, to preserve our Inhabitants in general from the contagious sicknesses which have been so fatal in the neighboring Provinces :—In bringing to maturity a plentiful Harvest of all sort of Graine; and above all for the enjoyment of the Gospel and Gospel ordinances.

Ordered, that Thursday the twelfth day of November next, be set apart for a Thanksgiving day as aforesaid, and that Mr. Nathl. Rogers, minister, Saml. Penhallow, Esq. and [P. 63.] Mr. Charles Story, Secretary, draw up Proclamations accordingly: and that one Proclamation be sent to each Minister of every town in said Province, in order to publish the same.

Upon the Governor's acquainting the Council with the danger of a sudden breach with the Indians, and the necessity of our being upon a defense:

It is ordered, that the Secretary write to the chief Military officers of every company in the Province, that with all Diligence and Exactness they keep out their scouts every day and their watches at night, and that they examine their scouts every evening and take care to give notice of any approach of an Enemy; and that they examine and see that powder and ball be sufficient in all companies, and to make report of the same to the Lieut. Governour with all possible speed.*

* On the 20th of June, 1703, Gov. Dudley, with a number of gentlemen from both Provinces, (New Hampshire and Massachusetts), held a Conference with the Indians, at Casco, Me. The latter assured him that "as high as Heaven was above the earth, so far distant was their design of making the least breach of the peace." But in the space of six weeks a body of French and Indians, five hundred in number, having divided themselves into several parties, attacked all the settlements from Casco to Wells, and killed and took one hundred and thirty people—burning and destroying all before them. Peter Coffin,

The hearing the suspension of Mr. George Jeffrey, by the Governor's appointment, came on.

The Secretary acquainted his Excellency at the Board that according to the command given him he had writt to Mr. George Jeffreys to attend his concerns at the Board, and delivered the same to the Sheriffe to be sent accordingly.

The Sheriff acquainted the Board that he delivered the said Letter to Mr. George Jeffrey's own hand.

The Lieut. Governour acquainted the Governor & Council that he had received sometime before the Governor's arrival, Letters from their Excellencies the Lords Justices of England, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July, 1699, commanding his strict care of the acts of Trade and Navigation, Encouragement of the Officers of the Customs, and Discouragement of all persons and methods to the contrary.

The letter from their Excellencies the Lords Justices was accordingly read.

Lieut. Govern<sup>r</sup> Partridge then desired that Mr. Sampson Sheafe, Deputy Collector of the Province, might be examined, who was accordingly called and sworne.

Mr. Sheafe gave oath that Mr. George Jeffreys discoursing with him about the seizure of some of the enumerated commodities imported contrary to the Acts of Trade, Mr. Jeffreys told him that the Acts of Trade were not in tended agast Coasters in the Plantations; and that he would defend that opinion, and particularly in the seizure of four baggs of Cotton Wool, imported into this Government contrary to the Act of Parliament. The said Jeffreys was present in Court, and privately whispered the Attorney, to direct him, which happened sometime before the Governor's arrival, and since at the Court of Admiralty accepted to be an Attorney in that Cause, to plead against the Crown, being otherwise a merchant, and not known to practise the Law.

[P. 78.] Mr. Secretary Story then informed the Governor and Council, that he was Employed in the pleading of the case of the Cotton Wool at the Inferiour Court on her Maj'tys behalf; and afterwards, in the Court of Admiralty, was present and saw Mr. Jeffreys appear as Attorney for the Claimer.

Richard Jose, Esq., High Sheriffe likewise informed the Governour and Council that he was present at the Court of Admiralty and heard Mr. Jeffreys plead as an Attorney in the case about the Cotton Wool on behalf of the claimer.

The Lieut. Governour then alledged that Mr. Jeffreys had been for twenty years in an illegal trade at several times, and brought in the Records of the Courts of the Province, that Judgment was given against him in the year 1682; and the Record was accordingly seen in the original Book and the Record contains forty-five pages, wherein there is a challenge also of a false oath given by the said Jeffreys too long to transcribe.

The Lieut. Governor also informed the Governor and Council, that the Secretary at several times for some years past has frequently informed himself, in Council, that Mr. Jeffreys has defamed him, and said he had ruled arbitrarily and ill managed the affairs, to the great Defamation and Hurt of the Government in his hands; upon all which he thought it not possible for him to proceed well with him in the manadgement of her Maj'tys affairs.

Mr. Hinkes of her Maj'tys Council then informed, That some time since about a year before the said suspension, Mr. Secretary Story reported in Council that Mr. Jeffrey has spoken very unbecomingly of the Lieut. Governor, as using arbitrary power. The Council being sensible of the inconvenience of such discourses of the Lieut. Governor, moved Mr. Hinkes and Capt. Gerrish one other member of the Council, to hear Mr. Jeffrey of that matter, which they did and Reported it to the Council, that Mr. Jeffreys denied it although the Secretary instantly insisted upon it; and now says that what he then informed was true.

[P. 79.] George Jeffrey, his ANSWER to the reasons of his suspension by William Partridge, Esq. from sitting in her Maj'tys Council of New Hampshire, exhibited before his Excellency Joseph Dudley, Esq. her Maj'tys Governour and Commander-in-Chief, of said Province, in Council, the 29 day of July, 1703.

In the first place, Mr. Partridge produces the information of Mr. Sheafe, Deputy Collector, who swears, (although not truce voce) that in discourse with me upon the seizure of some Enumerated Commodities, I should tell him that Acts of Trade were not intended against coasters in the Plantations, and names particularly, four baggs of Cotton wool which were seized by said Sheafe and brought to trial at a Court of Common Pleas, where was produced by the Claimers, a Certificate from the Collector and Controller of her Maj'tys Customs in Boston, that the wool in controversy was lawfully imported from Barbadoes, where the duty was paid therefor: At a Court of Appeale in February, 1701, the Jury found for the Claimer, and judgment entered accordingly as appears on Record.

In private discourse with Mr. Sheafe I said it was my opinion the Claimers ought to have their wool, because of said judgment, seeing the intention of the Acts of Trade was not eluded which is the substance of what I ever discoursed with him on that subject; and this was long before I was of her Maj'tys Council, therefore humbly conceive can be no just cause of my suspension by Lt. Governor Partridge; for with submission, suspension seems to imply mal-administration or misbehavior in the station suspended from, which is not so much as alledged; And if it were a crime in me as a private person, to give my opinion, as the Law have determined, it seems much more so in the Judges, John Hinks, Peter Coffin, John Plaisted, Esqrs. who are all of the Council, and did give judgment for the Claimer of the Cotton wool, yet not suspended for that crime.

I humbly conceive the information of officers ag<sup>t</sup> goods seized, makes it no crime in the Claimers or others in their behalf to give their opinion, defend or recover in a lawful way such goods, where dues to the Crown are paid, without being stigmatised with the Black Character of pleading against the Crown.

In the second place, as a Reason of my suspension, Mr. Partridge produces the information of Mr. Secretary Story, who says, he was employed in the Case of the Cotton Wool on her Maj'tys behalf at the Inferiour Court, and saw me afterwards in the Court of Admiralty, appear as Attorney for the Claimer:—

To the first part of Mr. Story's Information, it noways respects me that he was employed as Attorney, and cannot conceive why it was put in as a cause of my suspension, but must here take notice of his mistake in saying he pleaded on her Maj'tys behalf, for King William was then living and the processes in his name.

[P. 80.] To the second part of Mr. Story's Information, I answer, my appearing at the Court of Admiralty cannot be a reason of my suspension, for Mr. Partridge was pleased to suspend me in August, 1702; and the Court of Admiralty was held six months after; soe I was suspended for a pretended crime six months before committed. It is true I was occasionally at that Court of Admiralty, where the claimer of the Cotton Wool, being a woman, and having no Attorney did with some others importune me to say that the wool in controversy had been tried in the Court of Common Pleas, where the Claimer obtained judgment, and Writ of delivery or execution in their favor; therefore did humbly conceive the same ought not to be brought to the Court of Admiralty, because her Maj'tys Royal Commission and the Laws of this Province, allows pleas of the Crown as well as other Causes to be tried at Courts of Common Pleas, And the Prosecutor or Informer had liberty to choose where to bring his suit, which he did to the Common Pleas: where, being determined by verdict of Jury and judgment of Court in favor of the Claimer, was humbly of the opinion could not be again tried at the Court of Admiralty, which the Judge so far approved and allowed, that he did not see cause to proceed farther in said trial; and the Cotton Wool yet is detained in the custody of Mr. Partridge or Deputy Collector. I make no profession of the Law, nor ever received a fee or pleaded—otherwise than Amicus Curiae,—but if I had pleaded as Attorney there are precedents in New England of Councillors pleading at the Bar, yet never any before suspended for that Crime.

In the third place, Mr. Partridge alledges that I had been for twenty years in an illegal trade, and is said to have brought Records of Courts that judgment was given against me in the year 1682;—What papers he may have called Records I know not, but I solemnly affirm that I never before heard of any Judgment or Record of Court against me, nor can any such legally attested be found, for I never was under any such conviction. All that can he pretended was that Mr. Randolph, did about the year 1682, exhibit complaints against a Ketch, the master whereof was recommended to me for advice; and upon Trial, the said Ketch was cleared by the verdict of a Jury of twelve men freeholders, which offended Governor Cranfield; so that the same Jury to appease his displeasure, did sundry days after bring in another Verdict after said Vessel was gone; and I being called before Governor Cranfield, did affirme that I did not send said Vessel away, nor had any authority soe to doe; being not soe much concerned as to draw commissions as Factor, nor had any part of said Ketch nor loading; but if what is alleged were true, as it is not, Mr. Partridge was not then Lieut. Govern<sup>r</sup>, nor was I of the Council. I have since that time had the honor to serve the Crown in sundry places of trust, and never had any mal-administration alledged against me; but being assisting to Mr. Partridge when he went for England, at what time he obtained [P. 81.] from their Excellencies the Lords Justices, a Commission for being Lieut. Govern<sup>r</sup> in this Province, when Saml. Allen, Esq. was Governor, and is all the Commission he ever had for that Post.

In the last place, Mr. Partridge informs the Governor and Council that Secretary Story, several times some years past, informed him in Council that I had defamed him, and said he had ruled arbitrarily; upon which two of the Council were sent to discourse me, to whom I did give such ample satisfaction that I heard no more of it; although I prayed the Gentlemen I might be sent for before the Council, to clear myself of that Calumny, which I would do by sundry witnesses; but presume they thought it would not redound to Mr. Partridge's honor, to prosecute said complaint:—The truth of that matter was thus: Mr. Partridge, some others and myself were owners of a Ship named the Portsmouth, whereof Capt. Mark Hunkin was Commander and part owner, who wanted a Cable for said Ship, which Mr. Partridge proffered to supply with at a certain price; the Master told him he would buy a good and more sizeable Cable for less and knew not why the other owners should be imposed upon to give him more than he could buy for; but Mr. Partridge told him should take his and noe other, and at his price, and ordered the Sailors to carry it on board; which when I understood might say was arbitrary, and this being in matter of Meum and Tuum, which Mr. Story well knew; cannot conceive how it could affect Government.

Mr. Hinkes is pleased to inform that this matter happened about a year before my suspension; whereas it was about three years before my admission in Council. If there had been just matter of Complaint against me referring to Government, Mr. Partridge wanted neither power nor inclination to prosecute in due season.

I was by his Excellency Joseph Dudley, Esq. Governor, admitted and sworn in Council, in July, 1702, according to Instructions from her most excellent Majesty Queen Anne; notwithstanding Mr. Partridge's endeavors to divert or obstruct the same; who was pleased soon after his Excellency's removal to his other Government, the first sitting of Council to suspend me, refusing to give any reason, nor did I ever hear of any before this time, which is near a year after my suspension.

I could by many instances instruct the Cause is not what is pretended. I have traded as regularly as himself. We have differed in Accounts and submitted to the arbitrament of some of her Maj'tys Council and Merchants in Boston, whose award Mr. Partridge hath not complied with.

This is what at present conceive necessary in my own vindication to answer Mr. Partridge's reasons for suspending me—which is most humbly submitted to the proper Judges thereof.

Gentlemen—You are called, upon account of his Excellency's letter to be communicated to you, which having been done, you see the purport thereof is for the security of the Country as to the Enemy; that which is recommended to you, is for your opinion and advice whether best to visit the Indian enemy this winter season at their head Quarters. Upon your desire the Govern<sup>r</sup> with force and your [p. 100.] readiness to assist the same with expedition, shall be forwarded to him.

I will say it ever have been judged the best season in the winter to go to the Enemy's head Quarters, there to engage them, by which means they may be prevented from attacking the Frontiers, and they most annoyed; that formerly was soe judged, witness the Narragansett Attack and Sir Edmund Andros' curbing the Enemy.

Its known well the enemy cannot be pursued soe well in the Spring as in the Winter.

If the enemy be not visited now, judge they will soon visit these parts; and if not an army out they may soon be in our Bowels;—so desire your opinion and advice in whats recommended unto you.

It is the humble opinion of this Council that for her Majestys immediate service and for the security of her Majesty's subjects, that the forces abroad be continued, and that there be an addition ordered, and that this Board humbly desires his Excellency, Joseph Dudley, Esq. Governour, &c. would be pleased to order said forces with all expedition possible to march to the Indian enemy's head Quarters, being the only thing that in all probability under God, may secure our Frontiers and preserve the subjects. And that this Board at all times shall be ready and willing to give their assistance.

His Hon<sup>r</sup> made the following speech:—

Gentlemen—I was formerly above four years in the Province, taking care of the same; my expense all out of my own Estate; in the year 1696, I demanded of Council and Assembly sitting, if I had taken any wrong Methods, or there was any ill management of affairs relating to good of the Province in Government.

Answered, knew of none but for good of the place.

His Excellency, being at Boston, at my arrival which required my going thither, I speedily returned and entered on the Government. Since my coming have visited all the Frontiers, gave directions whats proper, and all at my own expense and charge, which is not small.

There has been an Assembly and before them laid the state of the Province, demanded money for necessary charges of the Province, they refused to raise any.

I have desired a House to be provided for me, that refused; look upon it strange, when I find there has been money issued out of her Majestys Revenue to your former Lieut. Governour some hundreds of pounds, and no account of disbursements by him for the same, neither any care taken for her Majestys Fort and security of frontier Garrisons.

I have been here about one quarter of a year, and noe provision made for me here. I acquaint you Gentlemen, I am going to Boston, shall there stay until either the Province doth make provision, or till hear from England.

Richard Waldron, the leading military man of the Province, and had the chief command in one or more of the expeditions against the Eastern Indians. "Hilton was formed by nature for a warrior. He was above the middling size, tall, muscular, active and well formed—among the most fearless of the brave, the most adventurous of the daring." Board humbly desires that his Hon<sup>r</sup> would take care to Redress the same.

Whereas there was an Act passed and enacted and entitled, An Act to prevent contention and controversy that may arise concerning the Bounds of the respective Towns within this Province, which Act was repealed and made null and Void by her most gracious Majesty Queen Anne, in Council the eleventh day of November, 1703, at the Court at St. James; and whereas several inhabitants of this Province by virtue of said Act, have been settled to and belong to the said several towns according to the Bounds mentioned in said Act:—It is therefore Ordered, that for the future all Inhabitants settled by said Act according to the Bounds therein mentioned, shall belong to the several towns of this Province, and pay Rates and doe duty to such several towns as they formerly did doe duty and pay Rates to, before the said Act was ever made or enacted; as they will answer the contrary: And that the Secretary make this order of Council publick to all the said several Towns, &c.

His Hon<sup>r</sup> was pleased to acquainte this Board, That he had received his Excellency's Commands to come hither to dispatch an Expedition intended by his Excellency Joseph Dudley, Esq., Governour and Commander-in-Chief of said

Province, &c., for a Company of Volunteers to march from hence to Neridgawack, agast the Indian enemy; together with two or three hundred of the forces belonging to the Massachusetts Government,—it importing his Excellency to the last degree to know where the enemy are, and that he had ordered Lt. Colonel Hilton,* to be here next Wednesday, and that his Hon<sup>r</sup> had alsoe issued forth Warrants for the impressing of a Company out of this Province, in

"BOSTON, 8 Jan., 1704-5.

Sr—

I am not willing to pass the winter without a march to the Indian Head Quarters. I have 200 men with you already. I will take care for one hundred more from hence, and I would have you raise me one Company of volunteers of sixty, and see if we cannot get Norigwalk. Confer with Major Walton about it, and put forward, and see after your snow-shoes according to law; and I will see you a fortnight hence, God please. Write me on this head.

I am, sir, your

Affectionate Kinsman

J. DUDLEY.

Lt. Col. Hilton."

"The Colonel accordingly marched with 270 men to Norridgewock, a distance of nearly two hundred miles, upon snow-shoes. The season was considered favorable for their march, as the snow was four feet deep. The Indians forsook their settlement upon Hilton's approach; and having burnt the chapel which the French had erected, and the wigwams which the Indians had deserted, he returned without meeting the enemy. In this expedition the officers not only shared the hardships of their men, but received no more pay than the privates. In the Spring, Col. Hilton commanded a party to scour the woods to the heads of the Winepisiogee and Pemigewasset, and was not only this summer but most of the time, when not engaged in more important and distant expeditions, employed in ranging the frontier settlements from Massachusetts to Maine." * * * * Hilton was occasionally under the necessity of discontinuing his scout, or diminishing the number of his men, in consequence of the failure of the towns to comply with the requirements of the Law. This gave offence to the Governor, who had a very high sense of the duty of obedience in those under his authority, and he addressed the Colonel, in this style:

"BOSTON, 24th Sept, 1705.

SIR:—I am surprised that any body should divert you from my last order about a scout of twenty men. Upon your representation, I could have abated the number, or time or distance of marching; but I must have no body else to do it.

I pray you to draw your men yourself, if your officers do not do it to satisfaction, as in your power, wherein Major Worell will assist you, and let me hear from you as often as you may.

Keep close to my orders, and they will keep you.

I am, Sir, your humble servant,

case there should not be a Company of Volunteers ; and that he had alsoe directed the Treasurer by warrant, to provide provisions and other necessaries fitting for said Company to March from hence ; and that he thinks it highly reasonable said Company shall have the same pay paid them by this Province, as the Massachusetts Bay may be to those that march against the enemy from that Government.

Whereas there was an Act passed last year that all the towns within this Province, should raise a Town Stock of provisions for all such Volunteers or Imprest men, that should march that year against the Enemy, and in case such provisions were not made use of, the same to be returned to the selectmen for the use of the Town ; and this Board having information that there are some [p. 136.] small quantities of said provisions not yet made use of as aforesaid ;

Ordered, that what soldiers or Volunteers shall now march against the Enemy to Noridgewock out of the several Towns of this Province ; that if said Towns will furnish such souldjers or Volunteers with such provisions as aforesaid, the value thereof shall be allowed the said Towns in their next Province Rate in proportion.

Ordered, that Colonel Hilton bring the Indians under the establishment of this Province to Portsmouth, on Wednesday next, in order to march under his command to Norridgawack.

Ordered that all souldjers or Volunteers that march upon the aforesaid expedition, that are provided with Blanketts at the Province charge, the value or price of said Blanketts, shall be deducted out of said soldiers or Volunteers wages or pay.

At a Council held at Portsmouth on Wednesday,

Present.

Peter Coffin,	} Esqs.	George Jaffrey,	} Esqs.
Robert Elliott,		Saml. Penhallow,
Nathl. Weare,		John Plaisted,
Jno. Gerrish,		Henry Dow,

His Excellencys Letter dated Boston the 20th Aug<sup>t</sup>, 1705, signifying to the Council that he advises and directs that they forthwith fortify Mr. Packer's house at the Bank, either with Square Timber and two regular Flankers, or with Stone and brick, and that the Line of the town be Reformed, and the Watches duly kept, &c.

Captain Pickerin being sent for to this Board, to give an account how far he had proceeded with the Committee of Militia about fortifying Col. Packer's house as a Garrison, &c.,

Answered that the Committee of Militia of the Town of Portsm<sup>o</sup>, had ordered Col. Packer's house to be fortified as a Garrison House for defense of the Subjects against the French and Indian Enemy, and that they had nominated several persons to be appointed to belong to the same ; but some few days after such appointments, many of the Inhabitants nominated to belong to said Garrison, as aforesaid, petitioned the Committee of Militia that they did not think it so convenient for them to belong to Mr. Packer's House as a Garrison, being of great distance from the body of their houses ; but if the Committee of the Militia would be pleased to appoint Mr. Edward Toogoods, and Mr. Mark Ayres houses as Garrisons, they would be at the charge voluntarily in fortifying the same.

Capt. Pickerin being also asked how far he had proceeded in Reforming the Line of the town :—

Answered, that most part of it was well Reformed, and that he would with all expedition finish the remainder.

It is the opinion of this Board, that whereas the Law impowers the Committee of Militia to settle Garrisons in each [P. 149.] town of this Province, and the Committee of the Town of Portsm<sup>o</sup>, having proceeded as aforementioned, the further consideration hereof is left to the next sitting of the Council.

Lt. Colonel Hilton appearing at this Board, acquainted them that he has orders for twenty men to Scout their turns every tenn days in the Woods ; and seldom one half of them which have yet scouted, fitting for service ; which if they were reduced to tenn able persons fitt to travel in the Woods, would be of more service than twenty unfitt persons.

Ordered, that for the future, tenn able persons only be appointed as Scouts to range the woods till further order, being exchanged every tenn days and to be taken out of the several towns, and the Secretary is hereby required to give Colonel Hilton a copy of this Order of Council.

His Excellencys letter dated Boston, 14th September, 1705, signifying that he had in remembrance what was formerly offered to this Board and the Assembly, referring to a House for the reception and residence of the Lieut. Governour, and the Orders thereupon ; and that he was sorry they have been noe more effectual, and that he had directed the Lieut. Governours presence into the Province at this time, upon the command of her Majesty, which could not be performed, but by his Excellency or the Hon<sup>ble</sup> the Lieut. Gov<sup>r</sup>, and it was read at this Board.

Ordered, that the consideration of his Excellency's said Letter be referred till the meeting of the next Sessions of the General Assembly.

Her Majestys Letter dated at the Court at Saint James the 3rd day of May, 1705, relating to a new Seal prepared for the use of this her Majestys Government of New Hampshire, which Seale was engraven with her Majestys Arms, Garter, Supporter, Motto and Crown, with this inscription round the same, SIG: PROVINCIAE NOSTRAE NOVAE HAMPTONIAE IN AMERICA. and that the said Seal be affixed to all Patents and Grants of Land and to all other Acts, and other publick uses for our said Province: And that the former Seale be no more or further used or affixed to any publick Acts or Instruments whatsoever but to be defaced and broken &c. was read at this Board.

His Honour, the Lieut. Governour, produced the New Seale to this Board and demanded the old Seale of the Secretary, which was by him shewn to the Honourable the Lieut. Governour and Council; whereupon they immediately ordered the same to be broken & defaced, which was accordingly done by the Secretary in the publick view of the Honourable the Lieut. Governour, and her Majestys Council now present.

[P. 151.] Ordered, that the Treasurer buy for the use of the Fort, three load of wood and three gallons of oyle for the present supply of the souldjers there with fire and lights, and that the same be sent thither with all expedition.

Ordered, that the Honourable Lieut. Govern<sup>r</sup> be paid out of the Treasury six pounds for two Journeys into this Province since the 26th March last past, for her Majestys especial service.

His Excellency's Letter about fortifying of Mr. Packer's house was again read at this Board.

Ordered, that Mr. Packer's house be forthwith fortified according to the Orders of the Committee of Militia of the 6th of August 1705, and that all the Inhabitants thereto appointed by the said Orders of the Committee, be at the charge of fortifying the same, and also give their attendance at the said Garrison according as the Law directs, from time to time, as they will answer the contrary at their perils.

Samuel Penhallow, Esq. his Debenter am<sup>o</sup> to sixty-seven pounds, eight shillings and four pence, for provisions for supply of souldjers at the Frontiers, was read at this Board, and ordered to be paid out of the Standing Tax.

His Honour the Lieut. Governour asked the Gentlemen of the Council, if they had anything further to offer for her Majesty's service, he intending to depart out of this Province sometime this week.

Answered, Noe.

His Honour further acquainted this Board that as his Excellency had desired them to take care to provide a House for the reception of him, the Lt. Governour, and there being no care taken therein, neither anything allowed for his support in Government, yet he was and always would be ready to do anything that was for her Majestys service and the good of the Province, and in case they would take care for the support of his Honour he would be constantly in the Province.

Letter from Gov. Dudley to the Council.

[MS. Correspondence, Vol. I. p. 7.]

Boston, 24 September, 1705.

GENTLEMEN: The Lieutenant Governor is returned from his visit of you, & I am glad the province is in so good order; but truly I was surprised at an order I saw refering to the ward & scout at Sandy Beach, and a dismission of the soldeirs on that side from their duty at the fort, expressly contrary to my orders heretofore given: I must desire, Gentlemen, that you will know your duty & give me the just support of her Majesty's Authority, & not run in upon the government.

If at any time there do's want, in your opinion, any thing for the security of the Province, I shall be glad to have it just stated either by a meeting of the Council, or by Mr. Secretary or any one of the gentlemen, whose letters are always acceptable to me; but while I am within ten hours of you, I will have nothing of such a nature, as the direction and stating of watches done without my being with you, or the Lieutenant Governor, especially when it shall infringe my former order. I do therefore desire, that you will let me know what you would have done, & that, in the mean time you give notice to the officer you then appointed to govern the matter at Sandy Beach, that he must expect orders from me before he comands any the Queen's subjects, & that the Sandy beach soldiers do return to their duty at the fort and dependence there, as I have ordered under my hand. I shall always do my duty to the people of the Province of New Hampshire, & have always had their respect and obedience, and your assistance therein, of which I doubt not but I shall have the continuance of.

I am, Gentlemen

your very humble servt.

**Letter from Gov. Dudley to Col. Hilton.*

[Farm. and Moore's Hist. Coll. Vol. I. p. 268.]

“BOSTON, December 9th, 1706.

DEAR SIR—

I have determined to visit Noridgwock the 10th of January next, and accordingly am raising in this Province two hundred men to be commanded by Col. Martch, if his health will permit, whom alone I have acquainted besides yourself of my intention—therefore desire it to be secret—and must expect forty men of your Province, which I would have volunteers, otherwise they must be drawn men to be commanded by some very good officer; and if Col. Martch fail me, I must expect your service to command the whole party.

The men must be well fixed, cloathed and shod with snow shoes in good order. Communicate this order to the Gentlemen of her Majesty's Council as soon as may be. Attend them yourself to concert the matter, that they may provide victuals and blankets if need be. Our last departure will be from Casco Bay. Deare the Gentlemen of the Council to keep it secret, lest the noise of it get in the woods.

I am yr affectionate uncle

J. DUDLEY.

To the Hon. Lt. Col. Hilton.”

NOTE. The Letter of the 16th is not found. But on the 19th of December the Governor wrote to Col. Hilton, that Col. March would not probably be able to take the command, and offered it to him. On the 15th of January, 1707, Col Hilton received a Commission from Gov. Dudley as “Chief Commander of the new rayssel forces, within “the Provinces of the Massachusetts Bay and New Hampshire, for her Ma'ty's service, in an expedition to Noridgwock & other Eastern parts against the French and “Indian enemy and Rebels; and Captain of the Company raised for that service in “the Province of New Hampshire.”

“This expedition was short, but considerably successful. On the 20th of January, they surpris'd four Indians, whom they killed, and one squaw whom they took. From her, they endeavored to obtain information relative to the Indians haunts in the neighborhood, and at last succeeded; but not till she had obtained from the Colonel a solemn promise that he would take her home with him, and never deliver her up to the Indians, but protect her against them. She then led them to a neck of land, where they found eighteen Indians asleep; seventeen of whom were killed, and the other was taken prisoner. This happened at break of day on the 21st of January, and in the morning of the same day, the story of the exploit was told at Portsmouth, a distance of sixty miles from the scene of action! The poor squaw, who, to save her own life, thus sacrificed the lives of her countrymen, found the ‘white chief’ true to his promise; and she lived in his family till her death.”

The Gentlemen of the Council having discoursed the said Lieut. Colonel Hilton about what might be wanting towards furnishing the said volunteers, he acquainted this Board that as to Snow-shoes and Mogasheens, there were enough ; and by the advice of this Board, the said Lieut. His Excellency's Letter of the 15th instant was communicated to this Board, advising that the Fleet and Land forces are drawn off in a disorderly way from Nova Scotia, without his orders, very dishonorable to her Majesty, and with neglect of the service ; therefore desired and ordered that if any of the vessels of that Fleet arrive in this Harbor or any place adjacent, that the vessel or vessels be caused to anchor there, and make known to the officers and souldjers that none of them presume to come on shore or

“Casco Fort, July 16th, 1707.

MY DEAR SPOUSE,

I can't but take all opportunities to salute you. I do earnestly embrace this as y<sup>e</sup> last before our departure.

Notwithstanding a thousand difficultys in our way, it's ordered that y<sup>e</sup> fleet prepare to take y<sup>e</sup> signal for weighing anchor to-morrow. The soldiers are utterly averse and will at best be but passive in returning to Port Royal, just as prisoners are transported; nevertheless, if Providence cast advantages into our hands there, they will eagerly embrace them, and if we obtain victory, God will now have a much greater share in our songs of triumph, than if we had been successful at first.

Dear Heart, pray hard for us, and cheerfully commit to y<sup>e</sup> Almighty's protection.

Your loving, loving husband.

WINTHROP HILTON.†

* In the Spring of 1707, the three Provinces of Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Rhode Island raised two regiments, of about 500 men each, for the conquest of Port Royal. Col. Wainwright commanded one regiment, and Col. Hilton the other. Col. March was injudiciously appointed to command the whole. The expedition was an important one. The army arrived before Port Royal about the last of May. They had some little skirmishing with the enemy. But jealousy and dissension arose among the officers, which defeated the enterprise; and early in June, the army broke up in a disorderly manner and left the place. Hilton, with as many officers and men as did not choose to run away, retired to Casco Bay, and there waited further orders. The Governor was much displeased with the conduct of March and Wainwright; but Hilton had the good fortune to secure his approbation, and received from him the following complimentary and characteristic letter:

“Boston, 20 July, 1707.

My dear Kinsman—

I always had a just value for you as my good kinsman; but much more for your steady service for and love to your country. I have not neglected writing to you as being displeased, for I am not so—you being the only officer against whom I have no complaint. But truly, Sir, I was never so surprized by what the enemy can do against me, as I am at this intolerable ungoverned temper and base cowardice of my people. I pray you to be steady to Colonel Hutchinson and the gentlemen in command, to assist Colonel March. You have a brave Virginia prize in Port Royal harbour, and by and by will have the store-ship. And if you will be content to stay twenty days at Port Royal, they will desert and come over to you. However, let the Governor be obeyed and all will be well.

I am your affectionate Kinsman

J. DUDLEY.

To the Hon. Col. Hilton, Eastward.”

Inasmuch as it is the Sovereign pleasure of the Righteous God, still to lengthen out the troubles of Europe, by the continuance of the war with the Common enemy of the repose of the Christian Nations; as also our own and our neighbors troubles in these her Majesty's Provinces and Colonies, with the French and Indian enemies and rebels; withal considering the importance of the Expedition which her Majesty's subjects here are now engaged in against the said Enemy and rebels; and the just reasons we have to implore the Divine Favor for the remission of our Sins, whereby we have justly provoked the Holy God and for his blessing upon that undertaking:—

I have thought fitt, by and with the advice of her Majesty's Council to appointe and order that Thursday, the [P. 198.] twenty fourth day of July current, be solemnized as a day of Public fasting and Prayer throughout those Provinces; Exhorting both Ministers and people in their several Assemblies religiously to attend the solemn services of the said day; that by a sincere and hearty confession of our sins, and humble reliance on the Divine Mercy, we may obtain from God, that our Sovereign Lady the Queen, with the Nations and Territories under her happy Government may always be under the protection of Heaven; her Majesty's life and Government long continued; her Council and Just Arms prospered; the designs of the Barbarous Salvages against us defeated; our exposed Plantations preserved, and the poor Christian Captives in their hands returned; and her Majesty's forces on the present Expedition may be under Heavens Conduct, and have good success; that the Government of these Provinces may have the Divine direction in all their Administrations; that health may be continued and the present year crowned with the fruits of Divine bounty, and that deliverance may speedily arise to the church of God, oppressed with the Tyranny of Anti-Christ, and every kind of peace and prosperity may be given and secured to us and our posterity, upon the firm and lasting foundations of the Divine blessing and favor: And all servile labor upon the said day is inhibited.

Trial before the Superior Court of Judicature, of the Province of New Hampshire.

ALLEN vs. WALDRON.

August 12th 1707.

[In the History of New Hampshire (Farm. Belk. pp. 158-166), Dr. Belknap has given a succinct account of the great trial of Title to lands in the Province of New Hampshire, which was commenced in the Action, MASON vs. WALDRON, 1683; renewed from time to time, and finally terminated before the Superior Court, ALLEN vs. WALDRON, in August, 1707. All the papers, with the course of proceedings in the Courts, were placed on file in the Clerk's office at Exeter, where they have been carefully preserved. Through the courtesy of Charles G. Connor, Esq., Clerk of the present Supreme Judicial Court for the First District, the Editor has been permitted to take copies of the afore-said papers. They are deemed of so much importance in the history of the State as to justify and require publication in full.

In transcribing these papers, the Editor has followed the order in which they are filed, endorsed and numbered, in the following "Memoranda." The copy of each paper is meant to be exact. Some of the Nos., as will be seen, are referred to as already in print, and accessible. The "Bond for Appeale," No. 44, does not appear on file. If entered into as required by the Court, "in the sum of two hundred pounds," the prosecution was not carried out: for, as Dr. Belknap says, "The loyalty of the people, and the distresses under which they labored by reason of the War, prevailed on the Queen's ministry to suspend a final decision; and before the Appeal could be heard, Allen's death, which happened in 1715, put an end to the suit, which his heirs, being minors, did not renew."

It will be observed that during the twenty-four years, 1683 to 1707, in which this action was in Court, the parties were entirely changed. Robert Mason, who commenced the action against Col. Richard Waldron, sen., of Dover, died in 1688. Waldron was killed by the Indians in June, 1689. The heirs of Robert, viz., John and Robert Tufton Mason, sold their right and interest to Samuel Allen, afterwards Governor of New Hampshire, in 1691. Allen renewed the suit against Richard Waldron, Esq., son of Col. Richard, deceased, but died suddenly in 1705. Then Thomas, of London, son of Samuel, took up the suit, and through his mother, Mrs. Elisabeth Allen of Hampton, as Attorney, carried it on till the decision was made, in 1707.—ED.]

No. III. Mr. Allen's Reasons for Appele.

Newhampshire } ss.

2. Because the Appell<sup>t</sup> at the Tryall, by good sufficient Records, Royal grants, Deeds, Evidences and Conveyances in the Law, showed forth and proved an undoubted Right and title to y<sup>e</sup> Province of Newhampshire, of which the Lands in Question are part, and his being Lawfully possessed therein, with his Improvements thereupon, by building of sundry houses & forts thereon, &c. and planting of great guns in said forts; and is now ready to make out the same unquestionably to this honor<sup>ble</sup> Court; for, that y<sup>e</sup> Defend<sup>t</sup> title supported only by pretence of Possession can never in Law amount to, or invest him with any Right to the premises;

3. Especially when the Appell<sup>t</sup> & his Ancestors & those from whom he derives, have constantly been in the Lawfull possession at<sup>d</sup> Province (whereof the premises demanded are a part) either by themselves, their Agents, Tennents, or servants: And the possession was always accompanied with a Legal Right and Title to the same, evinced by authentick Records, Deeds, &c. well executed in the Law; and the Appellees pretended possession hath been always Interrupted by the Appell<sup>t</sup> & those from whom he derives his Right, by continuall claim made for the same, & more especially by a Judgm<sup>t</sup> obtained by Capt. Robert Mason, dec'd, Proprietor of s<sup>d</sup> Province against Richard Waldron, Esq, dec'd, father to the Appellee, whereby he Recovered the possession of the same lands now demanded, in the year 1683, as by the writt, Judgm<sup>t</sup> & Execution on file in the caus (to which the Appell<sup>t</sup> Refers) does plainly appeare.

5th* For that the Jurrors ought to have found a speciall verdict in the caus, which was very much pressed and argued for by the Pl<sup>t</sup> Councill before the Jury went from the Barr, and insisted on, not only from the Law cours and practice in England in like Cases, but was alsoe enforced from her most Gracious Maj<sup>ty</sup> order in Council, giving directions for that purpose.

6. The verdict being positive, the Appel<sup>t</sup> has great Reason to Appeall unto, and pray this Honor<sup>ble</sup> Court, That they would charge and direct y<sup>e</sup> Jury to Reverse the former Judgm<sup>t</sup> and find y<sup>e</sup> matters specially upon their appeal, that so the matters of Law arising there from may be debated & determined & Judgment entred up thereupon according to Law.

All which matters and things, wth what may be further offered in Court, being duly Considered by the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Court & Gent. of the Jury, the Appell<sup>t</sup> doubts not, but he shall obtain a Reversion of the former Judgment & have Judgment for him, for the possession of the Lands demanded, and costs.

No. IV.

Answer to Reasons of Appeal.

Province of New Hampshire.

To the Hon<sup>ble</sup> her Majesties' Justices of the Superior Court of Judicature, to be holden at Portsmouth, within and for the said Province of New Hampshire, the second Tuesday in August, 1707.

The Answers of Richard Waldron, Esq. Appellee, to the Reasons of Appeale of Thomas Allen, Esq. Appellant.

1. To the first Reason of Appeale the Defend<sup>t</sup> Answers, That the Verdict and Judgment of the Inferior Court were, as they ought to be; for that it was impossible that the plaintiffe either in Law or equity could Receive Judgm<sup>t</sup> for the Lands in controversie.

2. To the second Reason of Appeale, the Defend<sup>t</sup> Answers as follows:

Imprimis—as to the Deed or Grant from the Council of Plymouth to John Mason, Esq. in 1629, dec'd. from or under which the Appellant pretends to derive his Title to the Lands in controversie, it never was signed by the President nor any of the Law Council of Plymouth; nor indeed so much as by any Secretary or Clerk of the said Council, as all other their Grants of the like nature were. Secondly, There never was any Commission of Survey or Livery or Seizin made of the said Lands, which were alsoe usual with the said Council of Plymouth in and upon all their Grants of Land, and is alsoe of absolute necessitye in the Law, to make a Title to lands conveyed in that nature. And, Thirdly, the pretended Deed or Grant aforesaid never was Inrolled, as the Statute of England in such cases directs, and makes necessary. But, fourthly, that which Renders the pretended Grant to John Mason, Esq. the yeare 1629, very suspitious, and indeed of noe worth and value in the Law, is, that a great part of the lands mentioned to be conveyed in the said Grant to the said Mason, were granted but the yeare before in 1628, by the said Council of Plymouth, to the Governor and Company of the Massachusetts, by a very firme and good Grant, well and truly signed and executed according to Law and the form and method of the Grants of the said Council of Plymouth. And then, afterwards, viz. in the yeare 1635, the said Mason procures, as he pretends, a second Deed or Grant from the Council of Plymouth, of the Province of New Hampshire, and all the Lands therein contained;—a demonstration that the said Mr. Mason himselfe thought he had noe Grant in the yeare 1629, that he could rely upon. And it is alsoe a thing in itselfe not to be supposed or believed that the Council of Plymouth should be soe Imposed on as to grant Mr. Mason in 1629, what they had before granted to the Massachusetts in 1628, or yet, a second time, to wit, in 1635, grant that to Mr. Mason, which they had before well granted in 1629, as the Appellant pretends: soe that in truth there never was nor could be any such Grant from the Council of Plymouth as that in 1629, but that the same is a pretended Grant, and noe more.

Secondly, as to the possession of the said John Mason, soe much pretended to and relyed upon by the Appellant, the Defendant answers as follows:

Imprimis—The said John Mason himselfe never was in this country, but dyed in England, in the yeare 1635. Secondly, whatever possession or Improvements the said Mason's Agents or successors might have or had in these parts of New England, it really was noe other than the settlement of a Factory and Trade with the Natives; And principally, for a Discovery of a place they called Laconia; and that alsoe in company with several other Merchant Adventurers in England, who for the support and security of their factors and Servants, and Especially from the Salvages, did Erect a Garrison or Fort as they call it, but never Amounted to a possession in Law, soe as any ways to make or confirme a Title to the Land of this Province; And therfor after a few years stay in these parts, they absolutely quitted their factories and little settlements, as finding the Trade of the Country would not answer their Expectations: And yet this is the mighty possession the Appellant Relyes upon.

3. To the third reason of Appeal the defendant answereth as followeth: First, That his father Richard Waldron, Esq. dec'd, was actually seized and possessed of the lands in controversie above three score years agoe, in his own demesne as of fee, and soe continued seized and possessed thereof unto the time of his death; after whose decease the lands in controversie descended to the Appellee himselfe, as his sonn and heire, who accordingly ever since the death of his father, hath constantly Injoyed and lived upon the same as his owne Right; and Possession, such a one as the Def<sup>t</sup> is, is noe such Right or Title-matter as Appell<sup>t</sup> would pretend: for that first possession of itselfe in many cases makes a Title: And never with more Reason than in this case of the Def<sup>t</sup>, forasmuch as his said father when he first obtained the possession of the Land in controversie, found it not only Vaccum Domicilium, but alsoe an howling Wildernesse, scituated among the Barbarous Salvages with whome, tho' he endeavoured to maintain a friendly correspondence, yett was forced in several successive Warrs to defend himselfe and his possession with a very great expence of a Great deale of mony, and at length his life itselfe. Secondly, The said Def<sup>s</sup> possession was grounded on a very good Deed well executed in the Law, from the Indian Sachems & natives proprietors of these parts of America, bearing date the 17th May 1629 (1), and quiett and peaceable possession delivered thereof by the said Sachems; And that in the Presence of the Governor & factors for the Company of Laconia, of which Mr. Mason was one, soe that Mr. Mason's agents or factors never looked on themselves to possess or live in this country as the propriety of Mr. Mason; but only as factors to manage a Trade as before sett forth.

Thirdly—And all this was transacted and done with the tolleration at least of the Council of Plymouth: And most certainly pursuant to the great end and designe of the Grant to the said Council, which was to Christianize the Heathen and to people and improve these parts of America for the honour, advantage and interests of the Crown and Trade of England. All which ends have been pursued and actually attained by the Appellee and his Ancestors, who therfor justly possess the same. And tho' the Defendant doth not pretend to any express Grant from the Council of Plymouth, yett that noe way affects the Appellant; nor can the Defendants want of such a Grant mend the Title of the Appellant, who must recover by force and virtue of his own Title.

Fourthly,—As to the Grant of the Council of Plymouth to the said John Mason in 1635, the Defendant answers as follows: First, That the Grant in 1635, had nothing but a Seale affixed to it, never inrolled, nor livery or seizin attending it, and in all things defective as the Grant before mentioned: viz. the Grant in 1629: but then secondly, the Defendant insists upon it, that the Appellant must relinquish one or the other of those Grants, and not rely on them both; it being contrary to the reason and usage of the Law to rely on two several Titles.

As to the writt of Judgment and Execution pretended by the Appellant against the defendants father,—the def<sup>t</sup> answers:

1st. That the writt was for the possession of certaine lands and tenements in Cochecho, Dover, and other places in the said Province, without mentioning or ascertaining the quantity, place or Bound of the said Lands; than which nothing would be more necessary, & without which no Jury could ever legally finde a verdict, or Court give a Judgment. Secondly as to the Judgment, the copy made use of doth not come attested from any Book of Records; for indeed, there is noe such book to be found. Thirdly, as to the Execution, there never was any levied, nor was the said Richard Waldron ever interrupted in or amoved from his possession of the lands in controversie, by virtue of the said Judgment or Execution.

To the Fourth reason of Appeale the Defendant answers,—That true it is, that a special Verdict may be found by a Jury as the case may be; And alsoe that the Court cannot refuse a special Verdict if it be pertinent to the matter in issue, and containe the certainty and verity thereof; but then on the other hand, noe Jury is oblidge to give a special Verdict, or finde the matter at large, if they have noe doubt of the Law or fact in the case before them, for that the grounds and Reason of a special verdict are, when a Jury is under some doubt or difficultye of the evidence of the fact or the Law arising from the fact in the case before them; nor can a Jury ever be compelled, by any Court whatsoever, to finde a special verdict, when all matters are full and clear to their satisfaction.

As to the fifth Reason of Appeale, the Defendant hath no answer to make, for that it wholly concerns the Judges of this Honorable Court, who noe doubt will take care, in this as in all other cases, to do what to Law and Justice appertains. Besides which answers to the Appellants Reasons of Appeale, the Defendant humbly offers to the consideration of this Honorable Court and Jury:

1st. That by the Statute of the 21st of James 1st, Chap: 16th, noe Action of Ejectment can be maintained, except the Plaintiffe in such Action or those under whom he claims, have been in possession of such Lands some time within twenty years of the bringing of such action: And if they have been out of possession sixty years, as the case now is, then by the statute of the 32<sup>d</sup> of Hen: 8th Chap. 2<sup>d</sup>, not only an Ejectment but a writt of Wright and all other Real Actions are Barred in respect of a subject; and alsoe in such cases, the Title of the Crown is Barred, by the statute of the 21st of James, 2d. And 2<sup>d</sup> by the statute of the 32<sup>d</sup>. Hen: 8th, Chap. 9th against buying of Titles, &c; It is enacted that noe person whatsoever presume to purchase any Mannors, Lands, Tenements, &c. of any person whatsoever except such persons soe selling or their ancestors, or they by whome he or they claime, have been in possession of the same or the Reversion or Remainder thereof, or takes the Rents or profits thereof by the space of one whole year next before such Bargain or Grant made. Now it is most certaine and undeniable that the Defendant and his Ancestors, and noe other persons whatsoever, have been in the Improvement or possession of the Land in controversie: And it was never soe much as pretended by the Appellant himselfe, that Robert Tufton Mason, deceased, was in any way in possession of the Land in controversie within one yeare or indeed any time before the time that the Appellant's father pretends to have purchased of the said Robert Mason; and all the mischeifs and inconveniences, provided against by the Statute of the 32<sup>d</sup> of Hen: 8th, by means of the Appellant's father purchasing the pretended and bare Title of the said Robert Mason, have been too true by sad Experience in this Province: viz. the great inquietness, oppression, vexation, wrongs and disinheritance of her Majesties loving subjects,—the great displeasure of Almighty God, the discontentation of her Majestie and the great hinderance and lett of Justice within this province.

All which matters and things being duely considered by this Hon<sup>ble</sup> Court and the gentlemen of the Jury, the Appellee doubts not but that he shall obtaine a confirmation of the former Judgment and costs of Court.

“Therefore I am humbly of opinion, that the said Samuel Allen (assignee of the said John Tufton Mason and Robert Mason) hath by virtue of the said grant a good Title to the Wast Lands in the s<sup>d</sup> Province of New-Hampshire; and that all lands lying uninclosed and unoccupied, are to be reputed Wast Lands, and that the said Mr. Allen may enter into and take possession of the same; and that if he be disturbed in the possession thereof, it would be proper for him, (her Maj<sup>ty</sup> having courts of Justice within the said Province) to assert his Right, and punish the trespassers by legall proceeding in those Courts; and that it will not be proper for her Maj<sup>ty</sup> to interpose in this matter, unless the question concerning the right comes before her Maj<sup>ty</sup> by Appeal from the s<sup>d</sup> Judgm<sup>t</sup> that shall be given in the Courts in the said Province—save that it may be reasonable I conceive, to direct, that if Mr. Allen insists on it, on the tryalls that may be had for his settling his rights to the said Province, that the matter of facts relating to his and the titles of others claiming the same lands, may be specially found by the Jurys that shall be impannelled in the s<sup>d</sup> tryalls; that the matters of fact may appear before her Maj<sup>ty</sup>, if appeale shall be made from the Judgm<sup>t</sup> that shall be given in said Province.

In Council, present with the Council the Judges of the several Courts:—

Mr. Robert Armstrong was this day examined in Council upon a letter printed in the Observater Vol. 6, No. 35, from Saturday the 28th June to July 26, wherein is printed a letter signed Robert Armstrong, which being given him to peruse he was inquired of by John Plaisted, Esq. one of the Judges of her Majestys Superiour Court and a member of the Council, whether he wrote that letter: he answered very freely and concernedly, that neither directly or indirectly, he ever wrote any such letter; and knew not at all who should presume to set his name thereto: but that it was easy for half a crown to get a letter into the Observater.

He was further inquired of whether the Articles of that letter or any of them were true about the obstruction of Justice, the selling of places, the uneasiness of the Country, and the desire of a change of their Governour: he answered they were all false to his knowledge; the people easy, and the Governour acceptable in all things to his certain observation; and with passion, complained that he was abused by those that made that letter publique.

The Governour acquainted the Council that Lieutenant Governor Usher had informed him, that at his last being here he was hashly treated at the Board; and that Major Vaughan should tell him there was no occasion for his coming into the Province at that time.

The Gentlemen of the Council represented the mistake in that information, and that Major Vaughan only objected against the payment of the said Lieutenant Governour's travelling charge out of the Treasury, because the Lieutenant Governour came into the Province to take care of a Law-suit wherein he was concerned, and intended noe otherways to reflect upon the Lieutenant Governour — which is all they observed in that matter.

His Excellencys letter of the 12th instant relating to the Forces and the Line in Portsmouth being asked for by the Lt. Governour, was read at this Board.

The Gentlemen of the Council acquainted the Lieut. The Gentlemen of the Council considering the season of the year and the cattle on Board the said Sloop may want provisions, and that if the said Sloop is detained few days more it will ruine her intended voyage, it being late in the year; It is the opinion of the Council that his Honour the Lieut. His Honor the Lieut. Governor asked the Gentlemen of the Council if they had any thing to offer to him for her Majesty's service, and the good of the Province;—he would readily adhere thereto.

Answer — they knew nothing at present.

His Honour acquainting this Board that having an account of the Enemy most of them being returned, desired to know their opinions whether the Spy vessels might be ordered to continue or to be dismissed.

It is the opinion of the Council that upon the return of the Spy vessels, they be dismissed if they have made no discovery of the Enemy. [Speedwell dismissed, the 29th Aug<sup>t</sup>, 1708.]

The Selectmen of Exeter according to notification, appeared at this Board, and gave his Honour an account that they had a Barrel and a half of powder and 200<sup>lbs</sup> of shot in their Town Stock, it being generally the full quantity of that place.

His Honour made the following speech, in hæc verba sequen :

Gentlemen —

At my coming into this Province, informed you, Mr. Chase at Hampton had made provision for my Entertainment; but at the request of this Board I went to Portsmouth, and from thence to her Majesty's Fort; I must say the provision made for my Lodging worse than my negros servants (but that is over)—both as to room and lodging.

May it please your Excellency.

Wee received yours of August, the 16th, and should have answered it sooner had not the Lt. At same time, wee humbly Crave leave to inform your Excel-

Phipps thereof, without giving any of us the least hint, by which means wee were kept in ignorance; and unless there be some regulation shall be rendered incapable from time to time of sending your Excellency any account of matters.

has doubled their Quota, New York has added five hundred, and we are no doubt drawing back. I pray you not to put me upon any methods in this matter that may be greivous.*

His Honor the Lieutenant Governour made the following speech, in hæc verba sequen.

Gentlemen—

His Excellency having account thirty men short of number Quota appointed for this Government, for her Majestys service for Expedition in reducing Canada, the glorious undertaking of so great an enterprise by her Gracious Majesty, together with the charge and expense from the Crown should have been in particular Incouragement to this her Government, considering, please God to give success, will be that persons may sit quiet under their own vines,—am sorry there should be a neglect attended with disorders.

His Excellency would have the Transports dispatch with speed, and that due care be taken for full allowance for four months from Nantaskett, and care for their subsistance while they stay, that they may not waste their stores; and provision for officers, & sick and wounded.

His Excellency's desire is that you would supply Major Walton with twenty pounds.

In obedience to his Excellency's commands, I am come into the Province to promote and forward his desire as above.

Gentlemen—

It is now about twelve months I came into the Government with hazard of my life: staid by his Excellencys command some time, spent my own mony and time, had no allowance, am now come again, expect allowance as is in Honor due to the Queen's Commission; knowing considerable hath been advanced for others, as by acc<sup>ts</sup> sent home.

It is his Excellencys pleasure you sit every day till all things accomplished, hope you [P. 243.] will dispatch all things to satisfaction; there is nothing thats proper for me to do shall be wanting.

I have ordered all Commission officers to attend me that due care may be taken for supply of the soldiers.

Gentlemen—

It seems strange that his Excellency for a long time should give orders for impressing two Transport Vessels, and men to navigate them, for her Majestys service: that when I now come into the Province wanting about five or six (when Seamen walk in the streets) that I am obliged to lay an Imbargo: must say service not promoted as ought.

His Excellency the Governor's letter of the 16th current, dated at Roxbury, relating to the Transports and provisions for four months full allowance for our Quota of men, and for subsistance while they tarry in the country, and for provisions for the officers and sick and wounded; as also that there is thirty men wanting of our Quota, and that the Council sit de die in diem till all things were done to satisfaction, was communicated at this Board.

The Council in Answer to his Excellency's said letter, are of opinion, that it is very necessary that there be four months provisions full allowance for our Quota of men at Nantaskett, as also subsistence for them till they depart from thence; and have discoursed the Treasurer relating to the same, who acquaints them that by reason of the unexpected length of time of the Fleets tarrying, there will be wanting (besides what is raised by Act of Assembly) two hundred and fifty pounds to purchase the said provisions and subsistence.

The Council replies, That there can be no money raised till an Assembly meets; who desires the same may be signified to his Excellency, the Governor.

Ordered, that the Proclamation about Deserters, in hæc verba sequen: be forthwith published.

By the Honorable JOHN USHER, Esq. Lieutenant Governour and Commander in Chief of Her Majestys Council of New Hampshire, in New England, in America:—

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas divers persons within this her Majesty's Province of New Hampshire have been impressed into her Majestys service to go upon an Expedition to Canada against the French and Indian Rebels and Murtheres, who have since run away and deserted the said service—

I have thought fit by and with the advice of her Majestys Council, to issue forth this Proclamation, that in case such deserters or any of them doe come in and surrender themselves to some of her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, within this Province, within forty eight hours, there shall be noe Fine or punishment inflicted upon them;—otherwise they will be proceeded against with utmost severity of Law. And all her Majestys subjects and others are hereby strictly forbidden to entertain, harbour, or conceal any of the said runaways or deserters, as they will answer the contrary on the penalty of the Law.

Mr. Treasurer answered, That he was incapable of doing the same, for that he had no pork or salt provisions, nor knew not where to get any in these parts; and alsoe that there was no mony in the Treasury to purchase the same, but he hopes in 14 days time he may be able to supply them.

Ordered that whereas there was two vessels formerly voted by the General Assembly in May last, for Mr. Commissary Penhallow to take up as Transports upon an Expedition to Canada, and whereas the said Commissary hath taken up the Brigantine Newcastle, and the Sloop Exeter, who are now in readiness to sail for Nantaskett:—

His Excellency's letter of the 24th Currant, directed to the Honourable Colonel John Usher, Esq. relating to 200 Indians marched from Mont Real thirty two days ago, was communicated at this Board.

The Gentlemen of the Council think it highly reasonable that provisions be taken care for accordingly.

Ordered that Mr. Treasurer Penhallow, take speedy care that the Troop and forty soldjers abovesaid, be furnished with provisions necessary for the scouting.

In answer to the above order, Mr. Treasurer saith he has no salt provisions, neither [P. 247.] knows where he can procure any in these parts, but can spare about 200<sup>w</sup> of Bread and is very free and willing to advance for the purchasing of provisions needful, as soon as it possibly can be got, provided the Assembly raise a fund for the same.

Ordered, that a General Thanksgiving be kept throughout this Province on ——— the ——— day of December next, and that the Secretary issue forth Proclamations to the Ministers of the several Towns, to be published in their several meetings one Sabbath day before the said first ———day of December. The Proclamation to be in hæc verba sequen :

By his Excellency Joseph Dudley, Esq. Captain General and Governour in Chief in and over her Majestys Provinces of New Hampshire, &c.

A PROCLAMATION FOR A GENERAL THANKSGIVING.

It having been the good pleasure of Almighty God, who is righteous in all His ways and holy in all His works, under a long process of various judgments upon this sinful unreformed people, in the midst of Judgment to remember Mercy, and [P. 253.] to show Himself gracious to us, particularly in the Summer past, in the great measure of health vouchsafed; in granting us a much more plentiful Harvest than we could reasonably hope for, by reason of the sore scorching Drought, on several parts of the Province; in restraining the outrage of our enemies and protecting our open towns and villages from their insults wherewith they have some time infested us; in yet favoring us with Gospel enjoyments and privileges, and the addition of innumerable other blessings, all which demanded our most grateful acknowledgements:—

I have therefore thought fit, by and with the advice of her Majesty's Council to order and appoint Thursday, the first day of December next, as a day for public general Thanksgiving throughout this Province, to celebrate the High Praises of God for His many and great mercies to our sovereign Lady the Queen, our Nation, and ourselves; hereby strictly commanding a religious observance of the said day, forbidding all servile labor and recreations thereon, and exhorting both Ministers and People in their public Assemblies, with a becoming devotion to offer up sincere and hearty praises to the God of all our Mercies, that we not forget all His benefits, but may through Grace have the continuance of His favors.

Given at the Council Chamber at Portsmouth, the 21st day of November, 1709, in the eighth year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lady Anne, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c.

Amidst the Various Awfull Rebukes of Heaven where-with we are Righteously Afflicted in the late disappointment of an Important Expedition (1), attended with soe many Smiles of providence in the beginning and progress thereof, and promising Hopes of Success; in the late Dreadfull Desolations by Consuming Fire and other Calamities (2), which demand our Deepest Humiliations and Contrition of Heart;

We are still under the Highest obligations of Gratitude for the many Instances of Divine Goodness in the favours Vouchsafed, particularly for the preservation of our most Gracious Sovereigne Lady the Queen; The prosperous Success of Her Majesties Just Arms in Europe; the Seasonableness of the Weather in the Summer past; the plentiful Harvest, the Great Measure of Health, the preservation and Safe returne of the Forces of these provinces, The Restraints of the Enemy and many other Undeserved Blessings Spiritual and Temporal, not to be enumerated.

(1) The expedition against Canada, besides the land forces under Gen. Nicholson, consisted of a "Fleet of 68 vessels, commanded by Sir Hovenden Walker, and having on board 6463 soldiers. The fleet sailed on the 30th of July, and arrived at the mouth of the St. Lawrence on the 14th of August. In proceeding up the river, the fleet, through the unskillfulness of the pilots, and by contrary winds, was in imminent danger of entire destruction. On the 22d August, about midnight, the seamen discovered that they were driven to the north shore among rocks and islands. Eight or nine of the British transports, on board of which were about 1700 officers and soldiers, were there cast away, and nearly 1000 men lost. Upon this disaster, the admiral bore away for Spanish River bay, at Cape Breton, where a council of land and naval officers, in consideration that there was but ten weeks' provision for the fleet and army, and that a seasonable supply from New England could not be expected, judged it expedient to relinquish the design. The Admiral sailed directly for England; and the provincial troops returned home. General Nicholson, who had advanced to Lake George, hearing of the miscarriage of the expedition on the St. Lawrence, retreated with the land army, and abandoned the enterprise." (2) On the 2d October, 1711, a fire broke out in Boston, near the centre of the town, and consumed all of the houses on each side of the main street, from School street to the foot of Cornhill. Besides the buildings in Cornhill, "all the upper part of what is now called State street, on the north and south sides, together with the town house, was burnt." Holmes Ann. Vol. I., p. 505.—ED.

* ADDITIONAL NOTE:—

"About the year 1720, Capt. Thomas Baker, of Northampton, in the County of Hampshire, in Massachusetts, set off with a scouting party of thirty-four men, passed up Connecticut river, and crossed the height of land to Pemigewasset river, [which is the west branch of the Merrimack]. He there discovered a party of Indians, whose Sachem was called Walthernummus, whom he attacked and destroyed. Baker and the Sachem leveled and discharged their guns at each other at the same instant. The ball from the Indians gun grazed Baker's left eye brow, but did him no injury. The ball from Baker's gun went through the breast of the Sachem. Immediately upon being wounded, he leaped four or five feet high, and then fell instantly dead. The Indians fled to the river; Baker and his party pursued, and destroyed every one of them. They had a wigwam on the bank of the river, which was nearly filled with beaver. Baker's party took as much of it as they could carry away, and burned the rest. Baker lost none of his men in this skirmish. It took place at the confluence or a small river with the Pemigewasset, between Plymouth and Campton, which has since had the name of Baker's river."—Farm and Moore's Coll., Vol. III, p. 100. [N. The following Letter was read at this Board in hæc verba sequen.

Boston, April 6th, 1713.

Gentlemen: I am upon the most difficult poynt with the Indians eastward, in order to restore them to obedience to her Majesties Government, and nothing cann prevent it soe much as vessels going thither to trade with them, in which a bottle of Rumm will unavoidably make a new breach, and gett some body knoct on the head, as heretofore hapned more than once.

Mr. Secretary Addington comes to you, with this, a copy of the Proclamation here, which I desire, mutatis mutandis, you will publish in the Province of New Hampshire.

You all know the cessation of Arms wants much of a Peace; and when that happily arrives, I must have a Treaty with them to secure their obedience; and then persons for factors and proper places must be determined before wee cann safely supply them; and all that must be done in the province of Maine, within the Government of the Massachusetts, and not by having Sloops upon the Coast, who will make them drunk, and murder will ensue; and if that should happen by your people out of their own Province, it will hazard [P. 310] their lives, besides a new trouble with the Indians; I desire you to use all industry to prevent this great mischief so plainly in view, and lett all vessels going Eastward be searched att the fort going away, and persons transgressing proceeded against.

I am y<sup>r</sup> humble servant,

J. DUDLEY.

I have therefore thought fitt by and with the advice of her Majesty's Council to issue this Proclamation, to notifie and caution all persons, as well of the hurt done to the publick, [P. 311.] as the displeasure and last danger they incur to themselves by such p<sup>r</sup>nitious and wicked practices, soe expressly and strictly forbidden; resolving to cause the Laws in the utmost pains and penalties thereof to be put in execution and inflected upon such wicked, obstinate

Gentlemen — On Saturday last when I was here I spoke to Mr. Treasurer to gett Mr. Packer's Acct. brought to this Board, relating to the expences of the Government at the meeting of the Indians when the Govern<sup>r</sup> and General were here — which Mr. Treasurer brought in accordingly.

The said Acc<sup>t</sup> being read, it is lookt upon as noe proper acc<sup>t</sup> and therefore,

Ordered, That the said Colonel Packer be directed to draw out an Acc<sup>t</sup> of the number of persons that dined every day, and of the quantity of the sorts of liquors, and that the said account when new drawn out be referred to the Committee for examining all acct<sup>s</sup> &c, and to inspect the same, and make Report.

The Council says there is an order of Government for a Committee to examine all accts. and make Report to the Assembly, and therefore they refer all acct<sup>s</sup> before them to that Committee.

His Honour the Lt. Govn<sup>r</sup> proposed to the Council, that he had been five times here upon her Maj<sup>ties</sup> Business, and have expended five pounds in one Journey besides his time, and often motioned it to the Council to be gratified ; but as yet never had any thing. It is the opinion of the Council, that this affair be referred to the next General Assembly.

Mr. Treasurer's Acc<sup>t</sup> Am<sup>o</sup> to £43. 3s. 8d. relating to expences of the Government, referred to the Committee.

The Gov<sup>m</sup> Letter bearing date, Jan<sup>r</sup> 17th, was this day read at y<sup>e</sup> Council board as followeth :

Gent<sup>m</sup> : I have before me Mr. Secretary Story's letter from the Council, & papers enclosed, & tho' I think y<sup>e</sup> winter season w<sup>d</sup> have given leisure [mo ?] to y<sup>e</sup> Council to have satt upon y<sup>e</sup> complaints of Portsmo : yet I shall allow of y<sup>e</sup> proceedings y<sup>r</sup>upon by a Committee, directing it to be done by impartiall p<sup>r</sup>sons of the Council ; or otherwise to revise y<sup>e</sup> proceedings upon y<sup>e</sup> said three years acc<sup>ts</sup>, y<sup>t</sup> y<sup>e</sup> whole matter may be sett in a true light agst y<sup>e</sup> next sitting of an Assembly, w<sup>ch</sup> I suppose will not be long hence.

The dismissing y<sup>e</sup> appeal by y<sup>e</sup> Superior Court, I am of opinion ought to have carryed its reason wth it ; tho' I am [P. 333.] not to doubt but y<sup>e</sup> Judges had y<sup>e</sup> reason for it. Referring to y<sup>e</sup> Papers signed by Captain Pickerin, Mr. Cotton & others alleadging double orders in the town book, &c., I cannot give any opinion unless upon y<sup>e</sup> place to see them, & hear both p<sup>r</sup>ties ; nor of the surplusage of the tax beyond y<sup>e</sup> Assembly's order, untill y<sup>e</sup> Committee have sett them in a true light ; whom, therefore, I direct you forthwith to appoint : in the meantime there must be no delay of collecting w<sup>t</sup> is granted by y<sup>e</sup> assembly to y<sup>e</sup> Crown for drawing in y<sup>e</sup> Province bills.

Whereas Charles Story,* Esq., deceased, was late Secretary of this Province, in whose hands y<sup>e</sup> Books of records and files of papers belonging to this Governm<sup>t</sup> lay ;

* For the following notice of Charles Story, Esq., the Editor is indebted to the late Hon. S. D. Bell, of Manchester.

Charles Story was appointed Judge of the Court of Admiralty for New Hampshire in the fall of 1696. He sailed for Portsmouth late in the same season, and arrived about the middle of January, 1797. On the 19th of that month he presented his commission to the President and Council, which was read, approved, and ordered to be recorded.

I have been able to ascertain nothing of his early history, of the time or place of his birth, of his parentage, education or employment. From his appointment one may fairly infer that in some capacity he had been trained to the legal profession, probably at Doctors' Commons, whence the Admiralty officers had been most usually selected. As the profits of his new office must have been small, he probably did not leave a very lucrative position at home.

Though the people of the Province were broken into parties, Mr. Story was pleasantly received by the party in power, and Mr. Henry Penny, who had been previously Secretary of the Province, was removed from office, and Mr. Story was appointed, took the oaths, and the records and files of the Province were placed in his custody.

The Council again convened on the first of February, but Mr. Story did not attend. They ordered a boat to be sent to Newcastle for him immediately. He appeared the next day, and the President reprimanded him for the neglect. Story answered "with lofty indecent carriage towards the Council," and said he had been cautioned against acting in those offices. The Council enquired by whom, but he declined to answer, and suspicions were entertained that he had been talked to by Lt. Governor Usher, who was in active hostility to the President and a majority of the Council. The Council then demanded of him the books and papers which had been delivered to him, but he peremptorily refused to deliver them. Whereupon the Council ordered the Constable to take him into custody, and issued a warrant to the Sheriff and Capt. John Pickering to take assistance and make search of houses, &c., for such books and papers, and bring them to the President and Council. The Sheriff in a short time brought the records and files. Mr. Story was brought in and informed that "they had obtained their books and papers, notwithstanding his efforts to prevent it; and since he had so peremptorily refused to serve the King, and so dismissed himself, the President and Council dismissed him. As to his office of Judge of the Admiralty within this Province the Court would do what was proper in countenancing and assisting him in the exercise of that office, according to his commission." So Mr. Story was dismissed, and Mr. Penny re-appointed.—Ad. An. of Ports., 104.

Usher, it is said, sent Story to England with complaints to the Lords of trade against the President and Council, which would show that Story chose to connect himself with Usher and the minority, rather than with the President and majority of the Council. Ib. 107.

Mr. Penny remained in the office of Secretary until February, 1698, when he was superseded by Sampson Sheafe, who held the office till the accession and qualification of Governor Bellingham in July, 1699, when Mr. Story was appointed Secretary, in the place of Sheafe. He held the office of Secretary till 1701, when the place was given to Samuel Penhallow, who was in office one year under Governor Usher. Mr. Story then resumed the office, and continued in it till the appointment of Richard Waldron as Clerk of the Council, by Governor Vaughan, in 1715.

In 1699 Mr. Story was appointed Register of Probate, and appears to have continued in the office till his death, the last date of his record being Dec. 11, 1714. He signs his probate records till Oct. 19, 1703, as Secretary, and till the end of 1705 Secretary and Register, and after that, Register.

Little is known of his ability and capacity as Judge of the Court of Admiralty, and the length of time he remained in that office is rendered uncertain by the statements in the Judicial History of Massachusetts, that the Jurisdiction of the Judges of the Admiralty for the Northern District of New England included Maine and New Hampshire, as well as Massachusetts.

In 1712 Mr. Story was Attorney-General of the Province, and he was engaged as Council in many of the most important lawsuits, sometimes with Capt. Pickering, sometimes against him. Jarvis Ring, John Meinzie and John Valentine, were often engaged on the other side. Meinzie became Judge of the Admiralty in 1715.

In September, 1709, Mr. Story took a lease from Vaughan and others, Committee of the town, of one of the Glebe Lots, but did not comply with the conditions, and it was leased to another person.—Br. Rambles, 40, 41, 42.

Mr. Story's residence was at New Castle. He seems to have dealt little in real estate, few deeds to which he was party being found on record.

His will is found on the files of the Registry Office, dated March 4, 1714-15, in which he says he is sick and weak in body; gives to his wife Susanna all his estate, real and personal, except a few shillings each to four kinsmen and kinswomen, named Foster, and to Barbara Booth. His will was proved March 17, 1715-16. Nothing further is found relating to his estate.

That yo<sup>r</sup> Petitioner, being one of y<sup>e</sup> Constables of Portsm<sup>o</sup> in the year 1714, had a list of rates committed to him to collect for y<sup>e</sup> Prov. use, by virtue of w<sup>ch</sup> & a legal warrant to him directed by y<sup>e</sup> selectmen and assessors, he did apprehend and bring before two Justices of the Peace sundry p'sons named in that list, to y<sup>e</sup> number of thirteen, who refused to pay their rates or show yo<sup>r</sup> petitioner any estate to distrain upon ; w<sup>ch</sup> Justices refused to take any cognizance at all of the matter ; each man going away as he pleased ; since which the Treasurer has caused an execution to be levyed on your petitioner's estate to satisfy

I wish I could do any thing more for your service here; but w<sup>n</sup> I have the pleasure to meet you in America, you yourselves will see how much I have yo<sup>r</sup> interest at heart, & that I desire nothing more earnestly than yo<sup>r</sup> good opinion; & the good of the people I have preferred to my best friends, and wth whom I hope to live and die. The Hon<sup>ble</sup> Gov. Vaughan, Esq., Lt. Gov<sup>r</sup>, &c., made a speech to this Board, as followeth:

* "George Vaughan, son of Major William Vaughan (born April 13, 1676,) had been employed in England as an agent for the Province, which brought him into notice with many persons of influence about the Court. The acquaintance and connexion his father had formed there, and the good opinion entertained of him by some high in rank and authority, were of essential service to the son. Upon their recommendation he was appointed Lieutenant-Governor of New Hampshire. As he was a native of the Province and had the confidence of the people, this appointment was very agreeable to them, and particularly to his father, who was now in the decline of life." Ad. Am. Portsmouth, p. 132. It does not appear that Governor Burgess ever came to this country, so that the Government was administered by Vaughan, until the arrival of Governor Shute.—Ed.

sitt in this chair wth you, in order to serve the publick, so I do in the first place apply to you, who are the King's Council, whom I have called together for yo<sup>r</sup> advice & assistance in all things that shall be for y<sup>e</sup> honour of the Crown or the benefit or advantage of this his Maj<sup>ties</sup> Province, & I do assure you that my endeavors shall at no time be wanting to promote or effect the same.

GEO. VAUGHAN.

2<sup>do</sup>. As to y<sup>e</sup> state of the treasury & the several branches thereof: Mr. Treasurer Penhallow answered, that he has an account of the lumber mony & excise mony, w<sup>ch</sup> he then p<sup>r</sup>esented to his Hon<sup>r</sup> together wth a memoriall of the State of the Province. He further said, he would take care to serve his Hon<sup>r</sup> with an account of the Impost mony as soon as possible.

3th. As to the goal: 'Tis the opinion of the Council that 'tis necessary that it be removed or repaired forthwith; but that nothing can be done in that matter wthout an assembly.

4th. As to the burning the remaind<sup>r</sup> of the £1000, voted to be burnt by y<sup>e</sup> 10th June last, Mr. Treasurer Penhallow answered, that the money was ready, w<sup>ch</sup> he p'sented to y<sup>e</sup> board; w<sup>a</sup> it was counted over by Mark Hunking, Esq, & Capt. Josh<sup>a</sup> Winget; but 'twas thought not convenient to be burnt without an assembly.

5th. Whether bonds are given for the £1500 borrowed out of the treasury; & if so, where they are lodged: The Council answer that some of themselves (who took of that money) had given bonds therefor, which were lodged wth Rich<sup>d</sup> Gerrish, Esq.

[P. 349.] The Lieut. Gov<sup>r</sup> desired to know, how those bonds came to be lodged with him, & who had gotten his bond: The Council answer they do not know.

6th. Lastly, The Lieut. Gov<sup>r</sup> told the Council he had again to recommend to their consideration an honourable reception of his Excellency, Col. Burgess, when he should arrive, w<sup>ch</sup>, with y<sup>e</sup> other considerations w<sup>ch</sup> he had proposed to them, did sufficiently demonstrate the present occasion of an Assembly's being called. The Council answer, That they are of his Hon<sup>r</sup> opinion in that matter, (viz.) That there is absolute need of an Assembly at this juncture, & they advised accordingly.

Your Excellency's last arrival was well pleasing to y<sup>e</sup> whole Governm<sup>t</sup>; your administration easy; yo<sup>r</sup> endeavors to pacify & moderate all feuds and broils, and we all in good temper.

May it please your Excellency :

My indisposition by reason of a great cold increasing, and my habitation remote, makes me solicitous of getting home ; and heartily to wish yo<sup>r</sup> Excellency a good journey to yo<sup>r</sup> other Governm<sup>t</sup> ; but before I take my leave, I think it my duty frankly and plainly to inform your Excellency that as his most excellent Majesty, our Sovereign Lord the King, hath reposed much trust in my circumspection, &c., as Lt. His Hon<sup>r</sup> the Lt. Gov<sup>r</sup> made the following speech at the Council Board :

Gen<sup>t</sup>: I am informed His Excellency Col. Shute vacated all offices civill and military, when in the Prov : of N. Hamp<sup>r</sup>, and went out of it leaving none to execute pow<sup>m</sup> as Justices of the peace and military officers, capable so to act.

My knowledge is by hear-say ; for he never advised me nor with me in one or the other disannulling pow<sup>r</sup> or giving any.

I am obliged to say, that it is strange that y<sup>e</sup> King's Governm<sup>t</sup> should be destitute of pow<sup>r</sup>, especially when the Gov<sup>m</sup> repeated opinion has been, that there is no pow<sup>r</sup> but what is vested in himself and those by him ordained, tho' he be wthout y<sup>e</sup> limits of the Governm<sup>t</sup>.

I think it safe y<sup>t</sup> all civill officers should be commissioned by advice of Council ; I would therefore have you consider amongst yourselves y<sup>e</sup> necessary for the service of the [P. 368.] Governm<sup>t</sup>.

I have examined the Clerk's minutes & find no such thing there sett down ; I have enquired of him & other councill<sup>m</sup>, whose advice was never asked, & know nothing of the affair. I have heard that a Commission of the Peace was left. I have askt the Clerk if he inserted the names therein pr the Gov<sup>m</sup> order : he answered, No : Again, whether the Gov<sup>r</sup> left the Com<sup>m</sup> with him : He answered, No ; but that the Gov<sup>r</sup> told him there was a Commission of the Peace left wth Mr. Penhallow to be delivered to him again ; when Mr. Penhallow give him that Commission he answered not at all, but that it was given him by Mr. Jaffrey, on Fryday last.

Gen<sup>t</sup>: I am sorry that I myself, and many of his Maj<sup>ties</sup> Council should be ignorant of these matters, that we might have given our advice for the King's and the Governm<sup>nt</sup> best interest, as we are ready and sworn to do.

I am impowered by my own as well as by the Gov<sup>m</sup> Commission to act when he is out of the Province ; and will endeavour faithfully to execute the trust reposed in me, and expect to meet wth no obstruction from any of the King's ministers in all reasonable and lawful matters.

The limitts of the Prov: is exprest in Col. Shute's Commission, and when he is not wthin them limitts, but forty miles distant, he must be out of said Prov:, and, consequently absent, & if so, incapable of acting as Commander-in-chief till his return into s<sup>d</sup> Province, w<sup>ch</sup> are the plain words of his Commission. I expect your advice and opinion to be given me in writing, and therefore will direct the clerk to wait on you with a copy of w<sup>t</sup> I have said. In fine, Gent<sup>n</sup>:—tis demanded of you whether or no I am vested wth pow<sup>r</sup> as Lt. Gov<sup>r</sup> & Commander-in-Chief, his Excellency Col. Shute being at Boston.

May 29th 1717.

GEORGE VAUGHAN.

[P. 369.] The aforesaid speech being read, the Lt. Gov<sup>r</sup> withdrew, & then the speech was read a 2<sup>d</sup> time; after which the clerk was askt pr y<sup>e</sup> Council, whether he had waited on the Lt. Gov<sup>r</sup> wth the Commission of the Peace: he answered, That as soon as he had it in his custody, he informed the Lt. Gov<sup>r</sup> of it, & told him, that it was his Excellency's direction to the Lt. I understand an Express was sent to Boston : if the King's service required it, why was it not made known to me ? I expect no such thing be done for y<sup>e</sup> future, as any will answer it at their perill.

† The Hon. Theodore Atkinson was born in Boston; his ancestors lived at Bury, in the county of Lancaster in England. His grandfather migrated to this country about the year 1634, and settled in Boston, where he possessed a large real estate. He owned seven acres of land near Fort Hill, which was called the pasture; he likewise owned land on Atkinson street, which was called after his name, and on Berry street, which was so called from Berry the place of his nativity, having undergone a slight change in its orthography. The grandson [Theodore] removed to Portsmouth in 1694, and settled at Great Island, which was at that time a place of considerable importance, and the most populous part of the town. He there engaged very largely in trade and fishery. In 1701, he was appointed Clerk of the Superiour Court of Judicature for the Province. In 1716, under Gov. Shute, he was appointed one of the Council. He was intrusted with various other important offices, which he executed with great fidelity, and was much beloved by the people. He died on the 6th May, 1719, aged 50, and his death was considered a public loss. [See Adams' Ann. Ports.]

NOTE. Thus far the Council Records appear to be complete, and are found in a full bound MS. volume in the Secretary's Office, labeled "JOURNAL OF THE COUNCIL, 1696—1722." But the Records of the Council which follow, from June, 1722, to November, 1728, appear to be very imperfect—some of them mere notes or scraps; these are found in the Secretary's office, in a MS. vol., labeled "COMMISSIONS, &c., COUNCIL & ASSEMBLY RECORDS, 1690 to 1740, Imperfect." It is a matter of deep regret, that full Records of the Council—during the aforementioned latter period—are nowhere to be found; but the above, such as they are, will be printed in the next volume of Provincial Papers.—ED.

INDEX

[NOTE. The Index, which follows, is designed to contain the name of every person mentioned in this second volume. The officers of government, as Governor, Lieut. Governor, and Councilors, are put in SMALL CAPITALS, but not otherwise referred to, except as performing some assigned duty. The word passim indicates that a name is found very often in the volume, and need not, therefore, be repeatedly noted. Besides names, the Index, it will be seen, contains reference to all the leading matters in the volume, and should therefore be carefully consulted. The Editor has aimed to be accurate, but still fears that errors may be discovered.

When a name occurs more than once on a page, or on two pages in the same connection, it is not generally repeated in the Index.—ED.]
